

ON BARRIEFIELD HEIGHTS WITH THE OVERSEAS TROOPS

Rugby is the main topic of conversation in the lines of Barriefield camp and every soldier there is an enthusiastic sportsman and supporter of the Barriefield team. The line-up of the 34th Battery team which will play a team from Niagara camp in Toronto is: L. Smith, left half; Lieut. "Jack" Williams, centre half; L. Wright, right half (captain); Reid, left scrum; Lieut. M. M. Johnston, right scrum; Lieut. Wilson, centre scrum; Lieut. Shaw, right inside; R. Gregory, left inside; R. Dillie, right middle; J. Jamieson, left middle; E. Lepper, right outside; Mollard, left outside; B. Batten, flying wing; Lieut. Stratton, quarter. The spares will be Cooke, McWhimney, Skee, Douglas, J. Lepper, Knowlson, and Wallace.

Major R. F. Massie sent a message from Toronto on Friday afternoon, and said that he had completed arrangements for the securing of the Varsity Stadium for November 6th. At that time the troops from Niagara will be in Toronto. A special team will run from the city with the R.C.H.A. band. The soldiers are very enthusiastic and it is expected that under the circumstances the officers commanding will grant the men every opportunity to take in the game as half of the proceeds go to the "Elmhurst" Convalescent Home.

Major Massie, Lieut. Stratton and Johnston are members of the committee which is making the arrangements.

The above line-up will be used in the rugby game against the Royal Military college this afternoon.

Signaller Tyte, 33rd Battery, was thrown from his horse and seriously injured on Friday afternoon.

Lieut. Boyd, 33rd Battery, leaves on the first of the month for a three days' shooting trip in the north country.

F. S. Shepard, Field Secretary of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. for Canada, and Henry Israel, representative of the International Committee of Y.M.C.A.s of North America, arrived at Barriefield camp, addressed the soldiers in the Y.M.C.A. tent at the camp on Friday. Mr. Israel has just returned from England where he has been spending a year in the German concentration camps in the association's interests.

Pte. H. Morrow, 80th Battalion, is in the Field Hospital with a sprained ankle.

The 80th Battalion took a route-march through the city on Friday afternoon, going out Kings up Barrie and down Princess street. The battalion looked splendid and Col. Ketcheson is highly pleased with the progress that the men have made.

The 59th Battalion, over 1,000 men strong returned to Barriefield camp on Friday afternoon at five o'clock after a march from Harrowsmith twenty miles away. The battalion marched into camp almost as fresh as if the march had only been as far as the bridge. The men showed signs of fatigue. Only one or two were bothered with sore feet and had to be carried part of the way back in the transports.

Lieut.-Col. Dawson is highly pleased with the way the men carried out the march and has reason to be proud of the 59th Battalion.

There is a grey horse in the 33rd Battery which furnishes a great deal of amusement to the men. It is a decidedly contrary beast and is a typical western bronco. Lieut. Boyd of the battery has had extensive experience with horses while at work on his own ranches throughout the west and knows how to handle such animals and rather enjoys riding the brute, despite its ugly disposition.

Lieut. Uglow is expected to report for duty with the C.M.R. on Saturday.

Major W. Allan Stroud is a very busy officer. His mornings are spent at the camp and in the afternoon, leaving the command to Capt. Kennedy, he spends on recruiting duty at the armouries.

Major Brooks, O. C. Depot Regiment, C. M. R., is expected in camp next week for an inspection of "C" squadron.

Lieut. T. J. Scobie, A. M. C., who took the last A. M. C. course at Bar-riefield camp has been appointed medical officer of the 2nd Pioneer Battalion at Toronto. Dr. Scobie resides at Hazeldean near Ottawa.

All of the men of "C" squadron, except those wearing particularly small clothes, have been outfitted and it is expected that two troops will be uniformed for the Sunday church parade.

The men of the C.M.R. say they are lucky in being in a good squadron and they are also blessed with having several hickory nut trees within their lines. The men will have nuts to eat for the next few days as they are falling in large quantities.

Major R. F. Massie, O. C. 34th Battery, arrived back in camp from Toronto on Saturday.

"Belgian" is the name of one of the two mascots of "C" squadron C. M. R. He is a jet black little fellow and it is evidently his color that brought him his name.

The second mascot of the C.M.R. at the camp is a Boston bull. The boys are thinking of buying a red and black coat with the initials C.M.R., for the bull which has become a great favorite.

