To Free Your Skin of Hair or Fuzz

(Boudoir Secrets)
No toilet table is complete without a small package of delatone, for with it hair or fuzz can be quickly banished from the skin. To remove hairs you merely mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the objectionable hairs. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when it will be found free from hair or blemish. Be sure you get genuine delatone.

ARTILLERY RECRUITS

ARE STEADILY ENLISTING FOR THE 3RD BATTERY
Majors Barrett and Sears Are the Recruiting Officers—Good Men Are Being Secured.

Major E. C. Barrett, O.C. 5th Kingston Battery and Major W. Sears, R.O., who are recruiting artillerymen for overseas service, report a splendid response by the best type of men. The 3rd Battery, which is being formed from the 9th Artillery Brigade, is getting to be known as the "Sportsmen's Battery" and will undoubtedly consist of such men as made up the 26th Battery here. The men being chosen are those who are intelligent and willing to learn. The officers will not accept "floaters."

Artillery is probably the best branch of the service. It not only requires a good physique, but also good intellect. The training is decidedly more technical than in infantry, as the mastering of large artillery guns requires a great amount of study. The names of the men who have so far volunteered and been accepted here, numbering twenty-four, since the recruiting started this week, is as follows: Allan R. Davis, Wolfe Island; William Jackson, 108 Montreal street; Earl Simmons, 198 William street; Stewart M. Norris, 36 Upper William street; William Stewart, Scotland; F. Frape, 194 Montreal street; George Butala, Canton, Ohio; Frank Funnell, 12 St. Catharines street; John Williamson, 113 Albert street; Raymond Rogers, 171 Clergue street; Arthur R. Fowler, 96 Rideau street; George Addy, Hickson Ave.; William J. Ferguson, Walkerton; J. Clarke, 70 William street; Joseph Leonard, New York City; Ernest P. Sine, Foxborough; H. L. Patolr, British Guinea; W. H. Henderson, Toronto; W. H. Berry, Hamilton; S. W. Duncan, Belleville; Andrew B. Hall, Belleville; John Ward, Fallow; J. Hall, Scotland; James Miller, Belleville; J. F. Tyrrell, Belleville.

The present recruiting office is at Artillery Park but another will probably be opened next door to Gibson's Drug Store, Market street.

Summer School Farewell Reception.

A delightful time was spent on Wednesday evening by the students of Queen's summer school, when they held a farewell reception in the new Arts building. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flags. In the long corridors dancing was indulged in, while the various class rooms were occupied by card parties.

Mrs. A. B. Klugh, Mrs. Revell and Mrs. Jackson charmingly fulfilled the duties of hostesses. Among the guests were the following: Mrs. Klugh, Mrs. W. C. Baker, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Revell, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Cadnor, Misses Parker, Nesser, Harris, Shaw, Tovell, Wilson, Hicks, Argue, Davey, McGill, A. Baxter, O'Leary, McDougall, I. Baxter, MacLeod, McDugger, Jean Johnson, Hamilton, London, Prof. Adams; Prof. A. B. Klugh, Prof. W. C. Baker, Dr. Buchanan, Prof. Adams; Messrs. Bound To Go to the Front.
A Whig reporter had an interview with James Auld, a middle-aged man at the Hotel Dieu on Thursday morning. Mr. Auld recently went to the recruiting station to be enlisted, but was turned down on account of his physical condition. Now he has undergone an operation that will in all probability allow him to pass for overseas duty.

IN MARINE CIRCLES.

There is a Death of Trade Just now.

The lack of business for package freighters on the Great Lakes has made it necessary for the companies to take their steamers off the old routes and place them on the ocean. The steamer Chemung, which has been doing pretty well on the lakes for some time, has arrived at Prescott, and was there cut in two and is being taken down to Lachine, where she will be put together again. The tugs Bronson and Hall are due to leave Prescott to-day with the parts of the steamer.

At the M. T. Co.'s wharf: Steamer Advance arrived up light, and will leave to-morrow for Port Colborne; tug Emerson due on Friday with barge Quebec from Port Colborne loaded with grain, and barge Kingston with coal from Charlotte.

The steamer Jeska arrived at Crawford's wharf on Thursday morning. Steamer Joseph has arrived at the penitentiary wharf with coal. Schooner City of Sheboygan, unloading coal at the penitentiary, has cleared.

Steamer Isabella H. from Oswego, is at Soward's wharf unloading coal. Steamer Stanstead passed down 4 a.m. Thursday.

