SERGT. HEATON ALIVE
CORP. WILLIAMS TALKED WITH HIM RECENTLY.

He Had To Have Three Operations
To Get The Shrapnel Out of His Body—Women and Boys Are Busy Harvesting.

Although it was reported in the papers that Sergt. Heaton, who went overseas with the 5th Field Battery, had died of wounds which he received while fighting in France, he is still much alive. Corp. Douglas Williams No. 1 Company, of the 21st Battalion, writing to a friend in the city, says that he had met Sergt. Heaton since he left hospital.
Williams states that Heaton had been confined to Lincoln Hospital for thirteen weeks, having undergone three operations to get fourteen pieces of shrapnel out of his body. At the present time Heaton is resting, but expects to be sent back to France at any time.

Williams states that all the men of the 21st are in the pink of condition, and are getting plenty to eat.
He also speaks of the inspection of the 22,000 Canadian troops by Premier Borden and Major-General Sam.
Hughes. "We were out for a route march the other day for a distance of eighteen miles," he writes. "I saw women and boys working in the fields making hay. Some were very old women, but I guess they have to do the work on account of all the men fighting for the King in the trenches in France."

The 43rd Battalion left Martin's Plains in France, where they have gone as reinforcements for the First Contingent.

AT COOKE'S CHURCH.
Congregation Said Good-bye to Rev.
J. W. and Mrs. McIntosh.

To bid farewell to their departing pastor, Rev. J. W. McIntosh, a goodly number turned out in Cooke's Presbyterian Sunday school hall on Tuesday evening, despite the bad weather. H. W. Newman occupied the chair for the first part of the evening. A varied programme was rendered by several visitors to the city. Miss Platt, Picton, rendered some choice piano solos; Miss Irene Shay, Painesville, sang with a clear, sweet voice some selections, also Miss Agnes Lemmon, Viola solos were rendered by Mr. Belle Isle, Montreal. Throughout the programme, Mrs. F. W. Reid, Smith's Falls, acted as accompanist.

Mrs. James McCullis read a beautifully worded address to Mrs. Mc-Intosh, while Miss Edith Newman, on behalf of the ladies, presented the pastor's wife with a life membership in the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Mr. McIntosh replied in a befitting manner upon behalf of his helpmate for the many kindnesses that had been shown by the congregation during his pastorate.

Short addresses, all of which expressed deep regret over the departure of Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, were given by M. H. Claxton, W. Anderson, James McCullis, S. S. Corbett, H.
W. Newman and D. A. Shaw.

At the close the ladies served ice cream and cake, and before adjournment every one joined hands in a circle and sang Auld Lang Syne.

BOY TRIED TO ENLIST
POLICE ROUNDED UP RUNAWAY LAD IN THE CITY.

Youngster Says He Had One Brother Killed. And Another Wounded, And That He Wanted to Get to the Front to Help Fight Germans.

Running away from a home in which he had been placed near the city, having been sent out from a Brookville Home, a fourteen-year-old lad, of Scottish parents, arrived in Kingston on Tuesday afternoon, and tried to enlist for overseas service, but of course was too young to be taken on.

The boy declared that he had one brother killed and another wounded at the front, and that he was very anxious to get to the front to kill Germans.

The youngster was rounded up by the police and taken to the police station. W. H. Wylie, inspector for the Children's Aid Society, was notified, and he is holding the boy here, awaiting word from the Brockville Home to have him sent back there.

The youngster cried bitterly while he was at the police station.

New York's Biggest Success
"A Little Bit of Heaven Shure They Call It Ireland" Sung By Mr. Chauncey Olcott

Have you ever heard the story of how Ireland got its name?
I'll tell you so you'll understand from whence old Ireland came;
No wonder that we're proud of that dear land across the sea,
For here's the way me dear old mother told the tale to me:

Shure, a little bit of Heaven fell out the sky one day,
And settled on the ocean in a spot so far away;
And when the angels found it, shure it looked so sweet and fair,
They said, "Suppose we leave it, for it looks so peaceful there;"
So they sprinkled it with star dust just to make the shamrocks grow,
'Tis the only place you'll find them, no matter where you go;
Then they dotted it with silver, to make its lakes so grand,
And when they had it finished, shure they called it Ireland.

'Tis a dear old land of fairies and of wondrous wishing wells,
And nowhere else on God's green earth have they such lakes and dells.
No wonder that the angels loved its Shamrock-bordered shore,
'Tis a little bit of Heaven, and I love it more and more.
