Letters To Editor

Must Not Accept Resignation. Kingston, Aug. 4.—(To the Editor): As a member of St. Andrew's Church, I am writing to you in the opinion of many, if not all, my fellow members, when I say that we cannot accept the resignation of our minister. We are proud of him and his patriotic offer of his services to our country and the Empire, and feel very strongly that it should be a case of leave of absence, not a resignation. There are five clergymen in our congregation, three of whom are members of session, who will, I am sure, be willing to do the pastoral work, and there are also the theological professors at Queen's, who will surely be willing to do their part, in helping with the other services of the congregation, as they are unable to follow the example of Mr. Compton, in going to the front. Surely those who heard Mr. Compton's magnificent appeal this morning, will agree with me in saying that we will lend him for the duration of the war, but not give him up entirely. MEMBER OF ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

HERE'S A CHANCE.

There are a few hundred officers from all parts of Canada now arriving in the city to take an artillery course. These men are looking for suitable boarding houses. They are strangers in the city, and their only recourse is to consult the ads. in the newspapers. How convenient, then, if the landlady who gives rooms and board, would advertise the fact in the Whig. It would be a great convenience to these officers, and would doubtless bring the landlady a small profit, costs only $2.00 for three days or $10.00 for a week. This is an opportunity to secure suitable boarders, and it should be taken advantage of.
