The band of boy burglars who have been working overtime in the city the past week or so, are still on the job.

Just to remind the police that they were still doing business, they secured an entrance to the meat shop of T. F. Burke, Brock Street, on Wednesday night. As a result of their visit the till is minus about $5 in change and $2 worth of postage stamps.

The boys secured an entrance by raising a window in the rear of the shop.
