TAKING THE COURSE AT ROYAL SCHOOL OF ARTILLERY.

The Men Come From All Kinds of Trades and Professions — They Are Anxious to Show Their Patriotism.

Tete de Pont Baracks has suddenly changed from a comparatively quiet place to a very busy one. On Monday every one was busy at something beside his regular work. The draft of fifty men and two officers needs a lot of work, as new attestation papers are made out, the men medically examined, and other preparations made.

The opening of the fifth course of the Royal School of Artillery means a great deal of work, particularly as it comes at the same time as the draft is being made ready. The class is a big one, but the instructors are highly pleased with the kind of men who are qualifying as N. C. O.'s and officers. One difference which is noted in this class is the absence of a number of familiar faces, those who have made a continuous practice of taking this course. The men who are taking the course are from all kinds of trades and professions, which shows the wide sweep of patriotism. Bankers, lawyers, architects, clerks, students and engineers are in the list.

The list of officers who have so far reported for the school is: Major G. H. Maxwell, Halifax; Capt. A. G. Gill, Annapolis; Lieut. J. L. Counsell, Hamilton; Lieut. David Wick, Cobourg; Lieut. R. P. Massey, Cobourg; Provisional Lieutenants: John F. Wilkins, Farnham, Que.; R. McMurtry, Montreal; R. L. Smythe, Montreal; R. Newton, Woodstock, N.B.; H. S. Cheesbrough, Montreal; Montreal; E. C. Cate, Sherbrooke; R. W. Buchanan, Lethbridge; C. H. E. Powell, Ottawa; Andrew McAulity, N. H. Treadwell, Ottawa; De W. Ferner, Ottawa; C. K. Whitaker, Winnipeg; J. Duncan, Sarnia; A. B. Stafford, Lethbridge; J. Steacy, Kingston; S. P. Price, Winnipeg; A. L. Bouque, Moncton; H. W. Messerly, Charlottetown; D. B. Weidon, Moncton; W. C. Pitfield, Montreal; W. S. McCarvin, Kingston; N. B. Buchanan, Edmonton; R. W. Massey, Woodstock; C. King, Ottawa; D. McCallum, Kingston; J. C. Mitchell, London; F. S. Filmer, Lethbridge; L. F. Clarke, Aylmer; T. A. Beasley, Hamilton; M. G. Halloran, Ottawa; J. H. Southern, Hamilton; A. M. Boyd, Toronto; W. D. Wilson, Hamilton; N. E. Wallace, Hamilton; G. G. Mella, Toronto; T. J. Findley, Toronto; G. A. Cochrane, Toronto; S. Lofft, St. Mary's; R. M. Elmer, Kingston; A. M. Latchford, Toronto; R. J. Olmstead, St. Catharines; C. Smythe, Toronto; T. W. Beasley, St. Catharines; H. R. Case, Toronto; C. W. Rivers, Ottawa; W. W. Boyd, Peterboro; E. D. Hyncke, Peterboro; C. D. S. Lavee, Digby, N.S.; J. B. Bell, St. John, N.B.; J. K. Latchford, Toronto; W. G. Harris, Antigonish, N.S.

AT LAKE ONTARIO PARK

The Singers of Fame Were Heard With Pleasure

Those who attended Lake Ontario Park, last evening, witnessed an entertainment of high merit, one which drew out music lovers. Mayflower and Violet Beasey, singers, pianists and violinists, formed the principal part of the entertainment and each is an artist of pronounced ability. Their repertoire was varied and well selected. Mayflower Beasey opened the programme with "Mazurka," showing diversity of touch and skill in handling the bow. In response to an encore she played "Where is My Bonnie Boy Gone." The next number was given by Miss Violet Beasey, "The Rosary," a song which showed the richness of her voice. In response to repeated applause she sang "Widow McCrae." The third number was a piano solo by Miss Mayflower Beasey, "Rhapsodie No. 2." Last, and a duet of Misses Mayflower and Violet Beasey on violins concluded the part. These young ladies will give several new selections each evening.

Miss Hattie Williams, an odd-time favorite, gave first a scientific display of her arduous and difficult work with the punching bags and concluded by some novelty stunts that gained her repeated applause. The pictures were excellent, especially "The Evolution of Aunty," "The Brooding Heart," and "Curiosity." The same programme this evening.

Wednesday will be children's one cent day on cars with matinee at 3:30 p.m.

At the Grand.

A delightful programme of vaudeville and pictures was presented at the Grand Opera House last night before a good-sized audience, and was thoroughly enjoyed. The feature picture was "Niobe," with Hazel Dawn in the leading role. It is one of the best pictures ever presented in the city. The other pictures shown were a two-reel Universal subject, "The Old Doctor," Pathe picture "When Charley Was a Child," and a comedy picture "The Refugees." All were good, and pleased immensely. The vaudeville consisted of Lovell and Lovell in a singing act, in which with the use of slides they sing some of the old favorite songs. It was quite a change from the ordinary singing, and won repeated applause from the audience.

League Has Dropped Out.

What has become of the Sunday School Amateur Athletic Association baseball series? This is the question a number of the Sunday School baseball fans are asking. Last season the president of the league donated a trophy for the senior series, but owing to lack of interest on the part of many of the former players the league has dropped out of existence. Unless something is done, and done quickly, the officers will find it difficult to get a basketball series this fall.

IN MARINE CIRCLES.

Movements of Vessels Reported Along the Harbor.

The steamer H. N. Jex cleared for Charlotte.

