FINALS AT ARMOURY

IN THE ASSAULT-AT-ARMS FOR THE SOLDIERS.

The winners were Lieut. Faulkner, 32nd Battery; Marr, 80th Battalion, and Ryman, 34th Battery.

The finals in the assault-at-arms in aid of the Ross Horse Ambulance Fund were run off in the Armouries on Thursday evening before a good-sized audience. The first prizes go to Ryman, 34th Battery, for proficiency in the 115-pound boxing contests; Lieut. Faulkner, 32nd Battery, in the heavy-weight class, and Marr of the 80th Battalion in the 130-pound class. The second prize of the 115-pound class goes to Roberts of the 80th Battalion and of the 130-pound class to Johnston of "C" Battery, R. C. H. A. The prizes will be turned over to Capt. L. C. Lockett, 80th Battalion and will be presented to the winners at a later date.

The following events took place: 130-pound—Marr, 80th, with more science, although of shorter build, defeated Brooks of the 33rd Battery. 130-pound—Commando, 80th, defeated Powell, also of the 80th. Commando at the end of the third was willing for a fourth round, but Powell refused to fight further. 115 pounds—Ryman, 34th Battery, defeated Murphy, 80th, in a very close and interesting exhibition. 115 pounds—Roberts, 80th, and Ryman, 34th, in a very scientific fight of three rounds gave the crowd a splendid exhibition, no decision being given.

130 pounds—Marr, 80th, was defeated by Johnston, R. C. H. A., after a splendid fight. Marr was completely outclassed but was game to the end.

In an exhibition match of the heavy-weight class, Lieut. Faulkner, 32nd Battery, and Lieut. Bishop, 33rd Battery, gave the audience an interesting four-round exhibition of scientific boxing.

In all of the bouts except that between Ryman and Murphy, in which Lieut. Faulkner officiated, Lieut. Widdifield, 80th Battalion refereed to the complete satisfaction of the crowd. Lieut. Widdifield understands the game thoroughly and allowed no rough work.

In the report of the assault-at-arms held on Wednesday evening Lieut. Gaukner, 32nd Battery, was credited with defeating Pte. Lewis, 80th Battalion. The loser's name should have read Pte. Timms, 14th Regiment.

Important Announcement.

Effective November 1st, 1915, the Canadian Northern Railway will establish through passenger train service between Toronto, Port Arthur, Fort William and Winnipeg, leaving Toronto Union station at 10.45 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, connecting at Winnipeg Union Station with Canadian Northern trains for Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, Regina, Brandon, and all important points in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia and the Pacific coast. The equipment is thoroughly modern type, specially constructed for this service. Through tickets from Kingston to all points, and berth reservations are obtainable from M. C. Dunn, city agent, or R. H. Ward, station agent, or write to R. L. Fairbairn, General Passenger Agent, 63 King Street E., Toronto, Ont.

Complaint About Kingston Car.
Gananoque Journal.
There is a certain Kingston automobile, Ford type, which makes trips here occasionally with a number of soldiers, that is constantly breaking all laws regarding speed and traffic regulations. They take all the road, in passing other cars never turn out, but some day in the near future their number will be sent into the proper authorities with a full statement of what they are doing. Speed is all right, but in narrow roadways some consideration should be shown in passing other cars, and not monopolizing all of the King's highway.

Quite Sarcastic.
A mechanical attachment to the city clock in Kingston turns on and off the light at any desired hours. At present it is lighted at 5 p.m. and the light goes out at 2 a.m. Commenting on the above, the Gananoque Reporter pertinently remarks: "We presume no citizen out after two o'clock could tell the time even if the dial were lighted."

Lieut. John Baldstille Blanchard, of the Sixth North Staffords, son of the late Sedley Blanchard, Q.C., Winnipeg, was killed in action on October 13th.

BRITISH RED CROSS

PORTSMOUTH'S CONTRIBUTIONS SO FAR TOTAL $216.

