WOLFE ISLAND NEWS

A REVIEW OF CROP CONDITIONS IS GIVEN

On The Whole The Rains Have Done Good, Wolfe Island Young Men Has Enlisted.

Wolfe Island, Aug. 16.—The continued wet weather it is feared will bring disastrous results upon the crops.

It is stated by some of the older settlers that it is seldom if ever as prolific a crop has been seen on the island and all that was required was a dry harvest to enable the farmers to house one of the greatest crops that was ever grown here.

While the wet weather may do harm, in many cases it will do a vast amount of good for instance to pastures and root crops.

The excursion to Alexandria Bay, held recently under the auspices of the Church of England, considering the climatic conditions—was a great success.

Allan Davis, son of Allan Davis, village, has proved himself to be one of the first heroes so far found on the island. He has offered his services for the front, been accepted, and is now encamped at Barriefield.

Squaring the Account. The Central Law Journal says that a Philadelphia tailor was shocked over the size of the bill rendered by a lawyer he engaged to sue a customer, and later when the lawyer bought a suit of clothes the tailor retaliated by sending him a bill in the following legal terms:

To measuring and making order for one suit, $4.50; warrant and instructions to foreman for executing same, $3.25; going twice to cloth merchant, $2.25; fees to cloth merchant, $2.50; cutting the cloth, $8.75; materials for working, $5.50; sundries for working, $9; trying on of the suit, $2.75; alterations and amendments, $4.50; entering transaction in day book, $2; posting same in ledger, $2; engraving same, $3.50; writing to the button dealer, $1.25; filing his declaration—eight sheets, $8; fees to button merchant, $0.75; removing the suit by cart to your residence, $2.25; writing receipt, $1.75; filing same, $12.25; service of same, $1.50; ditto, $1.50; total, $100.25.

Climatic Variety in Chile. Chile has a coast line of 2,000 miles and the breadth of the country varies from only 100 to 250 miles.

The largest source of wild black fox pelts at present is north-western Canada. Recent Edmonton dispatches state that a considerable number of this season's take are valued at from $500 to $1,500.

Last of the Blewetts. A cablegram which has been received from France by Joan Blewett, the celebrated Canadian author, announces that her nephew, Private D. Blewett, has been seriously wounded in the recent fighting in France.

Where the Submarine Has Failed. A surprising feature of the European war has been the failure of the submarines to sink a single British troop ship.

Weak on the Classics. One of the latest stories of the Canadian navy being told at Ottawa betrays a healthy disregard of ancient lore on the part of the men behind the guns on our steel walls.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional medicine.

Did She Say It? The fair maid gnawed fiercely at the handle of her pen. Then she bent again over the sheet of note paper and wrote rapidly.

It seems he knew she knew he knew she said just what she said she heard he had heard her friends had heard him say he had heard her say, but, with infinite feminine tact, she accepted his apology.—London Mail.

BLACK FOXES.

How the Little Animals Have Brought Wealth to P. E. Island.

Angus McTavish's hens clucked and scratched contentedly in their yard. It was a pleasant place. There was soft loam, a little patch of gravel and a dusty expanse for dry baths.

The lord of the harem flapped his wings, stamped and tossed the sun low fence and posed there, the spring sun of Prince Edward Island winking his iridescent feathers to a Jewellike blaze.

A little farm of a lustrous black, sharp nosed, sharp eared and bushy tailed leaped the fence gracefully. A snap of the jaws and chancier lay low, his neck broken, while the hens fed screaming. Their lamentations brought the farmer's wife.

"There's a black fox in the fowl yard, hurry!" Little need for the last word of advice. "Black fox" on Prince Edward Island means wealth.

Mr. and Mrs. Phantom Green have moved to the village and are occupying Mrs. John Ryan's house. Dr. and Mrs. Baker, Toronto, are visiting with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dawson, New York, are renewing acquaintances here. Mr. Fraser, teacher in the Collegiate, who has been enjoying a couple of weeks' holidays at the home of John McDonald, returned to the city last week.

Allan Davis, son of Allan Davis, village, has proved himself to be one of the first heroes so far found on the island. He has offered his services for the front, been accepted, and is now encamped at Barriefield.
