NUMBER OF CHANGES IN QUEEN'S MEDICAL COLLEGE TEACHING STAFF.

It is Hoped That British War Office Will Allow Prof. W. T. Connell to Return.

On account of so many of the professors of the Medical College at Queen's University enlisting for overseas service, the Faculty finds it necessary to make a number of changes in the teaching staff.

The loss of Prof. W. T. Connell, who is at the present time with Queen's Stationary Hospital at Cairo, is the most serious which the Faculty faces. On account of it being so difficult to get a man to fill his place, the Faculty has been in communication with the British War Office for the purpose of allowing him to return to the university and take over his duties. Although no definite word has been received from the British authorities, it is thought that Dr. Connell will be back at his post before the session is far advanced.

Dr. William Gibson, who has been assistant to Dr. W. T. Connell for some time, has been appointed to fill the gap until he returns.

On Thursday morning Dr. J. C. Connell, dean of the Medical Faculty, announced the following changes in the teaching staff:

Dr. William Gibson, in place of Dr. W. T. Connell as professor of bacteriology and pathology. His assistants will be Dr. Thomas Little, Kingston; Dr. J. T. Boyd, Port Arthur, who has been appointed as Fellow in Pathology; Dr. D. E. Bell, Kingston. Dr. R. J. Gardiner will be lecturer in sanitary science, which was formerly taught by Dr. W. T. Connell.

Dr. J. F. Sparks, who was assistant professor of anatomy, will take the place of Dr. G. E. Kidd as head of the department of anatomy. His assistants will be Dr. S. J. Keyes, Dr. H. E. Day, Dr. S. M. Asselstine, and Dr. J. F. Matheson. Dr. J. F. Matheson, who is at the present time on the staff of Rockwood Hospital for the Insane, has been appointed Fellow in Anatomy. Dr. D. E. Bell will act as demonstrator in anatomy.

Dr. J. F. Sparks and Dr. S. M. Asselstine, who looked after Dr. A. E. Ross' duties last session, will again carry on the work.

The work in surgery which was looked after by Dr. W. G. Anglin and Dr. Frederick Etherington will be divided among Dr. D. E. Muddell, who is head of the department; Dr. E. W. Mylks, Dr. A. R. B. Williamson, Dr. R. J. Gardiner and Dr. C. A. Morrison.

Dr. H. A. Boyce will be chemical assistant and radiographer.

Dr. J. T. Patterson, of the University of Maryland, Baltimore, has been appointed assistant professor in physiology.

Dr. J. H. Halverson will be lecturer in biological chemistry.

From the present indications it looks as though the freshmen year in medicine will be fairly large. The other years will be effected, as many of the men have gone overseas with the hospital units.

It is expected that about twelve of the third and fourth year students who went over with Lieut.-Col. Ross and also to Cliveden hospital, will return to complete their courses. There is nothing official about their return as yet.

Boy Wants a Home.

W. H. Wylie, inspector for the Children's Aid Society has under his charge a sixteen-year-old boy whom he is seeking a home. The lad can plow and milk and do all the chores around a farm, and Mr. Wylie is very anxious to get the youngster placed. The lad desires to get into a Roman Catholic home.

IT RUINS HAIR TO Wash It With Soap

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Patriotic Fund Subscriptions.

City Treasurer Bartels says that up to date somewhat over $32,000 of Kingston's $52,000 of subscriptions to the Canadian Patriotic Fund has been paid. Some subscribers are paying by instalments, but a number of the smaller ones are not keeping up their donations. The larger ones are being paid regularly. The treasurer thinks that $50,000 will be realized out of the total.

"The Hat Store"

Good-Bye Felt, Me For a Long Vacation

In New York City and some of the larger centres of fashion, it is dangerous for a man to wear a straw hat after September 15th. He is liable to have something thrown at it. It's also a common practice to ring a bell when a man passes wearing a straw hat. Most men lay their straw aside September 1st. What have you done?

See our elegant display of new Fall Hats, in soft and stiff felt. They are beauties. Special value at $2, $2.50 and $3.

WAS PLACED UNDER ARREST.

Wanted To Sell a Meat Chopper For Ten Cents.

Walking along Ontario street, late Wednesday afternoon, Police Constable James Bateson was just in time to nip in the bud a little transaction in which a man from Barrieffield Camp was taking a leading part. The man had been drinking, and at the time had a couple of flasks of liquor in his possession. He also had a meat chopper which he had brought from the camp, and this he was endeavoring to sell to a man on the street for ten cents. Constable Bateson, in passing, heard him say that he would sell the chopper for ten cents.

"That's pretty cheap for a chopper of that kind," remarked the constable.

"Yes, and I'll sell it to you for that price, too," replied the camp man.