The tug Hall arrived from Lachine light.

The steamer Algonquin discharged a cargo of oats at Richardson's elevator, and cleared for Fort William; steamer Rhodes is now discharging her cargo of oats to this elevator.

The sloop Granger arrived at Milton Island with a cargo of ice from Cape Vincent, and is now in port here.

A rough passage was experienced by those on the steamer Kingston from Charlotte to Kingston on Monday night. This steamer should have been in port at five o'clock Tuesday morning, but did not reach here until 6:30 o'clock. There were many seasick passengers on board.

The tug Shanley, partly drawn up stern first on the Kingston Foundry ways to undergo repairs, was accidentally struck on the bow by the steam barge Robert McDonald on Monday afternoon. The tug was sent to the bottom of the slip, and considerable difficulty was experienced before the employees were able to get her back on the ways. Tuesday morning work was progressing on the tug as though nothing had happened.

The steamer Arabian arrived in port from Montreal at 10 p.m. Monday, and laid over at the Kingston Shipbuilding wharf until Tuesday morning.

Steamers Stanstead and Pellatt are expected up.

WANTS TO GET BACK.

"Scotty" Ramsay To Join Comrades For Third Time.

Word has been received in the city that Pte. William Ramsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay, 48 Division street, is anxiously waiting in England to go back to the firing line for the third time, having been twice wounded. Writing from England, "Scotty," as he is better known, says that he has been attached to the first draft to be sent to France. Ramsay left Kingston with Capt. George T. Richardson of the 14th Regiment, overseas contingent. He was only on the firing line a few weeks when he was shot. After recovering from his injuries he was again struck down in the battle of Langemarck. His injuries were confined to his feet, and for that reason he was compelled to remain in hospital for many weeks.

Ramsay, who formerly came from Scotland, was a member of the 14th Regiment before enlisting.

OLD TIMES RECALLED

IN LETTER MAYOR SUTHERLAND RECEIVED TUESDAY.

And a Copy of Kingston Gazette, Under Date of Feb. 17th, 1818, From James M. Clute—Paper is Quite a Relic.

On Tuesday morning Mayor Sutherland received quite a relic through the mail, when he received from James M. Clute, of Los Angeles, Cal., a copy of the Kingston Gazette of the date of February 17th, 1818, printed and published by Stephen Miles, as a weekly, and which sold at $4 per annum. It contains quite a large number of advertisements and reading matter. One of the first advertisements noticed by Mayor Sutherland was that of Smith & Butterworth, merchants. Mr. Butterworth was a great-grandfather of Mrs. Sutherland.

One of the advertisements states that "Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will open a seminary, assisted by their son and daughter." The request is made that the girls attending bring their own bed and bedding, also a table spoon and a napkin.

A stage route is also advertised, running from York (now Toronto) to Kingston. The fare from Belleville to Kingston is given as $3; from Kingston to Spalden's $6; from Kingston to York $10. The letter reads as follows:

"Dear Sir,—Enclosed you will find an 'old timer.' When this paper was printed it was the custom to read the papers and pass them around. In following that rule, I send it to you, in the hope that you will appreciate it more than anyone here. In 1850 I was living in Kingston. My father was purser on the 'Dawn.' Hon. John A. Macdonald appointed him collector of customs at Pictou. He held down that job until he was 77 years old. In 1866 I had a very pleasant visit in your city. The 16th Battalion was ordered to Kingston. My squad was billeted on Capt. Charles Gilderleeve. We had the best of everything, and were treated royally. One night, on account of the fog, the steamer from Cape Vincent was detained, and a rumor came that the Fenians had captured her and that they were coming over on her."

"At one o'clock in the morning my company was ordered across the bridge. In order to help the Royal Artillery 'hold the fort.' I saw the first water that came through the pipes from the waterworks about 1849. I saw the Prince of Wales when he refused to land at the wharf on account of the Grange arch and banners. There are a great many Canadians living here. We like our home here, but often look back to the beautiful St. Lawrence and the loved ones left in Canada."

Gathered To Say Farewell.

On Monday evening, the Young Women's Bible Class of Cooke's Presbyterian Church were invited to the home of the President, Miss Gertrude Kennedy, 295 Johnson street, to say farewell to their teacher, Mrs. McIntosh. A very pleasant time was spent and on behalf of the class an address was read by Miss Kennedy, expressing the regret and sorrow they felt in the loss of Mrs. McIntosh, and to show their appreciation of her kindness. Miss Ferguson presented her with a beautiful cameo pin.

New York's Biggest Success

"A Little Bit of Heaven Shure They Call It Ireland" Sung By Mr. Chauncey Olcott

Have you ever heard the story of how Ireland got its name? I'll tell you so you'll understand from whence old Ireland came: No wonder that we're proud of that dear land across the sea. For here's the way me dear old mother told the tale to me:

Shure, a little bit of Heaven fell out the sky one day, And nestled on the ocean in a spot so far away? And when the angels found it, shure it looked so sweet and fair, They said, "Suppose we leave it, for it looks so peaceful there;" So they sprinkled it with star dust just to make the shamrocks grow. 'Tis the only place you'll find them, no matter where you go; Then they dotted it with silver, to make its lakes so grand, And when they had it finished, shure they called it Ireland.

'Tis a dear old land of fairies and of wondrous wishing wells, And nowhere else on God's green earth have they such lakes and dells. No wonder that the angels loved its Shamrock-bordered shore, 'Tis a little bit of Heaven, and I love it more and more.
