FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE

Frontenac
DONALDSON.
Nov. 2.—Deer hunting is the order of the day. Quite a number of hunters passed through here enroute for Folger and Red Horse Lake.
Misses Evelyn and Minnie Sargent spent Sunday at J. Thurston's.
James McVein, Elphie, is the guest of his cousin, Mr. Paul. Miss Luella Thompson spent the week-end with Miss Ethel Lett. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson visited friends around here recently.

GLENDOWER.
Nov. 2.—Quite a number attended James Currell's sale at Verona. One of the Russians was injured at Richardson's feldspar mines, by being struck by a bucket. Sandford Leeman is drawing wood. T. Babcock is loading pulp wood. Mrs. George Timmerman is visiting her sister at Hartington. A number from this district are out hunting. B. Hopkins and wife, are at James Wilson's.
Mr. and Mrs. Sandford Leeman, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Allan Snider, at Verona.

ARDOCH.
Nov. 2.—A party of men from Prescott are here enjoying the hunting season. J. Kingston was fortunate in securing a fine deer yesterday. Mrs. R. G. Watkins, who has been visiting her daughters in Picton, has returned home. The party given by the Myers' brothers was much enjoyed by the young people of this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. J.
Kingston, Prescott, are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Watkins. They are accompanied by Mr.
Kingston's brother, who has returned from the front where he was seriously wounded. Mrs. C. Smith spent last week with her daughter, Mrs.
C. Gray. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs.
Tapping at J. Smith's; Lucy Gray at George Hamilton's; Guy Watkins at Mr. McLean's.

INVERARY.
Nov. 2.—Thomas Arthur's residence, with part of its contents, was burned to the ground on Saturday about noon. Mrs. Arthur started a fire to get dinner, which set the pipes ablaze. A spark from the chimney ignited the roof. There was a heavy breeze blowing at the time which soon spread the flames, and the building being a frame structure, soon disappeared. The piano was saved but is greatly damaged. Mrs.
J. N. Holmes still continues very low. Her daughter, Mrs. Wells, is still pursuing her. W. R. Tolls is suffering from an attack of constipation of the liver. He is confined to his room. Miss Annie Thompson and Miss Margaret Arthur are still in Kingston recovering from their operations. Timms Ferguson is seriously ill of typhoid fever.

DESERT LAKE.
Nov. 2.—Friends were pleased to hear that Mrs. Bauder has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital.
William Altherston and family have moved to Verona. People at the lake received a bad scare when William Wilson's woods caught fire Sunday afternoon. How the fire originated is not known but fortunately very little damage was done. Had the wind been in the right direction the result might have been serious.
Mrs. E. Snook and daughter were at Mrs. Sears', Perth Road. Miss A.
Snook is visiting friends at Syden-ham. Mrs. T. Freeman's sister and family motored from Ganano-que on Sunday. On the way they had the misfortune to run into Frank Crimmins, slightly injuring his buggy.
Several youngsters made things lively Saturday night. Visitors Sunday were Mrs. and Mrs. J. Murphy at A. Collins'.

MOUNTAIN GROVE.
Nov. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Card have moved to their farm east of the village, lately purchased from J. R. Moore. Mr. Moore leaves this week to visit his son William in the West. Mr. and Mrs. George Summers left on Saturday on a visiting trip.
Mrs. Drake is keeping house for Mrs. Somers. Mr. and Mrs. George Barr and family have returned from a visit with his sister, Mrs. John Evens, near Nanapanee. Mr. and Mrs.
Purvis Barr spent a week with the latter's parents, Plevna, recently.

port, were in the village on Monday.

