

SERBIAN CAPITAL CAPTURED BY THE ENEMY

NISH HAS FALLEN TO THE BULGARIANS

After Three Days of Fierce Fighting--It Will Take Several Weeks For the Allies to Turn the Tide in Balkans.

(Special to the Whig.) Berlin (via wireless) Nov. 6.—The Bulgarians have captured Nish, the Serbian capital to-day.

Will Take Weeks to Turn Tide.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—If the Bulgarian tide is turned, the best opinion here is that it will be some weeks hence, involving a period of uncertainty such as preceded the stand before Paris and on the Yser.

The Japanese Emperor Goes For His Crown

Tokio, Nov. 6.—Yoshihito, Emperor of Japan, went to the twenty-second head of the Japanese imperial house after the first Emperor Jimmu whose reign began 2,575 years ago, left Tokio to-day for Kioto to make his state entry into the capital of his forefathers and there formally accede to the throne of the Empire of the Rising Sun.

As the Emperor emerged from the palace he was greeted by 200,000 school children, who paid silent homage to the ruler.

NO DOCTOR NEAR.

When King George Met Accident At Front.

London, Nov. 6.—A letter from Corp. Fred Clark, of the Military Mounted Police in France, describes his futile gallop for two miles when King George was injured.

They then picked the King up again and carried him to his automobile. He had been lying on the ground about ten minutes, evidently rather seriously injured.

Mine Activity In The Argonne And At Meuse

Paris, Nov. 6.—"Mine activity is continuous in the regions of Argonne and the Meuse. An explosion in vicinity of Malancourt seriously damaged the enemy's organizations."

Serbian Situation Improved.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—The Serbian situation has improved in the view of the British and French staffs at Salonika.

Belgium Has Paid

THE SUM OF $72,000,000 To the Enemy. Provinces Scrupulously Meet Installment of Huge War Levy—Decried by the Germans.

The Absence of Kitchener Is Discussed

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—The Lord Kitchener's absence from the British War Office, where Premier Asquith is presiding temporarily, is connected with some military movement of capital importance.

Is Placed On Half Pay.

Amsterdam, Nov. 6.—Another favorite of Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz has been retired from the German navy, according to advices received from Berlin to-day.

Women Take Place Of Men.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Sixty thousand women have registered as skilled workers in various trades to make up a reserve army of workers in London and take the places of men eligible for military service.

Nobel Prize For Edison.

London, Nov. 6.—According to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen, Thomas A. Edison, Nikola Testa, and Theodore Svedberg, Swedish chemist, of the University of Upsala, are suggested as probable recipients of Nobel prizes.

Cost of the War.

London, Nov. 6.—It is now costing England $27,500,000 a day to carry on the war.

CAESAR'S WAY.

One of the best known streets in Nish, Serbia.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—The British steamship Woodfield has been sunk by a German submarine.

CANADIAN RED CROSS.

Controls Many Hospitals and Depots In France.

London, Nov. 6.—Col. Hodgetts, Canadian Red Cross commissioner, when interviewed after his trip to France, stated that his organization now controls, besides the principal depot at Boulogne, advance depots at each of the three general headquarters.

ENGINEER DIES AT 90.

Was Visiting His Daughter in London, Ontario.

London, Nov. 6.—While visiting his daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) H. A. Graham, in London, W. H. Kennedy, Toronto, died after a few days' illness, in his ninetieth year.

THREE FIREMEN KILLED.

(Special to the Whig.) Montreal, Nov. 6.—A spectacular fire in the Reid building, spreading to other buildings, killed three firemen.

RUSHING RAILROADS.

Day and Night Work to Connect Up Athens and Salonika. Paris, Nov. 6.—Work on the railroad being built from Larissa to Salonika, which will form a railway connection between Athens and Salonika, is being pushed night and day.

Highest Peak In the Rockies As Monument

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Mount Robson, the highest peak of the Canadian Rockies, is to be constituted an eternal monument to the memory of Miss Edith Cavell.

Belgium Has Paid

THE SUM OF $72,000,000 To the Enemy. Provinces Scrupulously Meet Installment of Huge War Levy—Decried by the Germans.

