All the Kingston fans have been pulling hard for Detroit to win the American League pennant. It looks a lost hope, however, as the Tigers' pitching is falling down and Boston finishes with a long stretch of games at home.
The International Baseball League season closes next Saturday and Toronto can finish it the first division if they can do better at home than Rochester. Harrisburg finishes on the road and should be no better than sixth.
The question of operating an Ottawa team for the Quebec Rugby Union was left in the hands of the new executive, but it is likely that the Ottawa will abandon the intermediate for this year, and devote all their energy to the senior squad.
Brockville Football Club, which played the past two seasons in the Quebec Rugby Union, has reorganized, with a strong list of officers, and prospects for a good year, notwithstanding that their ranks have been depleted by nine stalwarts who have either gone to the front or are in training for overseas service.
