

Your Suit

Do you wear clothes that look as if they actually belonged to you?

It takes very skillful cutting and tailoring to make them look that way. Our garments are tailored with so much talent and skill that they adapt themselves to the figure with a grace and ease that indicate that the clothes belong to the wearer.

All the little artistic touches that go to make a suit beautiful. FALL OVERCOATS $12.00, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $22.00. FALL SUITS $12, $13.50, $15 and $18.

We're ready to show you the new Fall models whenever you're ready to look but don't wait too long, the best choosing is right now.

Livingston's, Brock St.

A little out of the way, but it will pay you to walk.

FOUND DEAD IN BED AT THE POLICE COURT

ERNEST PREVOST, CHEESEMAKER AT MOUNT CHESNEY.

Discovered Lifeless By Younger Brother—Deceased Belonged to Westport—Was Twenty-five Years Old.

A sudden death occurred at Mount Chesney Sunday afternoon when Ernest Prevost, a young cheesemaker, about twenty-five years of age was found dead in bed. The deceased's home was at Westport, and he was employed in the cheese-factory owned by Joseph McGraw at the former place. Saying that he was not feeling well, Mr. Prevost retired to his bed in the boarding house of Mrs. James George, close by the factory, about nine o'clock Sunday morning. At different times the landlady made trips upstairs to see if the young man required any medicine or nourishment. He, however, seemed to be enjoying a peaceful slumber and Mrs. George did not disturb him.

About five o'clock as Mr. Prevost was not making any stir to come for supper, Kenneth Prevost, a younger brother who also boarded at the same place, went upstairs to call his brother, but receiving no answer found that he was dead.

Word was immediately sent to Kingston, and Coroner W. W. Sands made the trip to the scene to investigate the cause of death, which was found to be heart failure.

The deceased was a bright young man and had many friends around the immediate neighborhood as well as in his home village at Westport. He was unmarried and is survived by a mother besides the brother who made the sad discovery.

Letters To Editor

All Must Serve.

Kingston, Sept. 13 (To the Editor.)—A patriotic meeting will be held in the City Hall to-morrow evening at which a number of our representative men will be present as speakers.

Will some one of their number kindly throw a little light on the following proposition: Why this insistent demand for our young men as recruits? If our Empire is to be saved, it will be necessary for all men of military age and fitness to take their part in its defence.

Why should the man with anywhere from $1,000 to $100,000 escape responsibility and danger. The young man may not own a dollar, and at his age, and with his inexperience one country is the same as another to him.

During the American Civil War the South put every available man from sixteen to sixty in the field, and it is a long way yet, before Canadians reach their standard of patriotic endeavor in their country's defence. We are talking too much to be in real earnest in this matter.

"For Romans in Rome's quarrels Spared neither land or gold, Nor son, nor wife, nor lamb, nor life In the brave days of old."

—A Canadian.

SUNBURY MAN LOOKING

For His Wife Who Has Gone Away With Companion.

What has become of Wesley Jackson, aged twenty-eight years, and a married woman who resided at Sunbury? This is the question which Justice of the Peace George Hunter and the county police have been asked to answer.

The husband of the woman who "beat it" went to Col. Hunter and asked that he endeavor to find his wife who has been missing since Friday night.

Upon making an investigation at Sunbury it was found that Jackson had been well acquainted with the woman. On Friday the woman disposed of two cows and some turpentine, and with the money the couple are alleged to have departed.

When the case was reported to the county police they made inquiries at the Grand Trunk outer station to see if the couple bought tickets there, but the ticket agent does not remember any such parties.

A short time ago Mrs. Marshall, who resides in Sunbury, had a warrant issued for the arrest of Jackson charging him with attempting to assault her.

J. J. HILL WILL URGE

That a Loan Be Made To the Allies.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 13.—James J. Hill will arrive in New York Monday to participate in the deal whereby a loan of $500,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 is expected to be made to European Governments.

Mr. Hill left hurriedly on Saturday night in company of M. R. Brown, his confidential secretary and director of the First National Bank. He will lay before the meeting data showing that if the loan is not made commerce will be paralyzed and our surplus crops useless.

Mr. Hill will insist that the loan be made to such nations as are trading with us and who are in a position to reasonably secure the loan with collateral.

Joining the Colours.

London Chronicle. One of the most successful recruiting sergeants in London is Sergeant C. W. Niemeyer, who went from Lancashire to Canada some years ago, and returned three months since as a member of the First Canadian Contingent. He has proved so successful a recruiting officer that, on the basis of a day's leave allowed by the War Office for every recruit secured, he reckons that about ten years' furlough is due to him, as well as a very considerable sum of money on the usual army allowances to recruiting officers. He reckons that in three months he has secured about 3,000 recruits, and at Trafalgar-square and at the base of the Gladstone Memorial in the Strand he brought many men to the colours.

Fountain Pens for $1.00 at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

VARIETY OF CASES HEARD ON MONDAY MORNING.

Woman Was Sent to Jail For Month On a Charge of Vagrancy—Colored Soldier Arrested On a Charge of Assault.

Four cases of drunkenness, one of vagrancy and another of assault, came before Magistrate Farrell in the Police Court on Monday morning. Two drunks were disposed of in double quick order, three being fined and the other being given his liberty.

Jennie Wood, a middle-aged woman, was up for vagrancy, but stoutly denied the charge. After hearing the evidence of Constables Mullinger and Jenkins, and the Inspector of the Children's Aid Society, the Magistrate gave the woman a month in jail.

