

The Real Price of Our Freedom!

"If we sacrifice all we own and like for our native land, if our preparations are marked by a grim resolution and prompt readiness in every sphere, then victory is assured. Upon our answer rests the liberties of Europe for many generations."—Lloyd-George, Minister of Munitions.

READY FOR STERN WORK AHEAD OF MEN

Canadians Will Fight Till Victory Comes--Canadian Correspondents Are in the Trenches in Flanders And Find Evidences of Preparedness.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Sept. 15.—"We were not professional soldiers before the war started; we enlisted from a sense of duty, and we have had strenuous times. But you can send this message to Canada: The Canadians with the British troops on the Flanders front are here to fight till victory comes our way, till we drive the Huns out of Belgium and totally cripple the military powers which brought about this fierce war."

WAR IS COSTING BRITAIN $21,000,000 EACH DAY

(Special to the Whig.) London, Sept. 15.—England's daily expenditure for war purposes is now exceeding the wildest dreams of the financial experts. In moving a new war credit of one and a quarter billions to-day, Premier Asquith announced that the daily average expenditure from July 13th to Sept. 11th, was twenty-one million dollars. The cost is mounting higher every day.

The 17th Day of Artillery Duel in West

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, Sept. 15. (Official)—The seventeenth day of the artillery battle around Arras, in the Champagne region and in the Argonne was featured by sporadic bombardment. The War Office reported this afternoon. Neither side made any important gains.

There Need Be No Fear From the Submarines

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, Sept. 15.—The French Ministry of Marine to-day informed steamship companies that the appearance of German submarines off the mouths of the Loire and Gironde need cause no alarm, and declared that the same measures, used so effectively in the English Channel against submarines are now being employed.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Administration Believes Loan Within Neutrality Limits. (Special to the Whig.) Washington, Sept. 15.—Assurances that the administration considers the proposed billion dollar loan or credit to the Allies by American bankers within the limits of neutrality and will not interfere, came unofficially from the White House to-day.

BRIGADIER WOUNDED.

London, Sept. 14.—Brigadier-General H. G. Casson has been wounded at the Dardanelles. His name was included in a list of seventeen officers killed or wounded on the Gallipoli peninsula made public to-day.

Will Levy Heavy Tax on War Profits

London, Sept. 15.—There is considerable apprehension over the new taxation programme mapped out by Chancellor of the Exchequer McKenna to meet a daily war expenditure of about $20,000,000. One of its features, it is reported, contemplates heavy increases in the income tax, with the exemption limit lowered to include all salaries of more than $10 weekly.

The Courland Campaign Will Likely Fail

London, Sept. 15.—British opinion is that the Courland campaign of the Germans not only is proving costly in men and supplies, but is likely to fail unless the Russian offensive on the other extreme of the long front can be stopped soon. By their latest attack in eastern Galicia the Russians are reported to have penetrated Austro-German trenches in the face of an exceptionally heavy artillery fire.

Britain Holds Fifty Miles Of the Front

(Special to the Whig.) London, Sept. 15.—Lord Kitchener announced in the Lords this afternoon that eleven divisions (about 220,000 men) had been added to the British forces in France and Flanders. These reinforcements, the War Secretary announced, have enabled the British to extend their lines for about seventeen miles, taking over trenches formerly held by the French.

Bombs in Ss. Lapland.

New York, Sept. 15.—An evident attempt, the police believe, to blow up, or destroy by fire the steamship Lapland of the Red Star Line—now sailing in the White Star Line—was frustrated by the discovery late yesterday afternoon of two bottle-shaped bombs concealed in one of the hatches.

IT'S BERLIN'S NEXT MOVE

Will the Kaiser Disavow Sinking the Arabic?

WASHINGTON WAITING

HOPES GERMANY WILL DISCIPLINE COMMANDER. If Germany contends Commander Was Justified in Sinking Arabic, Then United States' Course Must Be Determined. (Special to the Whig.) Washington, Sept. 15.—It is Germany's next move. This was the freely expressed opinion to-day regarding the submarine war controversy. The Administration is waiting and hopes to secure from Berlin a disavowal of the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic. Until Germany gives or refuses such disavowal, high officials said no active steps would be taken by the United States.