Constable Bateson did not want the chopper, but he felt that all was not right so he took the man in charge and he was afterwards turned over to the military authorities.

The meat chopper belongs to the camp, and it appears that the soldier made off with it.

POLICE COURT BREVITIES

Two Men Were Fined for Fighting On the Street.

Henry Davis wears the King's uniform and is being trained to fight the Germans. He has been somewhat overtrained, however, as on Wednesday night he got into a "scrap" with one Alf Smith, and fell into the hands of Constable Thomas Mullinger. Both Davis and Smith had to face a charge of "fighting on the street" and the Court imposed a fine of $5 and costs on Davis and $3 and costs on Smith. The latter claimed that he took no part in the fighting, that he had been attacked by Davis, and that he was but simply trying to ward him off.

Mabel Brown, a stranger in the city, was gathered in on Wednesday night by Constable Muller, on a charge of vagrancy. She pleaded guilty, and the Magistrate sent her to jail for one month.

GIRLS NOT AT CAMP.

Fear of Going to Jail Has Stopped Them.

An evidence that the girls, who have no honest means of support, and who have been hanging around Barrieffield Camp for the purpose of making love to the volunteers, are afraid of being locked up by the police, is shown in the fact that they have stopped going to the camp grounds during the daytime. For a while a dozen girls made a practice of visiting the camp every afternoon. When the police rounded up three of them in one day it put fear in the others, so much so that they quit. Three girls are in jail serving time for making too free around the camp grounds and on the streets of Kingston.

ASLEEP UNDER A CAR.

Constable Saved Man From Death On Tuesday Night.

Many a man is saved from death by police constables. Men when under the influence of liquor fall in very dangerous places.

Tuesday night a man named Burns, who was gathered in for being drunk, was found under a car in the local railway yards by Constable John Naylon. Luckily there was no shunting going on at the time or Burns would have been run over. Constable Naylon took his man to the police station for safe keeping over night, and he had to pay a fine for drunkenness in the Police Court.

GARBAGE COLLECTION

WILL BE ARRANGED FOR BY THE CITY COUNCIL.

Incinerator Is Completed—Nicholas Timmerman Appointed Inspector—Rate Will Be Levied on Assessment Value.

The incinerator by-law was passed by the City Council after one o'clock this morning, bringing into effect the new garbage collection for which Kingston has so long awaited. Nicholas Timmerman, the veteran policeman and Sanitary Officer, is to be the inspector and Thomas M. Burns the engineer. Each will receive a salary of $700 a year. It is hoped that the new system will be in operation next week.

The report of the incinerator building and equipment committee was presented to Council by Ald. Wright, to whom is due the credit of supervising the construction of the incinerator. He has devoted a great deal of his time and professional ability to the work as a freewill gift to the city. The incinerator and land has cost the city only $7,900. Had tenders been called for the work it would have cost probably double that amount. The Council turned over the completed incinerator to the Property Committee, which will expend about $700 in improving its surroundings.

The Board of Health will not have the control of the garbage collection as recommended by the committee. Instead a committee of the Council will have the control. Ald. Wright and Gardiner pressed for vesting the control in the Board of Health, but the majority of the Council—the vote was 12 to 5—wanted its own committee to manage the garbage collection.

Charles Hebert had been recommended for the position of garbage inspector by the Board of Health, but he did not land the job. Charles Linton and W. H. Carson were voted upon in turn, and the score was 8-3, which meant down-and-out. Then the old reliable Nicholas Timmerman was trotted out by Ald. Graham and "Nick" proved a winner on this division.

Yeas—Ald. Couper, Clugston, Fair, Graham, Linton, White, Newman, Nickle, O'Connor, Richardson—10.

Nays—Mayor Sutherland and Ald. Gardiner, Hughes, McCann, Peters, Wright—6.

Garbage will be collected from hotels, stores, boarding houses, etc., three times a week, and from private residences twice a week. The area will be the whole city, and the levy will be according to assessment value, just like waterworks. Full details of the garbage collection system are to be published in the city papers by the committee.

ON VISIT FROM FLINT, MICH.

Two brothers, Wilson and Dave Lewers, employed at Flint, Mich., for the past few months, arrived home on Wednesday evening and are the guests of Manse Lewers, Chatham street. They had some interesting stories to relate concerning the clashes that occur in Flint, from time to time between the Russian Poles. Since war has been declared fights have been very frequent among these foreigners and two Austrians have been killed.

Wilson Lewers is employed in a drug business at Flint, Mich., while Dave his brother works in an automobile factory. The latter was formerly employed by the Paper Box Factory, Kingston.

Why are the dead trees which stand in many places along the streets not removed?
