 THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE.  What to cook and what to serve is often a vexatious question to the busy housewife. Variety is essential, but oftentimes the pressure of other duties leaves little time for thoughtful preparation. To help out along this line, and also to offer many new ideas, has prompted the Whig to publish a Daily Menu. Read it to-day and every day on page four. Full menus for each meal are given, as well as details concerning the preparation of each. These articles have proved very helpful wherever published, and the Whig heartily commends this new feature to its women readers.
