FRIENDS OF SOLDIER

CLAIM HE IS NOT GETTING A FAIR DEAL.

Charged With Housebreaking, But It is Claimed He Was Only Going to Thrash Man Who Made Statements About Russian.

No cases were heard in the Police Court on Saturday morning owing to Magistrate Farrell being out of the city. There were four cases on the docket, but all were remanded until Tuesday and Wednesday. The case of John Collins, picture agent, was remanded until Tuesday. Charles Bryant, charged with an infraction of the liquor act, was remanded until Wednesday. Robert Fish, a soldier, charged with housebreaking by Vince Oskey, was put on Tuesday's docket. An officer of the company of which Fish is a member was present, and urged the acting Magistrate to allow the accused out on condition that the military authorities be responsible that the accused would be on hand when his case was called, but the acting Magistrate would not consent. People interested in Fish state that he is not getting a square deal. They claim that he is not guilty of housebreaking, but was going to fight with an Austrian who, it is alleged, had made certain statements about a Russian soldier which he would not stand for. T. J. Rigney has been engaged to defend the accused.

John Cleaver, an American citizen, who has been on remand for some time waiting to be shipped across the line, was remanded again until Wednesday. He told the acting Magistrate that on Friday night he had suffered a hemorrhage, and thought he should receive medical treatment. The Court decided to

PARTY TO 1,000 WOUNDED

Liberal Gifts Of Cigarettes and Chocolates Made.

About a thousand wounded officers and soldiers who are now recuperating at Hove and Brighton were present yesterday at a garden party given by Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Baron, at St. Ann's Well Gardens, Hove.

Invitations were sent out to all the wounded in the district. All the men who could be moved were conveyed to the ground in charabancs; others shared in the day's enjoyment to the extent of receiving liberal gifts of cigarettes and chocolate.

Mr. Baron is the chairman and managing director of Messrs. Carreras Ltd., who have given about three million "Black Cat" cigarettes for the use of the troops at the front. In the last half-million 150,000 were specially marked "For the Canadians."

"MATIC" RESULTS SOON.

Hold-up is Due to Checking and Recording.

Words of comfort for anxious matriculation candidates were offered by Acting Minister of Education Hon. G. H. Ferguson on Friday.

"The results should be out very soon," he said.

"He was not in touch with the matter of the delay of the results, as he had only just returned to town, but he was of the impression that any delay would be due to the routine matter of checking over the results and securing a record, and rectifying any errors or omissions. This all had to be done before the results can be published."

TO HOLD A CONFERENCE

Of Speakers Patriotic League Representative Here Next Thursday.

A meeting of the Kingston Speakers' Patriotic League was held on Friday afternoon, and arrangements were made for holding a conference of delegates from branches formed at other places in Kingston next Thursday evening to draft a constitution and elect a central executive for the purpose of getting a serviceable organization for the period of the war.

A resolution was passed thanking the Kingston City Council for its grant of $100 towards the League's expenses.

Another resolution was passed thanking the Kingston daily newspapers for the free advertising they had given the League in order to help along enlistment.

Admitted His Fault.
A prominent resident of the Township of Kingston billed to appear before Justice of the Peace George Hunter for assaulting his wife, went to the home of magistrate on Saturday morning, pleaded guilty and was fined. He was also bound over to $100 to keep the peace. He has been on the prohibited list for some time but his time has expired.
