ATTENDED WORSHIP

ORANGEMEN HEARD A SPLENDID DISCOURSE

In the Sydenham Methodist Church And From Its Pastor Rev. F. A. Read—Extolled What Had Been Won. Sydenham, Nov. 5.—Rev. F. A. Read preached to the Orangemen last Sabbath in the Methodist Church. They were out in full force, and the church edifice was packed with attentive auditors. Rev. Mr. Harrington, Anglican Church, assisted in the service. Mr. Read began his discourse by saying: Gentlemen of the Orange fraternity as pastor of this church and on behalf of the trustees, I accord to you the freedom of this edifice for public worship on this memorable anniversary occasion, and trust that you will enter heartily into the devotions of the hour. "Our patriotic fathers who fought successfully against the invincible Armada heroically withstood the terrible siege of Derry, exposed the Gunpowder Plot, won the battle of the Boyne, and founded the first Orange Lodge on the battlefield of the Diamond have handed down to us a rich heritage of independence in Protestant faith; for which one ought to be thankful, and which was secured to the world by the shedding of their own blood. "Your noble institution therefore stands for an open Bible, freedom of religion, free institutions, respect for law and order, and the rights of true citizenship among our fellow-men; and it is a matter of rejoicing that the fundamental principles of Protestantism have become so interwoven into the web and woof of Canadian life, and are so sacredly guarded by loyal Orangemen, that they are likely to remain with us as a sufficient defence of the religious rights and privileges of the people of Canada for all time to come. "But you must not forget that those principles which are so sacred to you are the outcome of the teaching of Jesus of Nazareth, the Man of Galilee. Therefore the more you know Him and of His teaching, the clearer will be your conception of the spirit and principles which should actuate you in fulfilling your obligations not only to the people of Canada but to the Empire to which we all belong. "Then for forty minutes the preacher kept his auditors sitting at the feet of Jesus, the Man of Galilee, looking up into His face, and down into his life and character, as he revealed through the gospel the highest conception of God and of man and the secret of the highest type of man, both in the Orangeman and the ordinary citizen. The Carleton Place choir have been coming new gowns.

An Unusual Souvenir.

Peterboro, Nov. 5.—Pte. Emile Baumer, of the military police of the 93rd Battalion, has received a most interesting souvenir from a cousin who is a sergeant major in a French infantry regiment, "Chausers a Pied." The relic of the fierce fighting on the western front takes the form of a Prussian medal taken from the breast of a German captain of the Landstrum, who was bayoneted and killed by Pte. Baumer's cousin. The significant feature about the medal is that it was awarded for services rendered in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, indicating that the captain who wore it was at least sixty-five years of age.

WAS BADLY INJURED.

Getting the Best of Care and Attention.

Perth, Nov. 5.—Rev. Mr. Scott had a letter from his son, Clyde, within the past few days. Clyde kept the extent of his injuries from his parents until he was well on the way to recovery, and only now is he giving them an idea of the agony that he suffered in those first weeks after he was left for dead by his own troops, and picked up by the Germans. His hip was broken and his body was covered with shot wounds. Unskilled treatment in the early stages of his wound is responsible for the prolonged recovery, but Clyde writes that he is getting the best of care and attention, and skilled surgical treatment now. He is still in bed with a weight in his foot, and he expects to come through the ordeal with but a slight lameness.
