

ON BARRIEFIELD HEIGHTS WITH THE OVERSEAS TROOPS

The 59th Battalion is on a three days' route-march through the country, and expect to reach Harrowsmith this evening. The battalion, less "D" Company and details, left with three field kitchens at 3 p.m. Wednesday under the command of Lieut.-Col. H. J. Dawson. Half an hour later Major W. H. Craig, in command of "D" Company and details, left with one field kitchen. Sealed orders were in use, and Major Craig did not know until a few minutes before he started where he was going. The route proved to be over Barriefield bridge.

It was planned to have a bivouac at night, and an extensive scheme of night-work performed by the men. Harrowsmith will be reached to-

Lieut. Nichols has reported for duty with the 80th Battalion.

Col. Sir Adam and Lady Beck and Major Church, Toronto, who were in the city on Wednesday at the Royal Military College sports, made an inspection of Barriefield Camp at the invitation of Col. T. D. R. Hemming, and expressed their approval of the camp in very complimentary terms. Col. Beck and Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie made an inspection of the horses.

It is understood that tenders have been asked for the repairs to the buildings throughout the division in which troops will be quartered this winter.

Lieut. Caldwell has been formally appointed machine-gun officer of the 80th Battalion, although he has been in charge of this work for some time.

Lieut. Reymes, who has been attached to the 80th Battalion for instruction and duty, has been taken on the strength of the battalion.

Four recruits arrived from Belleville and four from Brockville for the 80th Battalion on Wednesday.

Major Massie is in Toronto recruiting men for the 34th Battery to take the places of those sent overseas with drafts.

The football team of soldiers from the camp who will play a team from Niagara camp on Saturday week in Toronto are practising regularly. The captain for the team has not yet been elected. A committee is in charge of the arrangements. The contract for an excursion train has been signed, and the R. C. H. A. band has been secured.

Lieut. Frederick C. James, Lieut. Matheson, Lieut. R. de Puyjalon, and Lieut. Quackenbush, Ottawa, are here to take the special officers' course. Lieut. Frederick James, who was one of Ottawa's best known newspapermen, is now attached to the 7th Battalion, enlisted for overseas service. Lieut. Matheson belongs to the same regiment.

NO TRACE AS YET

Of Bodies of Three People Lost on Schooner.

Although a constant lookout has been kept for the bodies of three men who lost their lives when the schooner Cheyboygan foundered off Nut Island, on Lake Ontario, on Sunday, Sept. 26th, no trace of them has been found, and it is feared by some mariners now that the bodies will not be found.

The bodies of Mrs. McDonald, wife of the captain of the vessel, and Robert Milne, one of the sailors, have been recovered, but the bodies of Capt. McDonald, William Joyner, Kingston, and "Jerry" Lawrie, Cobourg, have not yet been found.

FOUND THE KEYS

On Wednesday afternoon the string of keys stolen from a Queen's student by a pet crow were found. The crow took them from the arts building to the medical building, where he placed them on the steps and covered them over with leaves.

Thursday morning a Whig reporter saw Mr. Crow, who has been doing things the past few days. He was sitting on the sidewalk near the Lake View House, apparently enjoying himself and arranging plans to cause more trouble.

MRS. MARTHA OLIVER DIES.

She Had Resided in Watertown, N.Y., Since 1859.

Mrs. Martha Oliver, widow of the late William D. Oliver, aged ninety-two years and nine days, passed away at the home of her son, Miles E. Oliver, in Huntingtonville, N.Y., after an illness of nearly three months. She had been in failing health for some time. Death was attributed to a constitution weakened by old age.

Mrs. Oliver was born in Napanee, Oct. 11th, 1823. She had eleven brothers and sisters, all of whom have passed away with one exception, a brother, James Kimmerly, Deseronto. She removed to Watertown, N.Y., on Jan. 7th, 1859, where she had resided ever since. She had made her home in Huntingtonville since July, 1914.

She is survived by her son, Miles E. Oliver, and one daughter, Mrs. William Archer, both of Watertown, N.Y.

WILL BE PROSECUTED.

Parents Who, It is Alleged, Assaulted Their Daughter.

W. H. Wylie, acting for the Children's Aid Society, is making an investigation into the case of a fourteen-year-old girl who, it is alleged, was brutally assaulted by her father and mother on Tuesday, the story of which appeared in the Whig on Wednesday. The parents will be charged in the Police Court.

It is charged that both the father and mother of the girl were under the influence of liquor at the time the assault took place. The girl, so it is stated, was kicked on the limbs and otherwise ill-treated. As far as can be learned, the trouble arose after the girl had prepared supper for her parents, the latter objecting to the menu.

The tea was in charge of the Municipal Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, and the credit of its success is largely due to the Regent of that chapter, Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, assisted by the Regent of other chapters, Mrs. J. Hamilton, Mrs. T. G. Smith, Mrs. Walter Macnee, and Miss Bessie Smythe. The Bridge in the evening is in charge of Mrs. D. J. ### FOUND LOOT IN CAMP

HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS' WORTH OF BOOTY.

Deputy Sheriff A. P. Williams and Other Officials Locate the Tent of Plunder, and They Believe It is the Camp of Men Now in Jail.

Waterloo, N.Y. Times. As a result of a five-weeks investigation into the St. Lawrence river burglaries, Deputy Sheriff A. P. Williams, in company with several other officers from both United States and Canada, Monday discovered hundreds of dollars' worth of loot which was stored in a camp on Squaw Island. This camp is believed to have been in charge of Floyd Ward and Charles Battle, alias Watson, now under arrest at the county jail as being connected with many burglaries along the islands of the St. Lawrence river.

Following out a clue, Deputy Sheriff Williams, in company with Silas Ditt of Ogdensburg, Inspector Fitzsimmons, of Rockport, Canada, and W. W. Avery, of Alexandria Bay, went to Squaw Island, but failed to find a camp there. Continuing on, they went to Squaw Island, and there discovered a camp. This consisted of a valuable paraffine tent and loot of all kinds was stored there. This loot included everything imaginable in the way of wearing apparel and household utensils. In all there were seventy-eight different kinds of articles. Guns, marine glasses, ammunition and shells were included.

Before leaving for this city, Deputy Sheriff Williams had the stolen loot identified by several owners of cottages, which were entered. These included the Horace Morse cottage in Eel Bay, the Peter Dorr cottage near Clayton, the Pierce and Watson cottages at Murray Isle, and the Bakenell cottage at French Island.

A further discovery was made by Deputy Sheriff Williams at Wells Island, when he found a lot of bedding, a camping outfit, and silverware and a shebler carburetor in an old log hut. The silverware was identified by coming from the Morse cottage on Eel Bay, but none of the rest of the loot has been claimed as yet. Mr. Williams also recovered another shebler carburetor, rifle and about fifteen other articles from residents of Thousand Island Park. This was stolen loot that had been sold to them by various ones now under arrest.

This loot is now stored at the custom house at Alexandria Bay.

Deputy Sheriff Williams had a long interview with Floyd Ward at the jail to-day.

Squaw Island is not far from Clayton.

A teacher of a Sunday school class tried to impress upon her young charges the necessity of blessing the food before eating. "Billy," she asked, "what prayer does your father say before you eat your dinner?" "I dunno." "Well, what did he say this morning before breakfast?" Billy meditated; suddenly he remembered and beamed. "He said, 'You kids go slow on the butter now! It's dearer than ever now the war's on.'"
