

TORTURED BY RHEUMATISM

Sunday School Supt. Tells How "Fruit-a-lives" Relieved

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 1st, 1913. "I have lived in this city for more than 12 years and am well known. I suffered from Rheumatism, especially in my hands. I spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken "Fruit-a-lives" for 18 months now and am pleased to tell you that I am well. All the enlargement has not left my hands, and perhaps never will, but the soreness is all gone and I can do any kind of work. I have gained 35 pounds in eighteen months."

R. A. WAUGH, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or direct from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

ARDOCK. Oct. 4.—Threshing is about finished in this vicinity, and digging potatoes is the order of the day. Charles Smith has completed his silo, and is busy filling it. Mrs. Myers, who is seriously ill, has gone to the Hotel Dieu for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. R. Munroe, and family, left on the 27th inst. for their new home in Wingham. Mr. and Mrs. W. Clement are visiting friends and relatives around Tamworth and Napesee. Mrs. George Hamilton, who has been ill, is able to be around again. A wedding has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald. Mrs. R. G. Watkins, and mother, are visiting relatives in Pieton. Gordon McDonald, who has been working at Snow Road has returned home.

Leeds

NEWBORO. Oct. 4.—Miss Mary Brady returned home on Saturday from Latimer, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Corkey and children. Mr. and Mrs. McGonigle, left on Monday for their home in Loyal, Wisconsin. The farmers are complaining of the potato rot, which will be about half a crop. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Doherty, with Mrs. A. Donnelly, returned to Kingston, on Saturday.

CHARLESTON

Oct. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McConnell, Lyndhurst, visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Mulverna, on Sunday. Mr. McConnell has nearly recovered from his accident of July 19th. Miss E. Berry, Gananoque, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. Webster. Mr. and Mrs. George Godkin, Oak Leaf, left last week for California to spend a couple of months. Farmers are filling silos and digging potatoes. Many of the latter are rotten. A great many attended Uncle Tom's Cabin play at Athens on Friday evening.

LYNDHURST

Oct. 5.—Willie Tate is laid up with an attack of grippe. H. Galloway is improving. Miss Arvill is in Brockville. Miss M. Moore, Brockville, is waiting on W. Sheffield who is very low. Mr. and Mrs. C. Tye are mourning the loss of their infant son who passed away one day last week. The boys of Lyndhurst have got their heads together and are training for the home guard and some are enlisting for overseas service. Mrs. G. S. Rooney and Mrs. Stanley Rooney and little son Sidney made a trip to Brockville on Thursday with D. W. Green in his new car. Rev. Mr. Burns, Brockville, held communion service in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening.

WESTPORT

Oct. 4.—St. Edward's Church last Monday morning was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Mary C. G. McCann was united in matrimony to Michael E. Bennett, by Rev. Father O'Rourke. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Paul, was daintily attired in her travelling suit of brown gabardine with velvety hat to match and carried a pearl and gold rosary of her grandmother's. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Julie, attired in brown serge and wearing a velvet hat with pale pink ostrich trimming. The bride's gift to the groom was a gold mounted watch, fob, and to the bride the groom gave a sunburst of pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl and amethyst pendant, and to the groomsmen, his nephew, a pearl tie pin. Immediately after the ceremony they left on a short trip.

TOLEDO

Oct. 4.—The funeral of the late Thomas Hillis took place on Saturday last. Service was conducted by Rev. A. B. Hagar in the Presbyterian Church after which the remains were interred in the cemetery here. The A.O.U.W. took charge of burial services. The family regret the loss of an old and esteemed citizen who was so active in the interests of the village and surrounding country. Edwin Booth went to Brockville on Monday to stand his medical examination, having enlisted to join the ranks of the Mother Country. Miss Carrie McCrum spent Friday at her home here. Rally day services were held in the Presbyterian Church on Sept. 26th and in the Methodist Church, Oct. 3rd. A number from here attended the concert in Frankville on Friday night under the E.L.C.E., and enjoyed the programme very much. Miss Cole, Ottawa, and the Misses Phillips, Smith's Falls, gave the vocal numbers while Miss Iva Harrison acted as elocutionist. Mr. Webster, M.P., and Major Patterson, Brockville, also delivered recruiting addresses. J. E. Bruce and his men are doing cement work in Portland this week. Mrs. C. A. Wood returned on Saturday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Stafford, Kingston. Edward Bellamy is improving splendidly and expects to return from the hospital this week.

WOLFE ISLAND

Oct. 5.—A pretty wedding took place at Portsmouth Mance on Wednesday, Sept. 29th, when Miss Eva M. Bustard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bustard, was united in marriage to Nelson J. Babcock of the island. The happy couple left on the quarter past nine boat in Mr. Barry's car which was nicely decorated with ribbons and flags. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Dawson, pastor of Portsmouth Presbyterian church. The bride was assisted by her sister Miss L. C. Bustard, while the groom was supported by Albert George Barry. The bride looked charming in a gown of silk voile, trimmed with satin, and wore a white picture hat trimmed with ostrich plume. The only ornament worn by the bride was a beautiful gold watch and chain, the gift of the bridegroom, and to the bridesmaid a handsome brooch set with an emerald, while the best man was the bearer of a set of gold cuff links. They returned home on the 11.30 boat where a sumptuous repast awaited them at the home of the bride's parents. The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of handsome, useful and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which they were both held on the island, having lived there all their lives.

A MISSION CONVENTION

HELD IN THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

By the Baptist Women's Home Mission Society of Eastern Ontario and Quebec—The Officers Elected. The women of Eastern Ontario and Quebec Baptist Church met in convention Tuesday morning in the First Baptist Church. Mrs. W. R. Stroud, Ottawa, president of the Home Mission Board, was in the chair. After devotional exercises, Mrs. J. B. Halkett was elected as convention reporter and Misses L. Leslie and E. P. Pixley were chosen as pages.

A cordial address of welcome was given by Mrs. H. A. Calvin and ably responded to by Mrs. Metcalf, Thurso. The president gave as the watchword of the convention "Courage in Service," and in earnest words urged each one present to renew her consecration to the service of the Master. Canada for Christ is the aim of the Home Mission Society, and the need is so great for constant effort. Only as the spirit is allowed to have full possession of all we have and are can we accomplish anything in this great work. Routine business was disposed of and the following officers were elected for next year: President, Mrs. A. W. Frith, Westboro; vice-president, Mrs. Metcalf, Thurso, and Mrs. W. E. Matthews, Ottawa; recording secretary, Mrs. Scammell, Ottawa. Others will be elected later. A presentation of a beautiful cameo pin was made by Mrs. Parson, Ottawa, to the retiring president, Mrs. Stroud, in the name of the convention, for her many years of unflinching service as presiding officer. Mrs. Stroud thanked the ladies in a feeling manner, after which convention adjourned for lunch.
