THE KAISER MORTIFIED

AND VAN JAGOW REGRETTFUL INVADING BELGIUM. Says New Gray Book Issued by Belgian Government—Nations Cannot Live Without Honor.

London, Sept. 2.—The Daily News says a copy has been received of a new Gray Book issued a few weeks ago by the Belgian Government, containing supplementary despatches dealing with the diplomatic crisis preceding the war.

"A most interesting document," says the Daily News, "is a despatch dated Aug. 4th, 1914, from Baron Beyens, the Belgian Minister at Berlin, giving a summary of a dramatic conversation he had on that day with Herr von Jagow, the German Foreign Secretary relating to the German demand for leave of passage through Belgium. Herr von Jagow said:

"We have been compelled by absolute necessity to make upon your Government this demand. It is for Germany a question of life and death. In order that she may not be crushed, she must herself first crush France, and then turn against Russia.

"We have been informed that a French army is preparing to pass through Belgium in order to attack us on our flank. We are bound to prevent such an attack. If the Belgian army does not blow up bridges and allow us to occupy Liege and itself retires to Antwerp, we promise not only to respect Belgian independence and the life and property of the inhabitants, but also to pay you indemnity.

"If it is with a feeling of extreme mortification (la mort dans l'ame—the death in the soul) that the Kaiser and his Government have been obliged to take this decision. To myself it is the most painful step that I have ever taken in all my career."

Baron Beyens' reply was: "What would you say if we were to yield to a similar menace on the part of France? You would say that we were cowards; incapable of defending our neutrality and of leading an independent life. By way of acknowledgment of our loyalty you are about to turn Belgium into a battlefield between you and France. Europe will condemn you, and you will have England against you, as she is one of the guarantors of our neutrality."

Napanee

Sept. 2.—Mrs. T. Snider, the old lady who was found alone in her house the other day very ill, died on Tuesday.

The Motor Transport School from Ottawa passed through here Tuesday. They arrived here about noon and were entertained to dinner at the Campbell House by a number of patriotic citizens. Private G. Dickenson, son of Councillor Dickenson, was among the transport pupils, also F. Fregillus, who was before he enlisted assistant to G. B. Curran, agricultural demonstrator, here.

The town presents a pleasing appearance, being profusely decorated with flags and bunting for the patriotic demonstration.

Michael Maker, charged with inciting to commit a criminal offence, appeared before Judge Madden in the County Court here yesterday to apply for bail.

W. Shaw, Toronto, the new proprietor of the Royal Hotel, arrived yesterday and entered into possession.

Rome and Paris correspondents suggest that Japan is likely to help with troops at the Dardanelles. The Japanese envoy to Rome does not deny it.

DEMANDS ON BULGARIA.

German Paper's Version of Rival Powers' Proposals.

Berlin, Sept. 1, via London, Sept. 2.—The correspondent at Sofia of the Vossische Zeitung telegraphed yesterday an outline of the proposals made to Bulgaria on both sides of the diplomatic contest.

His despatch says: "The conditions which the Quadruple Entente imposed on Bulgaria in return for territorial concessions in Macedonia stipulated that Bulgaria obligated itself to declare war on Turkey. The Central Powers and Turkey, for their part, demanded from Bulgaria in return for cession of a portion of Turkish Thrace an extension of the hitherto existing benevolent neutrality. What this consists of had best be kept silent for the moment. It will make itself apparent later, as soon as events on the Danube front have advanced far enough."

THE SPORT REVIEW

Ottawa delegates at the Interprovincial Union Football meeting at Toronto next month, will discuss a proposal to arrange a game between the pick of the East and of the West, funds to go to the Red Cross Society fund.

The latest thing in the recruiting line is a movement to recruit a battery of artillery from the sailors, paddlers and oarsmen of Toronto. R. L. Massey, 24th Battery, Kingston, is the recruiting officer, and the various yacht clubs, rowing clubs, and paddling clubs have already been stirred up.

It has been decided by the football section of the Toronto R. and A. A. to have a senior team this season, notwithstanding that a goodly number of the players are at the front and others are preparing to go. The club strongly advocates a patriotic benefit game, with Hamilton and Toronto teams participating.

The executive of the Tiger Football Club has decided that practices should start about September 15th, and that all profits from the games should be turned over for patriotic purposes. The team will not have a coach this year, the management's object being to keep expenses down to a minimum, and many of the players will aid in this by using old uniforms or buying new ones themselves.

Toronto Star: "The Listowel hockey rink, which was burned down Monday morning, was too small for the game as now played, although many great hockey players got their first inkling of the game on its surface. Fred ("Cyclone") Taylor was among the number, and he was a member of the Listowel team that reached the Junior O. H. A. finals in 1904, and were beaten at the old Mutual street rink, Toronto, in a deciding game by 9 to 5 by the Frontenac Beechgroves of Kingston."

Captain Arthur Maranda, the well-known Montreal police athlete, who leaves this week to join the 69th Overseas Battalion, C. E. F., at Valcartier, has made arrangements to organize a separate company which will be composed entirely of athletes. He himself will drill the company, and in addition intends to organize a physical culture class at Valcartier which will be open to all members of the battalion.