Kingston's Individual Subscriptions Are Coming to the City Clerk in Envelopes Issued to the Churches.

As a result of the canvass made in Portsmouth, on Thursday, the sum of $216 was realized for the British Red Cross Society. More subscriptions are to come in yet. The amount raised is in addition to the $200 made by the Council. Reeve Halliday, who called the public meeting to arrange for the canvass, is well pleased with the result. The following had charge of the canvass, and report being well received by all the people.

Mrs. Henry Baiden and Miss Scalf, of St. John's Church; Mrs. William Holland and Mrs. Tatton, of the Methodist Church; Miss Rose Burke and Miss McGuire of the Church of the Good Thief; Mrs. J. H. Dawson and Miss Irene Atkins, of the Presbyterian Church. The school children are also making a contribution, but the result of this has not been recorded as yet.

Kingston's Contributions

Kingston's individual contributions to the British Red Cross fund may not be announced for some days, as they are being made in envelopes supplied through the churches. Today, City Clerk Sands had about $300 in his possession. Owing to the City Council making a grant of $2,500 no general canvass was made, the people being allowed to contribute voluntarily.

MADE A SETTLEMENT.

Allowed to Go on Suspended Sentence by Magistrate.

John Howard, who left the city rather hurriedly and also an unpaid board bill of $12, has made a settlement, and on Friday morning Magistrate Farrell allowed him to go on suspended sentence. Howard, who is a young man, was making his way over to Uncle Sam's territory but was nabbed at Cape Vincent and brought back to Kingston. The costs he will have to meet in the case will be quite heavy, and he will find that it would have been cheaper to pay for his board than to skip out. "It is a most contemptible trick," remarked the Magistrate.

BIG GAME DISTRICTS.

Conveniently Reached Via Canadian Pacific Railway.

Canada's most famous hunting grounds are easily reached via Canadian Pacific Railway. Year after year organized hunting parties visit these localities and practically always bag the limit.

Small game and wild fowl are plentiful, while the fishing is unsurpassed. Particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents, or write M. G. Murphy, district passenger agent, Toronto, Ont.

Payne-McMaster.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 20th, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McMaster, Pittsford, when their only daughter, Ethel, was united in marriage to Harvey A. Payne, a prosperous young farmer of Pittsburgh township. Rev. H. G. Steers, Kingston, performed the ceremony.

The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the drawing room to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Elga McMaster, H. Hampton, Gananoque, supported the groom. After the signing of the register, guests to the number of about seventy-five repaired to the dining-room, where a wedding dinner awaited them. After toasts had been proposed to the bride and groom, the young couple left to take the midnight train for Toronto. On their return they will reside on the fourth concession, Pittsburgh, and will take with them the best wishes of their friends for a bright and happy future.

Princess Street Choir Concert

An excellent concert was given by the members of Princess Street Methodist Church Choir in the church on Thursday evening. The programme consisted of three choruses by the choir; a duet by Miss Mitchell and W. Mack; a mixed quartette, and solos by Miss Timmerman, Miss Mitchell, Miss Brebner, Mr. Pardoe and Mr. Mack. The orchestra also played several selections which were much enjoyed, among which was a piccolo solo by Master Keith McKinnon with flute accompaniment by his father. Miss Winder and B. Couper acted as accompanists.

Married at Stockton, Cal.

The Daily Record of Stockton, California, tells of the wedding on October 6th of Alvin K. Matthews, deputy auditor of that city, to Miss Mary Franke. The groom is the youngest son of Commission D. J. Matthews, who will be remembered by the older residents of Kingston, as he lived here years ago.

Internment Camps.
Ottawa, Oct. 22.—It is probable that the population of the internment camps will be increased considerably this winter by Bulgarians. The registration of them is now in progress and any that prove to be dangerous or suspicious characters will be interned.

A new camp is being established at Bank, while the one at Ft. St. is being enlarged. Most of the western aliens will be interned at these centres during the winter.