Regarding future developments in the Arabic case, the president awaits Germany's response with new evidence of the Arabic's crew and passengers at hand. Ambassador Bernstorff has submitted a summary of this evidence to his Foreign Office. The President thinks it utterly contravenes the claim that the U boat commander made mistakes. That Germany will discipline its submarine commander and their disavow his action in the Administration earnest hope.

KING EDWARD'S FORESIGHT

What The Empress Dowager Of Russia Said. Paris, Sept. 15.—The Stampa, of Turin, gives an interesting account of a conversation which the lady president of the Polish Red Cross Society had with the Empress Dowager of Russia. The Empress said: "Oh, how I hate those Germans! I am a Dane and from the day they took Schleswig-Holstein I have hated them, and for fifty years I had to wear a mask at court."

Glorious Deeds Still To Do

Few men in the British Empire are doing such splendid work to-day as Lloyd-George. Beloved and trusted by the industrial classes in England, he has been enabled to organize the munition workers, and thus greatly accelerate the output. Is there a strike among the coal miners in Wales? Lloyd-George runs down from London over night, and, behold, in the morning it is settled. Does the Government desire to make an important announcement, it is the little Welshman who is put up as the spokesman. He can thrill the hearts of his auditors as few statesmen can. A Radical of the Radicals, he is nevertheless a "safe" man. The people trust him, because they recognize his ability, his eloquence, his strength and his foresight. Therefore, whatever he says carries weight.

RUSSIANS CONTROL DVINSK-VILNA LINE

German Cavalry Driven Back--Enemy Being Reinforced--Big Battle Imminent--Encouraging Progress Being Made in Galicia By Russians. (Special to the Whig.) Petrograd, Sept. 15.—The German cavalry forces that reached the Dvinsk-Vilna line have been driven back and the railway line from Dvinsk to Vilna is again in the hands of the Czar according to despatches reaching here to-day.

CANADIANS BENT UPON PUNISHING BARBARIANS

London Preacher Tells of Conversion With Witness of Atrocity. London, Sept. 15.—At the City Temple Rev. R. J. Campbell spoke hopefully of the present situation in the British lines, saying: "I was greatly impressed with the undaunted spirit and delightful cheerfulness and optimism that prevailed among the English and Canadian troops. So far as the army was concerned I found no pessimism until I returned to England, where I met one grim young Canadian who wished to return to the front because he had a debt to pay. The Canadian had seen with his own eyes two Canadian sergeants crucified. I said to him, 'Perhaps they were nailed up after they were dead.' The Canadian replied, 'Sir, you would not have thought so if you had seen their faces.' Our soldiers are more bitter against the Germans than they were at first, on account of the atrocities, attended sometimes by a number of men together and which is too horrible to repeat."

HOW NEWFOUNDLAND RAISED ITS ARMY

Force of Two Thousand, Officerless, Was Sent Across the Atlantic. Ottawa, Sept. 15.—An army administration carried free by patriotic transportation companies, an army, moreover, without a single general, colonel, or even lieutenant of its own appointing, such is the contribution made in men by the little colony of Newfoundland to the cause of the Empire. True, the army consists of but 2,000 men, but considering the size of Newfoundland's population the ratio is a very fair one, to a little over 200,000 inhabitants. Originally, according to Hon. P. T. McGrath, a well-known newspaperman of the colony, who is in the Capital on departmental business, Newfoundland set out to raise 500 men, so that its contribution of 2,000 goes far beyond its promise to the British War Office. It is probably the most democratic force which ever crossed the Atlantic, since it was dispatched to England for training without an officer in its ranks, its appointment being left to the Imperial authorities. Two sons of W. D. Reid, the railway magnate of the colony, have gone as privates, and so did a stepson of the Premier of Newfoundland, Sir Edward Morris. The contingent was trained in Scotland and is said to have been the only non-Scottish force ever allowed to garrison Edinburgh Castle.