An Election Is Now Likely In Greece

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—King Constantine will dissolve the Greek Parliament, according to a News Agency message from Athens to-day.

Bulgarians Defeated.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—South of Strumnitza on the Bulgarian frontier the Bulgarians were severely defeated.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

THE WAR COUNCIL.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—The new war council, which will conduct the war, held its first meeting yesterday.

NO THREATENED RISING.

Rumor Of Danish West Indies a Canard. St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Nov. 6.—There is no threatened rising among the negroes in the Danish West Indies.

TRUTH ON PRAIRIE FIRES.

Official Denial of Alarming Cabled Despatches. Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Alarming stories published in the "Old Country" of big prairie fires in the west, covering four hundred square miles and entailing heavy loss in life and property, have caused an official denial to be sent out by the Department of External Affairs.

FIERCE ATTACKS MADE

By the Germans to Regain The Tachure Positions. (Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 6.—Counter-attacks by the Germans endeavoring to regain Tachure positions, taken in a recent offensive, were violent and sided by artillery and liquid fire.

Bishop Refused Legacy.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—When John Butterhof, ninety-one years old, died recently at Egg Harbor City he left a will in which he gave only small sums to relatives and gave the bulk of the estate, valued at $11,000, to Bishop James A. McFaul, of the Roman Catholic diocese of Trenton.

DIED.

BRUYEA—At Nassau, on October 30th, Harold, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bruyca, aged three months and fifteen days.

ROBERT J. REID

The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 230 Princess Street.

JAMES REID

The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 256 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

IN MISSION OAK

Large Buffet Massive Oak, eight rush-bottom chairs; cost over $200 for $65. Turk's phone 79.

We Sell & Recommend

Jas. Redden & Co. Phones 20 and 990.

BULGARIAN LOSSES PLACED AT 100,000

Bulgars Severely Defeated South of Strumnitza And At Babun Pass—Thought British Troops Are Co-Operating With French—Repulse Germans.

Bulgarians Defeated.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—South of Strumnitza on the Bulgarian frontier the Bulgarians were severely defeated.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

THE SPECTRE OF FAMINE IS FACING THE GERMANS

Entirely upon the evidence of their own latest official publication it is manifested that the German food situation on the threshold of the second winter of the war is much more serious than in November 1914.

What a Prisoner Says.

New York, Nov. 6.—A special cable to the World from London says: "The World correspondent to-day was shown a letter from an Irish soldier, who is a prisoner of war in Germany."

Will Be Several Days Before King George Can Leave His Room.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—King George was officially reported to-day to be so much better than no more bulletins will be issued concerning his condition, his doctors admitted that it would be several days yet before he can leave his room.

Bishop Refused Legacy.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—When John Butterhof, ninety-one years old, died recently at Egg Harbor City he left a will in which he gave only small sums to relatives and gave the bulk of the estate, valued at $11,000, to Bishop James A. McFaul, of the Roman Catholic diocese of Trenton.

DIED.

BRUYEA—At Nassau, on October 30th, Harold, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bruyca, aged three months and fifteen days.

ROBERT J. REID

The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 230 Princess Street.

JAMES REID

The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 256 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

IN MISSION OAK

Large Buffet Massive Oak, eight rush-bottom chairs; cost over $200 for $65. Turk's phone 79.

We Sell & Recommend

Jas. Redden & Co. Phones 20 and 990.

Sank Three Vessels Near Gibraltar

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 6.—German submarines passing the Straits of Gibraltar sank the French steamship Dabra off Arzeo, the steamships Calvados (French) and Ionio (Italian), off Cape Ivi.

Sank Three Vessels Near Gibraltar

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 6.—E. W. Southern, keeper of a lighthouse at West Port, Digby County, has written to Hon. J. D. Hazen, authorizing a deduction of $100 from his salary during 1915 to be used at his discretion for purposes in connection with the war.

War Tidings.

A German submarine is reported sunk off Varna apparently by the Russian bombardment.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.

German Attacks Failed.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 6.—German efforts to recapture ground lost to the Russians near Lake Swenton have been unavailing.