OLITA HAS FALLEN

Berlin Reports That Russians Have Evacuated It.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Aug. 27.—Berlin official statement this afternoon declares that the Russian fortress of Olita on the Niemen river, thirty miles south of Kovno, has been evacuated. In all the wide sweep of Russian territory, south of the Baltic provinces, which has been covered during the great Austro-German offensive movement, the fortress of Grodno is now the only strongly defended position remaining in the hands of the Russians. Olita was on the principal Russian line of defence, midway between Kovno and Grodno, and it is about fifty miles south west of the Imperial Railway centre of Vilna, which is on the direct trunk line to Petrograd.

Olita is the ninth important Russian fortress to fall before the invaders in the last three weeks.

BALKAN LEAGUE PLAN

Said to Be Upset by Bulgaria and Greece.

(Special to the Whig.) Washington, Aug. 27.—Unofficial advices to representatives of the Balkan nations here say Bulgaria has signed an agreement with Turkey, which includes the provision that she remain neutral, and that the attempt to form a Balkan League has failed. News of the formation of the new Cabinet by Minister Venizelos reached the Greek legation today. It is said here that the demands of the Allies upon Greece were unsatisfactory, and that the Hellenic Government will announce its intention of remaining neutral for the present, at least.

Division in Turkish Cabinet. London, Aug. 27.—The Times Mithlene correspondent says there has been a split in the Turkish Cabinet owing to the alleged persecution of Greeks and Armenians in Turkey. The Grand Vizier, according to the correspondent, has threatened to resign unless the reported treatment of the Greeks and Armenians ceases. Enver Pasha, the War Minister, offered the Grand Vizier to Rifaat Pasha, President of the Senate, but Rifaat declined the office and is now trying to bring about peace in the Cabinet.

OTTAWA STREET RAILWAY

Is Charging Fare For The Children In Arms.

A special despatch to the Whig from Ottawa says: "The Ottawa Electric Railway has put in force a new regulation by which all children up to ten years of age must pay a three-cent fare. This applies to children in arms."

Kingstonians certainly have better rates than these. Here all children in arms travel free. Children between 5 and 12 years are sold ten tickets for twenty-five cents, or a straight fare of three cents. And in addition to this the company every Wednesday throughout the summer season gives the children a one-cent fare each way to Lake Ontario Park.

LOOKING FOR FACTORY For the Manufacture of Shells In This City.

Ald. J. M. Hughes, chairman of the Civic Industries Committee, has been in touch with a manufacturer who is anxious to get about 20,000 feet floor space in some Ontario city, with equipment for the manufacture of shells for the war. His committee will take up the matter with the Industry Committee of the Board of Trade. The plant would employ two hundred hands. The manufacturer wants to lease such a plant and it is understood that if it is suitable in every way he would purchase the entire plant.

Coasts Are Blockaded. Paris, Aug. 27.—The Official Journal publishes the declaration of a blockade of the coasts of Asia Minor and Syria from the Island of Samos to the Egyptian frontier to date from August 25th.

Urge Wage Reduction. Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 27.—The majority of the conciliation board dealing with the dispute between the B. C. Electric Company and its employees recommends a general reduction in wages.

Unfortunately the scenery along the straight and narrow path is less attractive than the bordering on the broad road leading elsewhere.

Many night riders die before their shoes are on in the morning. Consideration can be carried close to the borders of foolishness.

The chronic rider of hobbies must expect to be unhorsed often.

OBITUARY

Late Robert Saunders.

The death occurred at the General Hospital, on August 23rd, of Robert Saunders. Deceased was eighty-two years of age, and death was due to arterio sclerosis. He was born on Amherst Island, and for some years made his home with his nephew, H. S. Patterson. He was unmarried.

The funeral took place on Tuesday Aug. 24th from the residence of his brother, Capt. H. Saunders to Pentelton cemetery, at the foot of the island. Rev. James Cumberland, St. Paul's Church, officiated. The bearers were: R. Kilpatrick, W. H. Preston, W. Montgomery, R. Filson, Capt. H. Glenn and T. J. Hill. Among the relatives present from a distance were deceased's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Saunders, Deseronto. The late Mr. Saunders was a Presbyterian in religion, and a Liberal in politics. In his early days he was a sailor both on the ocean and the lakes.

The Late Mrs. Dennis, Ottawa. The death occurred in Ottawa on Thursday at her late residence, 295 Cooper street, of Mrs. Sarah Maria Dennis, widow of the late Lieut.-Col. J. S. Dennis, C.M.G., in her eighty-seventh year.

The funeral will take place in Kingston on Saturday, upon the arrival of the train from Ottawa, to Catarqui cemetery.

The Late Mrs. R. Montgomery. After ailing for the past three or four years, Mrs. Eliza Montgomery, wife of Robert Montgomery, 128 Union street West, passed to rest on Friday morning at 11.30 o'clock.

The deceased was a member of Cooke's Church. She is survived by her husband, four sons and four daughters. The sons are Robert A., Samuel S., Arthur R., Chicago, and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Purcell, at seven o'clock, the home being daintily decorated for the occasion. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Swain, of Athens Anglican Church, and the young couple were unattended. The guests present numbered twenty-five. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served and a reception tendered the bridal couple, who left on a trip to Toronto, Buffalo and other places.

The bride was charmingly attired for the ceremony in a dainty costume of white silk, covered with silk chiffon, her going-away costume being of olive green.

Mr. Smith, as district agricultural representative, has made many friends in this vicinity by his ability and uniform courtesy, and Miss Purcell was one of the fairest and most popular young ladies of Athens, where she enjoys a large circle of friends. The best wishes attend them for a long and happy married life.

A Wedding at Athens. A very pretty wedding of two popular young people took place Wednesday evening at Athens, when Walter H. Smith, B.S.A., district agricultural representative, and Miss Opal Purcell, both of Athens, were united in marriage. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Purcell, at seven o'clock, the home being daintily decorated for the occasion. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Swain, of Athens Anglican Church, and the young couple were unattended. The guests present numbered twenty-five. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served and a reception tendered the bridal couple, who left on a trip to Toronto, Buffalo and other places.
