BIG STORM AT OSHAWA.

Water Flooded Houses And Put Town In Darkness.

Oshawa, Aug. 16.—While Oshawa want the very best. plunged into darkness. Congregations going home there discovered the cause. They found the streets impassible owing to a torrent of water several feet in depth rushing along. The torrent rapidly grew worse, crossing the dip in the main street. It flooded out all the houses in its path and the factory of the Oshawa Canning Company, bursting the doors and windows in the lower stories and carrying all the contents with it.

Barrels of canned produce, pianos, furniture and articles of every de-scription were caught in the flood. So large became its size and the danger of spectators being drowned that the local fire and police depart-ments were called upon to rope off the dangerous district and hold the people in safety.

Enlisted With the 33rd Battery. On Monday morning S. S. Corbett, undertaker, parted with one of his highly prized employees, in the person of William Bourke, who had been with him for several years.

LAD FELL UNDER WAGON. Wheel Passed Over His Arm and Fractured It.

Frederick Harland, fifteen years of age, while assisting George Lapier to serve milk, met with a painful accident Sunday morning on Orchard street. In his attempt to jump from the door-way of the milk wagon with a can of milk, his foot slipped, causing him to be thrown back against the revolving wheel of the wagon. He was forced to the roadway and the wheel passed over his left arm resulting in a bad fracture above the elbow.

Mr. Lapier placed him in the milk. wagon and had him quickly taken to the Hotel Dieu where his injuries were dressed.