Richard Harris, formerly of the post office staff, who enlisted with the 92nd Toronto Highlanders, has transferred and is now with the 54th Battery at Barriefield camp.

Mrs. J. McMartin and Mrs. L. A. Rose, Cornwall, collected several barrels of apples for the 59th Battalion. They reached Kingston on Friday on the steamer Britannic.

Pte. Malcolm Montroy of the 59th Battalion, (brother of Mrs. Denis Brady, Lancaster), was operated on in the hospital at Kingston for appendicitis, and is doing well.

SUFFERING FROM GAS.

Pte. Thomas Carse, Brockville, at the Convalescent Home.

Pte. Thomas Carse, 41st Regiment, Brockville, is at the Convalescent Home. He was at the front, and is suffering from the gas. He has been at the Home since last Monday, but will probably be sent to Brockville, where he will enter an hospital for special treatment, but is far from being well. He was walking around the grounds enjoying the beautiful surroundings when seen by a Whig representative, and had no complaints to make, but it was plain to be seen that he had suffered much from the attack with gas made by the Germans. He has been discharged from service, and as soon as he has completely recovered, it is his intention to take up employment in Brockville.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLASSES.

Are Being Well Attended And Promise to be Most Successful.

Domestic classes opened by the Board of Education have been well attended, and promise to be most successful. At the class held on Wednesday evening, there were twenty-four registered and keen interest was manifested in the work.

Great difficulty is still being experienced in getting the men out to attend the classes provided for them. The Industrial Committee has tried every means possible to get the men out, but it looks as if it is hopeless. Advertisements have been put in the newspapers for men, but apparently the men are too busy or they are indifferent.

IN FIVE MINUTES NO SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" is the Quickest and Surest Stomach Relief.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, and indigestion food, or have a feeling of tightness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves, sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as they will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gas, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.

THE SOLDIER'S SOLACE.

Tommy Loves His Pipe When In the Trenches.

John Hassall, the famous poster artist, was recently at the front, one of a party entertaining the troops, and recounting his experience in a London paper, he dwells on the important part tobacco plays in the life of the Army. We reproduce part of his article here:

"I have recently come back from a visit to the front, deeply impressed by the need for a large and constant supply of tobacco and cigarettes for our soldiers. Our small party included Alfred Lester, and we did our best to entertain the wounded in Lester's 'Army and Restaurant Episode,' but I could not get on the stage. The audience could neither move backwards nor forwards, so the sketch had to go on without me. I didn't get on until it was all over and then I did some sketches.

"The stage had a piano at the back and just on the edge. When we had a dancer and the stage rocked, the piano would lean over, but it was held up all the times by some of the wounded Tommies.

"When I finished, they made a great rush for the stage for souvenirs. Afterwards the party distributed all the souvenirs they could possibly think of—my sketches went and so did my collar and tie, and in return the Tommies gave their badges and their buttons and ribbons, and they gave the most precious thing to every Tommy out there; they gave us cigarettes. No man who has not been out there can realize what that means to Tommy. He has long and monotonous hours spent in the trenches with nothing to pass the time away except tobacco. It is his one solace, boon companion, call it what you like. If he is only kept going with a reasonable supply he is happy.

"All these things make me think what an important part tobacco does play in life. But the most important is that those fellows out there."

Our readers are asked to contribute, to collect, and to enlist the help of friends in collecting for this kind object.

Contributions sent to the British Whig's Tobacco Fund will be acknowledged through this paper.

Victrola Recitals.

A programme of sweet music was rendered at the store of the C. W. Lindsay, Limited, on Friday afternoon, marking the first of a series of recitals, which will be given for the purpose of demonstrating the Player Piano and Victrola, which are attracting so much attention at the present time. During the long winter nights every home would be brightened by one of these instrumental recitals. The recitals are timely and afford the people ample opportunity of judging the merits of the instrument. The very best music of the day is played on them.

The Late Miss Evelyn Miller.

The funeral of the late Miss Evelyn Miller took place on Friday afternoon from her parents' home, 439 Barrie street, to Cataract cemetery. Although the funeral was of a private nature, there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. J. D. Boyd conducted service at the home and at the grave. The floral offerings were very profuse and exceedingly beautiful. The pallbearers were John Miller, Harvey Bougare, William Angrove, Harold Hunter, Bruce King and George Hudson.

LADIES HITCHED UP TEAM

And Went From Colebrook to See the 39th Battalion.

