THE QUARTERLY RALLY
WAS HELD BY THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR UNION.

Work in East and West Dealt With in Address Delivered by Field Secretary Dewar—Bethel Won Banner.

The quarterly rally of the Kingston Christian Endeavor Union was held in Brock Street Methodist Church on Monday evening. Miss Mabel Smallridge, vice-president of the Union, occupied the chair, and the large number of young people in attendance listened with deep interest to the several addresses given.

Rev. Mr. Clendinning, pastor of Brock Street Church, spoke a few words of welcome, and gave some words of encouragement to the gathering.

Harold Ettinger gave a report of the convention recently held in Prescott, which was most interesting and instructive.

Mr. Dewar, Canadian Field Secretary for Christian Endeavor, was the speaker of the evening, and told of the work being carried on by Endeavorers in both the east and west. He also dealt at some length with the campaign adopted at the International
