OF SALE OF LIQUOR IN KINGSTON DURING WAR.

Resolution Passed By Meeting Of Citizens—Col. T. D. R. Hemming Approves of the Resolution.

The following is a copy of a resolution unanimously adopted at a meeting of citizens of Kingston, held on Thursday.

Moved by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Bidwell, Bishop of Kingston, seconded by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Canada:

"In view of the crisis through which the Empire is now passing, which calls for the fullest efficiency and utmost capacity for service on the part of every citizen, he it resolved that an urgent request be presented to the Board of License Commissioners for Ontario to prohibit the sale or other disposal of liquor in taverns and shops in this city for the period of the war."

I heartily approve of the above resolution and trust the request will receive fullest consideration.

(Sgd.) T. D. R. HEMMING,
Colonel Commanding Third Division.

A MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Formed By Ladies of Brock Street Methodist Church.

At a meeting of ladies held on Thursday at the parsonage of Brock Street Methodist Church, Johnson street, it was decided to organize an auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society in connection with the congregation. There was a very good attendance in spite of the rain, and the ladies showed much enthusiasm in support of the work proposed. The pastor, Rev. George S. Clendinning, presided, and gave much information concerning the history and methods of work of the Women's Missionary Society, which has been in operation in the Methodist Church for thirty-four years past.

After enrollment of the names of those present as members, a list of ladies who intended to join, but were unable to be present, was made out, with the object of securing a strong charter membership. Officers were elected as follows:

President, Mrs. George S. Clendinning; 1st vice-president, Mrs. F. Reid; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. T. R. Carnovsky; recording secretary, Mrs. Douglas Poynd; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William White; treasurer, Mrs. Enoch Godwin; superintendent of systematic giving, Mrs. C. C. Nash. The following ladies were appointed heralds, to report to the society on the several departments of work: Mrs. H. E. Day, for Indian work; Mrs. A. VanLoven, for Japan; Mrs. R. J. Fursey for China; Mrs. W. W. Doherty, for French work; Miss A. DeWitta, for temperance.

Before separation, the ladies were served with tea by Mrs. Clendinning, and a very enjoyable social hour was spent.

Appeals To Sportsmen.

A glance at the list of contents of the November issue of Red and Gun in Canada magazine indicates that this number is of general interest to the outdoor lover and sportsman.

"Big Alec and the Portage of Death" is a Hudson Bay story by R. J. Fraser of pathetic interest. "Martin and the Mortgage," is another of H. C. Haddon's stories and has to do with the capture of a den of black fox puppies. "How Saunders caught the Game Hog" is a story of deer hunting by camera vs. deer hunting by gun, written and illustrated by F. V. Williams. There are other stories that make a like appeal to the readers of a sportsman's magazine.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

Despite the rain Thursday evening, the Grand was filled for the Tom Marks Company's presentation of "The Man From Canada." The plot had a bearing on the war and was of a patriotic nature.

W. L. Phillips, as "Joseph Spracklin" a German agitator was the villain of the play and took his part splendidly. His various schemes to win the love of Elsie Lavelle, played by Miss Olive Nelson, proved interesting as she was really in love with Victor Belmont, a captain in the English army at the front. This part was taken by Frank Byron. Miss Arlie Marks, as Katie Tyson; Andy McPherson as Jack, and C. C. Allen as brother Tommy, all played splendidly. The star of course was "Tom" Marks who took the part of "The Man From Canada."

The programme of vaudeville and photoplays to be presented at the Grand Opera House to-night is an excellent one and should appeal to all lovers of good entertainment. The feature picture is "Salomy Jane" with Beatriz Michelena in the title role. Mueller Bros, the singing song writers, have an act that should please the most discriminating theatregoers. Kubeluck, violin artist, is without doubt the best that has appeared here.

At Strand Theatre.

The bill shown at this popular theatre last night consisted of "The Suburban," a four-act picturization of C. T. Dazey's famous play, in which that big screen favorite "King Baggot" takes the leading role. The Universal Weekly, showing the big New York subway disaster, Society Girls' dance at Long Branch and many other timely scenes, along with other good photo plays were shown to a large and appreciative audience. The same big bill will be presented again to-night and Saturday.

Free To-night at the Strand

The first two hundred patrons passing through the doors of the Strand to-night will receive a sample of Wrigley's doublemint chewing gum.

(Special to the Whig) Paris, Nov. 5.—A fierce and ineffective attack was delivered on the French lines on Thursday night between the Aisne and the Oise in the regions of Palsallene and Quenneviers. We repulsed two grenade attacks, supported by liquid fire against La Courtine in the Champagne. In Alsace our aviators bombarded the Germans' asphyxiating gas plants.

At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held on Thursday evening, a resolution was passed heartily endorsing the resolution of the Hamilton Trades and Labor Council, which called for the closing of hotel but not club bars.

Letters to the Editor

Sailors' Missionary Association.

Toronto, Nov. 4.—(To the Editor): It will be a personal as well as a public favor if you will give space in your valuable journal to the fact that the work of the "International Sailors' Missionary Association" is not now in connection or affiliation with any other organization. By so doing you will remove any misapprehensions from the minds of the public, and that no one is authorized to collect funds for this work except George D. Pound, who is superintendent.—JAMES S. POTTER, Secretary.

Church Union and the Soldiers.

Kingston, Nov. 5.—(To the Editor): It may be interesting to most of your readers to know that there are about 40,000 members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church in Canada actually engaged on the firing line and in training at the present time in this great war—and further that they will not have any vote on the important question of Church Union, now being taken.

On the Honor Rolls of St. Andrew's and Chalmers Church, Kingston, nearly one hundred of our finest young men are enrolled in the service of the Empire. Think of it, fathers and mothers of these two old churches! While your sons are defending their country and laying down their lives for her honor, the great body of loyal, stay-at-homes, are doing all in their power to wipe out the great Presbyterian Church of your fathers, and to form a big "organization" to take the place of this old historic and honored church.

Presbyterians! Awake! When your soldier sons come home from the front let the old church of their childhood be ready to receive them. Use the ballot and vote "No."—FAIR PLAY.

The 80th Battalion paraded through the city this afternoon making a fine appearance. It will be the last march out before the battalion leaves for Belleville. "Grip and cold tablets" at Gibson's Red Cross Drug store.