An evidence that the women of Colebrook are as fit as the men to see soldiers on parade is shown in a fact that about eighteen of them drove to Harrowsmith to see the 39th Battalion on Thursday. On account of their husbands being so busy that they were unable to accompany them, the ladies secured two horses and hitched them to a large wagon belonging to Mr. Keyes, the general storekeeper. One lady drove the team. It was expected that the battalion would arrive about noon, so each member of the party took her dinner along. Although the infantrymen did not arrive until four o'clock, the ladies waited. Among those in the party were Mrs. Norman Boyce, Mrs. Ira Salsbury, Mrs. Eckhardt, Mrs. E. Walker, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Warner and daughter.

Mrs. Graham, who is seventy-five years of age, was the oldest member in the party.

WHIG READER OVER 50 YEARS.

Charles Emberly, Yarker. Another of Our Old Friends.

Among those who have been readers of the Whig for fifty years is Charles Emberly, Yarker. When speaking to a Whig representative, Mr. Emberly stated that he could well remember when he was a mere lad reading the Whig. He still takes the paper.

While attending school he remembers when his grandfather used to walk to Kingston from Yarker for the purpose of buying a bag of flour. The boys always watched for their grandfather to return as he never came from Kingston unless he brought with him a copy of the Whig.

VERY FIERCE FIGHTING

THE SUPERB GALLANTRY OF THE HIGHLANDERS

A Division Cut To Pieces and Sent Back To Refit—The Queen's Engineers Had Quite A Lively Episode.

The Whig found in the Renfrew Journal two interesting war letters from Queen's men that are worth reproduction. Lieut. Kenneth MacKinnon, M.D., a former hockeyist of favor, with a British regiment writes from Bethune, Sept. 25th:

"Only time for a note. Our division is cut to pieces, we are on our way back from the firing line to refit. We were in the big fight of Loos. In three days we handled 1,200 wounded in our ambulance alone. I missed a Jack Johnson three times by less than thirty feet. Had no sleep for four days and nights. We were shelled out of our dressing stations three times. I was talking to one man early Sunday morning in Loos. He was shot through the head by a sniper while talking to me. The Gordon Highlander and Black Watch were magnificent. I was up on hill seventy with them. Hell holds no terrors for me now, the devil could not possibly devise anything worse than I have been through. It was a great victory at Loos, but it cost them at least 10,000 men on our front (the Loos and this 70 district). This is all the paper I have just now, will write again as soon as I can. I never knew what fear meant before but I know now. I never was so proud of the Scotch blood in me as I was when I saw the Highlanders charge. They were simply wonderful."

Engineers Between Fire.

Corporal Neil Stewart, with Major Lindsay Malcolm's Corps of Engineers, in a letter home makes mention of an exciting and trying experience that he had while working with the Canadian Engineers. They were working through one night while repairing wire entanglements in "No Man's Land." They were working silently out in the open, sheltered by the darkness, when one man uttered an exclamation. Immediately there came from the German trenches a dropping fire which quickly increased to a fusillade. The Canadian line replied to protect their Engineers, who were forced to lie flat where they were. Then the artillery, on both sides, began to bark at each other, and a lively duel was in progress, lit up by star shells. Corporal Stewart said that the firing subsided as quickly as it rose, and then after completing their work the company reached the trenches where they were told that they had come through a sharp exchange. Lieut. Baker, one of their most popular officers, was wounded by a bullet through the shell and suffered the loss of both eyes.

PLAYED VIOLIN SELECTION

In Payment For Night's Lodging At the Police Station.

The sweet notes of a violin could be heard in the police station on Saturday morning about 8 o'clock. It is rather unusual for the police constables to have music, but on this occasion they were honored by a Knight of the Road, a Frenchman, who had reached his threescore years and ten, who is tramping the roads. Friday night he struck the city, and as he was without the price of a night's lodging he went to the police station, and was given the very best the night sergeant could provide.

When the stranger was passing on Saturday morning he carried with him a much-prized violin, which looked to be about fifty years old, and a bag containing his wardrobe. As pay for his night's lodging the old man sat down and played a piece on his violin, and then bade good-bye to the constables and was off, to resume his rambles.

Another Knight of the Road and a stray bull terrier dog, picked up by a constable as a vagrant, were the other occupants of the police cells Friday night.

Bad blood—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale, is responsible for more ailments than anything else.

It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles.

It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.