"I have received several complaints about this woman stopping soldiers on the street," said Constable Mullinger to the Court during his evidence.

"You can say that I stop men on the street," said the accused. The first man was my nephew, and he stopped me and spoke to me about something. Can't I speak to any person on the street?"

Constable Jenkin stated he had seen the accused out driving with two soldiers, whereupon he stirred up the prisoner.

"I don't know any of the soldiers," she declared.

W. H. Wiley, Inspector for the Children's Aid Society, also gave evidence, but it did not help the woman charged, and the Magistrate thereupon imposed sentence.

Frederick Brooks, colored, a member of the 59th Battalion, was run in on a charge of assault. He admitted he had been "fighting," as he termed it, an was handed over to the military authorities.

The police, it appears, had a call for Brooks on Saturday night. He and another soldier had a "scrap" in a yard on Ontario street, in which the white man came out second best. The Whig was informed that he had to be taken to the military hospital to be patched up after the fracas.

Enquiry Would Show.

Toronto Telegram, Conservative. Orders for certain lines of regimental supplies are said to be controlled by individuals who demand a twenty-five per cent. commission from the manufacturers who receive orders for such supplies.

The lowest price or the price of these orders may come from regimental funds or from private subscriptions. Publicity should reveal the methods of expending the money irrespective of where the money comes from.

Do custom and usage sanction a system under which individuals who can place or refuse to place orders for regimental supplies demand commissions of twenty-five per cent. on the price named in these orders? Do orders go to the manufacturer who can offer the best regimental supplies for the lowest price or to the manufacturer who can pay the highest commission to the agent who places the order?

These questions are being quietly asked and should be publicly answered.

Sir Charles Davidson might do worse than include Toronto in the circuit of his war contract enquiry. An enquiry would show whether or not manufacturers have to meet demands for commissions when regiments place orders for military supplies other than those provided by the Militia Department.

Drilling in Civilian Attire.

Toronto Star. Although the number of recruits drilling in Toronto has now risen to 1,200, less than 300 of these men have been provided with uniforms. The rest are still drilling in their own clothes and boots, which, though usually adequate, are frequently not. A case has just been met where a man who had been working on a cattle ship and wished to enlist, was wearing such ragged clothes that he was ashamed to appear before the recruiting officers. One of the recruiting sergeants gave this man a suit of his own clothes, in which he volunteered and was accepted. As he happened to join the Queen's Own Rifles, he will receive a militia uniform from them, but the men who are joining other regiments are compelled in practically every case to drill in their own clothes.

Female Fagin.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Two girls and six boys, none more than eighteen, said to comprise two separate groups of burglars, have been arrested, and, according to the police, have confessed to scores of robberies.

A third girl, not yet nineteen, was arrested, charged with being the tutor. The other girls and the men were held on the charge of receiving stolen property.

The alleged tutor, Mrs. Mary Hamersmith, is known to the police as "Balheaded Mary."

Befriended Years Ago.

Middletown, Wis., Sept. 13.—A well-dressed stranger walked into the First National Bank here, where David L. Conkling is employed.

He asked for Conkling, and the two held a conversation, in which the stranger was noticed to hand Conkling money. Sixteen years ago the same stranger, hungry and ragged, was given a supper, bed in a hotel, and breakfast by Conkling's father. It was this debt with interest that he paid.

Austria To Recall Dumba.

Rome, Sept. 13.—It is learned from a Vatican source that Austria has decided to acquiesce in the American demand for Dr. Dumba's recall. It is believed that no successor will be appointed for some time, but that the charge d'affaires will be entrusted with the Austrian Embassy in Washington.

Buy No German Goods.

Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 13.—The entire membership of the House of Representatives of the Federal Parliament, the legislative body of the Commonwealth of Australia, has pledged itself never again to purchase German goods.

Special To-morrow

We are busy getting our stocks ready for Autumn, and find a few things that arrived too late for the summer trade. These we will offer to-morrow at prices that will surely find a buyer.

1st on the list is 4 LADIES' SILK POPLIN SUITS

These are quite the thing for early fall. Our Fawn Silk Poplin Suit, size 36. A rich heavy cord, stylishly made and good value at $30.00. Yours to-morrow ..... $15

Another of same make, only in size for 18 years. This will also be sold at ..... $15

ONE SILK POPLIN SUIT, in pretty shade of fawn, size 38. This Suit is worth $25. Yours tomorrow $12.50

ONE BLACK SILK POPLIN SUIT; very stylish model, received from the maker just a short time ago; it is size 40, and very good value at $32.50. Special to-morrow ..... $19.50

THE ABOVE FOUR SUITS are all stylish models and we ask you to see them, even if not ready to buy—you may secure any one and we will place it aside for you.

16 India Silk Blouses

10 WHITE, 6 BLACK; stylish model; sizes 34 to 40; good value regularly at $2.00.

Yours Tomorrow $1.25

John Laidlaw & Son

Popular Prices $3.50 and $4.00

Big new stock of Ladies' and Girls' Dull Finish and Patent Button and Lace Boots for

Fall Any Style at ..... $3.50 Any style at ..... $4.00

The Lockett Shoe Store

Strictly One Price.

No Appropriation.

New Suits and Coats!

You will be astonished at the splendid display of Ready-to-Wear Garments we are now showing. Every single article is this year's latest style and the range of designs is so large that every age and figure can be readily suited.

Over 1,000 Coats to select from—Suits from New York and Paris best tailors. Price

$7.50 to $50.00

The new imitation Fur Coats are being very much talked of in Paris and New York.

A pleasure to show our goods.

WALDRON'S