The stamps, which have caused much annoyance for years in the northern end of the harbor, are to be removed by the Government Department of Public Works. A fairly busy summer has been experienced at the Davis drydock, and on account of the low water one large schooner, the City of Sheboygan, had to be turned away. With the deepening of the channel by dredging it is going to greatly benefit facilities for everyone concerned in business in this section of the harbor.

The schooner Horace Tabor left Davis' drydock on Thursday morning.

BIRTHS IN KINGSTON.

In these war times, the cry for men makes the vital statistics of a country of more than passing interest. The Whig keeps up the pretence of rate registrations at the City Clerk's office show that during the six months of 1915 ending the 30th of June, there were 242 births in Kingston, of which 123 were girls and 119 were boys.

HELPING THE CAUSE.

Monthly Meeting of the Mowat Hospital Board.
The Mowat Memorial Hospital Board had its monthly meeting on Wednesday, with Dr. J. C. Connell in the chair. The accounts were passed and a splendid report given by the lady visitors to the institution. They had never found the place so clean, so bright or so inviting as on their last monthly visit. The staff was commended for its marked efficiency.

The governors were most pleased with the generosity of citizens and others in helping the funds of the hospital. The crisis is fairly past, though there is still need for assistance to put the board in condition to do good work. Wednesday's mail brought a cheque of $50 from Mrs. Jane Rawlands, St. Catharines, towards the maintenance of the Rowlands Cottage. The fund stands: Col. H. R. Duff $25.00, N. C. Polson $25.00, George Sanderson $10.00, Miss Bessie Sanderson $5.00, Miss Dupuy $5.00.

GETS WHIG REGULARLY.

Nursing Sister E. C. Mercer sister of John Mercer, Brock street, writing home from Le Touquet Hospital, France, states that she gets the Whig regularly. "Although it takes a long time to reach us, we certainly appreciate the Kingston Whig," says Miss Mercer.

Clarendon Private Writes.

Mrs. J. Campbell, Clarendon Station, has received a letter from her son, Pte. J. Campbell, Canadian Engineers, who is in Sherbrooke, Eng. Pte. Campbell writes that the vessel which carried his corps was three weeks on the way. It ran down the Atlantic coast almost to Africa in order to keep clear of submarines and finally landed at Plymouth. There were about 2,000 soldiers on the steamer. The camp is a quarter of a mile from the ocean on a high cliff. There are about 40,000 troops encamped. The Engineers are in the old Royal Engineers' barracks about a mile from Folkestone. Pte. Campbell is expected to be able to visit London shortly.

Police Court Cases.

"I have not been before the Magistrate in fifteen years for being drunk," was the statement of George Burns when he appeared before Mayor Sutherland in the Police Court on Thursday morning. He claimed to have a job to go to, so the acting magistrate gave him a chance to go to it.

Charles Bryant, who appeared before the Court for being under the influence of liquor while on the "prohibited list," was remanded until Saturday, when Magistrate Farrell will be on the bench.

F., stating that he was sailing for Canada on two months' furlough. Capt. Stewart was with Major Russell Britton Gananouque, and has seen some lively fighting in northern France. He was taken ill recently, and had to undergo an operation. Capt. Stewart is a Royal Military College graduate, and went with the first contingent.

ALLOWED HIS LIBERTY.

Frederick Shaw Was Released on Suspended Sentence.

The steamer bringing Judge Lavell to the city on Thursday morning from his cottage at Thousand Island Park was delayed, and the cases against three prisoners were not brought up until 11.30 o'clock. Frederick Shaw, a former employee of Rockwood Hospital, who was charged with the theft of $32, was allowed his freedom on suspended sentence. He cashed a cheque owned by a fellow employee, and took the money to Montreal with him, but as his case is rather a pathetic one, he was allowed his freedom. Oney Thompson, a former soldier, will be tried in chambers at 3 p.m. Monday, and an Arden man, who is also charged with a serious offence, will be tried on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Street Car Struck Wagon.

At the corner of Princess and Barrie streets at noon on Thursday, three people in a farmer's produce delivery wagon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Butterfield and their little daughter, had a very narrow escape from being seriously injured, when car No. 26 going westward came into collision with the wagon. The latter was also thrown heavily over a stone pile used for constructing a concrete sidewalk. Luckily it did not upset, and outside of a bad shaking up the occupants received no injuries.

Later the wagon was taken into James Laturney's repair shop, where the necessary adjustments were made, enabling the party to proceed home.