The Montreal A. A. A. football section will hold a meeting within the next few days to decide whether or not to enter a team in the Big Four this season. Although the Winged Wheel football team has contributed a heavy toll to war's demands, it is likely that a team will be formed. Argos, Tigers and Ottawas will line up some sort of teams, although all have been hard hit by enlistment.

Edouard Fabre, the Montreal Marathonist, who won the Boston Marathon last April, and the United States championship in 1914, will run in a three-mile handicap race at the Exhibition September 11th. Hannes Kohlemainen, the wonderful Finn runner, will be on scratch in this event, while the Montreal long distance man will likely get a start of a minute and ten seconds on the famous Finn.

The Canadian Baseball League was one of the leagues that was expected to go under early in the season, but the clubs in the circuit fighting every body. While there was a little talk of disbandment about the last of June, the league will have the pleasure of winding up its full schedule on Labor Day. It has been a tough squeeze on the part of some of the clubs, but it can be said to the credit of the different club owners throughout the circuit that the league will finish in fairly good shape.

STUDENT IS SUSPECTED.

Washington May Order Arrest As German Spy.

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—Whether Dr. Carl Jencke, a twenty-two-year-old post-graduate student at the University of Pennsylvania, who for the last three months has been assistant in the dental department of the State Hospital for the Insane at Norristown, will be arrested as a German spy suspect will depend upon an examination now being conducted by Washington secret service men of certain papers and sketches belonging to him.

Jockey's Record Fee.

London, Sept. 2.—The sum offered by a Hindoo sportsman named Grandia to induce the Canadian Jockey Herbert to ride in India next winter is believed to constitute a record retainer in connection with the Indian turf. Herbert has already ridden in India. He rode the winner of the Viceroy's Cup, the premier Indian sporting event.

In Liverpool there is a report that the submarine which sank the Arabic has been captured, not sunk. The Admiralty remains silent.

SAW ZEPPELIN RAID

LIEUT. FRANK SMYTHE SPEAKS ABOUT ATTACK

Made Upon the Town of Ashford, England—Nineteen Bombs Were Thrown, But None Did Very Serious Damage.

Lieut. Frank Smythe, of this city, who is attached to the 12th Reserve Battalion of the 2nd Canadian Expeditionary Force now at Shorncliffe, writing to his brother George H. Smythe, under date of August 15th, gives splendid description of the zeppelin raid of the Germans on the town of Ashford, Eng. He says: "I am in charge of a guard composed of four non-commissioned officers and twenty-four men at Ashford. On Monday last, I was notified at 9.30 o'clock to leave with a guard for Ashford. I was here and shall be here until next Monday. Ashford is a small town of 10,000 people, eight miles from camp. The Canadian Ordnance Stores and ammunition sheds of the 2nd Canadian Division are here. It reminds me of the old Fort Henry where I was doing duty before enlisting. Ian MacNaughton is in charge of a fatigue party, and so is Morrison of the 21st Battalion. We are living at a small old-fashioned English inn known as Kent Arms. There are some English officers and several Canadian officers with the Ordnance Stores."

"We had a Zeppelin raid here last night. I was coming out of a picture show about 10.30 p.m., when I noticed a number of people looking up into the sky. I looked up too, and directly over my head was a Zeppelin. It was stopped still, and talk about excitement; people ran around and did not know what they were doing.

"Women and children became hysterical and some fainted on the street. Troops were all called out to stand to. I visited my guard and found everything all right. I think that the Zeppelin was after the ammunition store, but it missed its shot. I shall never forget the look of the faces on the women. I tried to quiet them, and told them there was no danger, but could not quiet them. Can you imagine such demoralizing dropping bombs on a town where there are so many women and children living? This morn'g I went down to the police station and saw the bombs, nineteen in all, all of which were found around the town. They did not do any serious damage."

Gananoque

Sept. 2.—The public schools reopened after the midsummer holiday season yesterday morning with a full teaching staff and an attendance well up to the standard. The steamer Thousand Islander ran a special excursion trip to Ogdensburg from this port yesterday morning and was quite well patronized. On the return party from Alexandria Bay, giving them an hour in town and leaving for the return about eight o'clock.

The local Red Cross Society is furnishing cake, pie, and salad for the entertainment of the Mounted Rifle troop of 390 who are to spend the night at the Armoury on Thursday.

The schooner Horace Taber arrived to-day with a cargo of coal for the Taylor Company.

Miss Kathleen Daisy Bradley, youngest daughter of F. A. Bradley, Lansdowne, and John J. Donegan, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Donegan, were united in marriage in that village yesterday, and motored to Gananoque for a trip to western points.

NO MOVE BY SWEDEN.

Russo-German Peace Rumors Are Unfounded.

London, Sept. 2.—A despatch from Stockholm to the London Morning Post, dated Tuesday, says: "In consequence of the rumors and press statements regarding the alleged separate Russo-German peace and the association with them of the Swedish Government the Swedish Foreign Office has authorized its press representative here to state that the Swedish Government has had nothing to do whatever with the statements in question, and that the statements are in this respect quite untrue."

Bonus For Men Who Enlist.

Hamilton, Sept. 2.—Announcement was made yesterday that the controllers intend to give all outside laborers enlisting a bonus of $10 monthly. City officials who go to the war will be given the difference in their salaries and military remuneration.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad Mood,—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin, and pale,—is responsible for more ailments than anything else.

It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles. It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing serofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.