FRANKVILLE.
Nov. 2.—The Ladies of the Patriotic League, sent $10 to the funds to purchase Christmas gifts for soldiers. The ladies of the Patriotic League canvassed Frankville and vicinity on Trafalgar Day and collected the sum of $130 for Red Cross work. A number of young girls assembled at Dr. W. H.
Smith's last Saturday evening and organized the Little Red Cross Allies. The following officers were duy elected: Honorary President, Mrs. K. Edgers; Honorary Vice-President, Mrs. William Looby; President, Bessie Bangington; Vice-President, Norma Richards; Secretary, Grace Cannon; Treasurer, Edna Burns.
Mrs. Kilborn and aunt, Mrs. Cannon, went to Jasper to-day to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Alf. Lea-cher. Mrs. Davy and daughter, Lillian are spending the week in Smith's Falls. Mrs. Powell and daughter Emma (nurse) returned to Brockville to-day after spending a few days with the former's sister, Mrs. E. Soper. Mr. and Mrs. E.
Soper motored to Prescott to visit his daughter, Mrs. F. Stewart. Dr.
W. H. Burns motored to Athens, accompanied by Mrs. Edgers and Mr. and Mrs. J. Coad. D. L. Johnston, Athens, was visiting at his sister's, Mrs. Enos Soper's. Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Coad were visiting in Brockville last week.

CEDRAR VALLEY.
Nov. 3.—Threshing and silo filling are about completed, and everything looks much like winter. The hunters from the locality have been very successful as far as game is concerned. D. R. Rogers carrying away the highest prize, having secured a handsome silver fox. He has been offering a huge sum for it by the Cor-sine Co., Montreal. Mr. Polow also bagged a few choice birds.
Charles Patterson returned from Perth, where he has been spending the past week. K. Polk and W.
A. Rogers had a few days in their respective homes last week. They enjoyed the camp life in Barriefield, and were talking of their large trip to Belleville this week. "Amby" Harney leaves this week for Nebraska to spend the winter. Miss Jen Rogers and her brother motored to Kingston on Saturday and returned Monday. They found the roads in excellent condition. The K. S. A.
Club met on Monday to appoint officers for the coming term and to arrange for a dance to be held in their new hall in December. Cecil Elburne returned on Monday from Europe, where he has been engaged as aviator. He intends to spend a few months at home to recuperate, after which he will go back to the war zone. Mrs. McGillivray and Miss Hanley called on friends in the valley recently. Visitors: Charles Fleming and wife; Miss M.
Bolton, Alexandria, and William Ripley.

LANSDOWNE.
Nov. 3.—The Women's Institute will meet on Friday Nov. 5th in the Delta, motored here on Sunday and spent the day with their son. Dr.

Stevens. Among the latest to purchase a player piano is E. Latimer.
Mr. John Bryan returned to her home on Tuesday last though still very poorly. At the graduating exercises of the hospital for Incurables, Toronto, held on Oct. 27th, Miss Lena Brimley, Rockport, was awarded the silver medal and lacked but 10 marks of winning the gold medal.
The memorial service in the Methodist Church, Sunday last, in honor of the memory of the late Lance-Corpl. W. W. Frew who was killed in France Sept. 30th, was very large attended. About 100 members of the I. O. O. F. attended, as the deceased was a valued member of the society and was also a member of the A. F. and M. S. Rev. Mr.
Backstedt, Presbyterian, minister, who conducted the service, delivered an excellent and patriotic sermon.
The choir was composed of members of the three choirs, as other services were postponed, in honor of one who enjoyed the friendship of the whole community. From the details so far available it seems Corpl. Frew was shot and instantly killed by a sniper while in the trenches.

The Great British Remedy.
COUGHS THAT HURT
That kind of cough must be stopped, and at once; it is dangerous. The severe strain it causes may have serious consequences. You can stop it—and cure it—with the World-famous British Remedy, Veno's Lightning Cough Cure.
There is nothing in medicine more quick or more sure than Veno's. That is why it is called a "Lightning" cough cure.
Awarded the Grand Prix and Gold Medal, International Health Exhibition, Paris, 1910.
Veno's Lightning Cough Cure is the most popular cough remedy in the whole world. Why? Because it's a real cure, quick, sure, thorough; because it is free from every kind of poisonous or dangerous drug; because it is as good for children as for adults; because a better preparation could not be made, if the price were dollars instead of cents. Trust Veno's
