INDIANS ON WARPATH

PEACEFUL TRECK OF CANADIAN ABORIGINES

St. Regis Indians Go To Albany To Demand Their Rights—Take With Them Old Sheepskin Document Of 1797.

Cornwall, Sept. 10.—The Indians of the St. Regis reservation, across the river from Cornwall, are after the State of New York for an allowance they claim was promised their tribesmen 118 years ago. A deputation of chiefs, composed of Joe Angus, Mitchell Coal, Felix Martin, James Moses and Simon K. Simon, waited upon Attorney General Egbert E. Woodbury, at Albany, to press their claim. The chiefs presented an old piece of sheepskin, said to be a treaty made by the State in 1797 with certain St. Regis Indians for the conveyance of a large tract of land in St. Lawrence County. The wording on the sheepskin ran thus: "The people of the State of New York shall pay these Indians an allowance of 213 pounds and six shillings at the mouth of the Chazy River, on Lake Champlain, on the third Monday in August each year. Old documents neglected for generations were gone into, some falling apart with age and with ink fast fading into oblivion. The searchers found what purported to be an agreement with one of the parties to the treaty, the Caughnawagans, and learned that in 1842, the State paid the tribe an amount sufficient to raise one-half of the annuity the State agreed to pay. The authorities promised to make an exhaustive investigation of the claims of the Indian chiefs.

GERMAN PRESS VIEWS

OF THE RUSSIAN GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS.

One Paper Says He Was Without Leadership Talents—Another Says He Has Been Discredited.

Berlin, Sept. 10 (via London).—The removal of Grand Duke Nicholas from the command of the Russian army in the text of long articles in Berlin newspapers this morning.

The Tageblatt says the Grand Duke was removed because, notwithstanding his undeniable gifts in the strategy of retreating, he bears the responsibility for the Russian catastrophe in Poland and Galicia, his intrepidity being shattered in consequence.

A view more frequently expressed is that the retirement of the Grand Duke was dictated by political reasons, and aimed particularly at the party represented by the present Russian Government, which has grown too strong.

The Lokal Anzeiger says that the displacement of the Grand Duke removes the government party's strongest supporter, and means a loss to the army, which saw in him the appointed leader.

The newspaper pays a frank and generous tribute to the former commander-in-chief as a brave and honorable enemy and an able leader.

The Morgen Post, on the other hand, terms Grand Duke Nicholas "a brutal and bloody man, without leadership talent," and the "destroyer of his army, his land and his people."

It adds that the moment demands a leader of titanic strength.

The Morgen Post adds that "this complete cipher as a leader of Russian armies" has been discredited by his defeats.

The Vossische Zeitung finds "final proof of the approaching breakdown of the army and state."

The Boersche Zeitung views the change as having been directed against certain circles of the inner political life of Russia, and believes it may be calculated also to impress the other members of the Quadruple Entente with the feeling that Russia is doing everything possible to ward off impending events.

The Tages Zeitung says: "One hardly errs in describing, along with the military significance, just as important political significance to the change. The Grand Duke party, whose head was the former commander-in-chief, has suffered a very real defeat."

New Collegiate For Pembroke.

Pembroke, Sept. 10.—The Board of Education having abandoned the idea of using the town hall for school purposes, has made application to the Militia Department for permission to use the armory to take care of the overflow, the schools being so crowded that such a plan past the basement of the central school would suit very well and there seems every likelihood that the first use to which Pembroke's fine new militia building will be put will be to "teach the young idea how to shoot."

All the clubs in the Interprovincial Rugby Union have decided in favor of playing their schedule this fall.

Fabre, Marathon winner at Boston and San Francisco, will run at Toronto Exhibition to-day in the 3-mile handicap.

Secretary Reed, of the Varsity Athletic Association, has the opinion that the registration of students at Varsity will be as large as ever, and several new candidates for the Rugby team will be out.

Barney Dreyfus, President of the Pittsburgh National League Club, announced that Frederick Clark, for many years manager of the club, has resigned and the resignation has been accepted, to take effect with the close of the present season.

The Collegiate Institutes, High Schools and Preparatory Schools of Ontario were all organized last year, and it is the intention of the I. C. F. U. to have all these clubs play in the junior series.

The first game between Repodale and the Nationals for the professional lacrosse championship will likely be played in Montreal & will be from Saturday, with the return match in Toronto on the 25th.

Toronto Star: There is absolutely no reason why rugby should not be played as usual. Rugby and hockey are the best training schools for the future soldiers, and these sports should be encouraged in every way by those in control.

Hamilton Rowing Club, it appears, will have a hard time securing grounds on which to play their O. R. F. U. home games. It is stated that they will be unable to use the cricket field, and there is not much chance of Britannia Park being fitted up and the stands rebuilt.

Following the exhibition games that the Ottawa Canadian League baseballers have arranged, Frank Shaughnessy will go on to McGill to coach each the students. The big bowlegged leader is quite confident of producing a squad that would make a bold bid for the intercollegiate honors.

Although the International Baseball League does not close its campaign until September 18th, Clarke Griffith, manager of the Senators, will endeavor to have Jamieson, the outfielder, and "Joe" Judge, the first baseman, report before that date, as he desires all the time he can get to watch these Buffalo stars in action.

Ottawa Citizen: "Jack" Williams, the St. Patrick captain, was in Ottawa this week on military business, but will not remain for the football season. "Eddie" Phillips, former president of the "Big Four" is already on his way to the front, while Ken Williams and Basil Frith are preparing.

Don Brophy, the former McGill and Ottawa star, has passed his examinations for the Canadian Aviation Corps, but will not enter the school for a few weeks at least. He may be available for the first part of the "Big Four" season. The Ottawa was, have the nucleus for a good back division as Conyers, and Bouchier will also be there. Capt. Davo McCann will be induced to get into the same for the purpose of steadying the rearward. McCann's generalship would help Ottawa immensely.

Another player-war has broken out in Hamilton, the Tigers making a bold bid to land some of the brightest stars of the Hamilton Rowing Club team. They are after McKelvey, Fisher, Fickley, McCaffrey and Hayes. Fickley and Fisher, according to the Herald, are practically certain of making the jump. The Tigers will have many vacancies as a result of the war and these O. R. F. U. luminaries would fit in nicely. Two Americans, Walter Nolan and Fred Johnson will line up with the Tigers.

London's desire to drop Ottawa from the Canadian Baseball League says the Ottawa Citizen, arises from the fact that their receipts in the Capital this year were not so large as in the past. However, they have themselves to blame. People rushed to see the London squad on its first invasion of the Capital. And one look was enough. Had their team been up to the standard London set in previous years they would have profited on each of their trips to Ottawa. It is said that "Doc" Reising was instructed to sign up a "cheap" team. In any event he certainly had one.

Because she was fat, and for that reason believed her husband didn't love her any more, Mrs. Mamie Friend, 28, New York, killed herself by taking poison. She weighed 220 pounds.
