LOCOMOTIVE WORKS JOINS WHIG'S TOCACCO FUND

The British Whig is gratified to be able to make the announcement today that the employees of the Canadian Locomotive Company, Limited, have decided to co-operate with this paper in raising funds for the supplying of tobacco and cigarettes for Canadian soldiers fighting for King and country at the front.

The Whig's Fund is already considerably in excess of $500, and today a cheque for the first installment of the Locomotive Works' contributions, $219.65, was handed in by the treasurer of the men's fund, T. E. Donlan. This will boost the fund well up over the thousand dollar mark.

Cards have been distributed among the men asking them to contribute 10c a week for three months, and the response has been most prompt and hearty as can easily be seen by the size of the first cheque which has reached the Whig Office. This paper will gladly acknowledge all such contributions.

There were several ways in which the large amount of money which the Locomotive Works are contributing could be distributed. After all the details of the Whig Fund had been explained to Mr. Wheatley and the Committee, they, with a loyalty to home interests that is gratifying, decided to amalgamate their fund with the Whig's.

One dime each from all those on the payroll every week does not make a great drain on any individual, but at the same time this amount represents a contribution to the cause which is substantial when the total proceeds are considered. Just what does it mean? It means that nearly $1,000 worth of tobacco and cigarettes will be sent to the soldiers on the firing line as the gift of the boys who have denied themselves one package of tobacco or of cigarettes in order to show their appreciation of the work which is being done for those who are fighting for them, while the donors are keeping the wheels of business turning and circulating their salaries, less 10c a week, among other business houses and individuals who are in their turn thinking of the obligation impelled by the work of those who have donned the uniform and are now "somewhere in France".

The campaign for the soldiers of Canada who need tobacco and cigarettes will be a long one. The war will not terminate tomorrow, and so long as it continues the obligation of all of those who remain at home for good will obtrude.

To insure the systematic supply of that which is most needed by those at the front, more organizations such as that instituted by the Canadian Locomotive Company are required. To officers and employees of other industries the Whig would say: Why not create such an organization in your plant, and thus lend a hand in this worthy cause? Some of your fellows are on the firing line. Some are perhaps in hospitals, and you can imagine how much they would appreciate a gift from you. It will mean but little to you and your fellow members, but it will mean a whole lot to the boys in the trenches.

BROCK STREET CHURCH

THE REPORTS PRESENTED ARE MOST ENCOURAGING.

Further Payment of $500 Was Made On the Debt of the Church—The Various Committees Appointed.

At a joint meeting of the Quarterly Official Board and the Finance Committee of Brock Street Methodist Church, held Tuesday evening, a glowing report of the finances of the church was presented by the treasurer, W. J. Lee, showing all accounts paid and a balance in hand. A substantial addition has been made to the weekly current income during the past two months, while the success of the debt reduction campaign has also materially reduced the liability and interest charge of the congregation. A further payment of $500 was made on the debt last week.

HARDWARE, 85, 87 Princess

Pound, William Drury, H. W. Watts, with representatives to be elected by the Ladies' Aid Society, Sunday School and Epworth League.

The feeling of the officials was most optimistic, and acknowledgment was made of the loyalty and untiring of the congregation in the various enterprises being made of the splendid work done by the Ladies' Aid Society. The missionary campaign recently held showed a growing interest in the broader work of the church, and it is likely the income this year for missions will be well in advance of past years. The ladies are forming a new W. M. S. Auxiliary this week. Rev. George S. Clendinnen presided at the meeting.
