DEATH RESULT OF BURNS

John Johnston, Loses His Life At San Jose, Cal.

Kemptville, Oct. 4.—Word has been received of the death of John Johnston, San Jose, Cal. Mr. Johnston is believed to have been killed near Kemptville before moving to California some twenty-five years ago.

On September 2nd fire broke out in one of Mr. Johnston's warehouses, and being filled with hay the fire quickly spread, resulting in the total destruction of his three large warehouses and other outbuildings. During the fire Mr. Johnston entered the stable to try and liberate a valuable horse and received burns so severe that he had to be taken at once to the hospital. Everything possible was done for his recovery, but the burns proved fatal, and he passed away on Sunday, September 19th.

Mr. Johnston is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, namely: Edgar, of Winnipeg; Mark, of Honolulu, H. I.; Mrs. Waig Percival, of Burrill's Rapids, and Mrs. W. A. Swain, of Gridley, California.

Welcomes Private Kingston.

Prescott, Ont., Oct. 4.—Prescott loyally demonstrates her interest in the great war Thursday night, when her citizens welcomed home Pte. James Kingston, the first to volunteer from this town for overseas service. He was seriously wounded at Langemarck.

On the arrival of the train from Ottawa, a large crowd of people, headed by the 56th Regiment band and the bugle band of the 56th, stationed on guard duty at the Cardinal Canal, welcomed the wounded hero to the town. The band stood on the market square where a civic address was presented by Rev. H. B. Patton, in the absence of the mayor. Speeches of welcome were made by the different clergymen and other citizens.

The wounded man was much impressed by the cordiality of his welcome home.
