

Told In Twilight the Realm of Woman

(Continued from Page 3.) Mrs. Benjamin F. Lamson (formerly | second Tuesday of each month. Miss Bessie Dunlop) was held at "Waverley Place," St Catharines, Wednesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 3rd. Mrs. (Dr.) George Brophy, Ottawa, for a couple of Smythe assisted the hostess in re- weeks, was the guest of honor at a ceiving the guests, wearing dove luncheon given by Mrs. Charles grey silk with large picture hat to O'Connor, and has also been entermatch. The hostess wore her bri- tained at several other informal afdal gown of ivory charmeuse and fairs. carried pale pink roses. Mrs. John Dawson poured tea, and Mrs. Charles A. Hesson cut the ices in the tea room, where the decorations were yellow and white, the centre mirror Adele, to Dr. William Russell Marand silver basket of yellow 'mums tied with large white satin bow of ton. ribbon, and yellow unshaded candles | quietly on November 20th. at each corner, holding streamers of smilax. Little Miss Margaret Cavers and Miss Helen Barker, in pretty white frocks, opened the door for the gowned, assisting in the tea room where they will remain, to be near were Miss Betty Wylie, Miss Corrinne Dawson, Miss Jane Adie, Miss is stationed there. Margaret Hesson, Miss Viola Dawson and Miss Marjorie Greenwood. In the evening several young people called on Mr. and Mrs. Lamson, when an impromptu dance occur-

Among the guests who enjoyed the Nurses' Dance at Rockwood on Wednesday evening were: Dr. and mother, Mrs. John L. Whiting, Cler-Mrs. E. N. Young, Mr. and Mrs. George Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hughes, Misses Pearl Oldreive: Kathleen Ryan, Hill, Carriere, Hughson, Kennedy, land Neil Black and Leslie Smith.

Mrs. Annie E. Elmer, 28 Division len, to Wilbert H. Norrish, B.Sc., Ot- Ottawa. tawa, and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Norrish, Guelph, Ont., the marriage to take place the latter part of No-

Prepared Especially For This Newspaper

by Pictorial Review

* Easy & Practical
Home Dress Making Lessons

street, will receive on Tuesday, 9th The post nuptial reception of November, and afterwards on the

> Miss Frances Sullivan, Kingston who has been visiting Mrs. Arthur

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Homuth, 122 Avenue road, Toronto, announce the engagement of their daughter, Laura shall, son of John Marshall, Kings-The marriage will take place

Mrs. Charles Low and her children, in Kingston for some time The girls, very prettily will leave on Monday for Belleville.

> Mrs. Edward Low, Ottawa, is, the guest of her daughter. Miss Gertrude Low, Brock street.

Mrs. Lindsay Malcolm returned on Thursday from Stratford, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs.George Malcolm.

Mr. Ward, Montreal, is visting his Mrs. R. C. Carter, Mrs. Hansord Hora and the Misses Elsie and Marjorie Pense are expected in town Edith Fraser, Bessie Robertson, Ha- next week. Miss Elsie Pense will zel Browne, Gwenneth Merrick, Prof. be especially welcomed by her Manley Baker and Messrs. Wallace friends after an absence of nearly Mackay, Roy Campbell, Sherman two years visiting in India and Eng-Mis Agnes Johnston went to Gananoque to-day for the week-end.

Mrs. Wright, who has been spendstreet, announces the engagement of ling the summer with her son at the her younger daughter, Florence El- Rectory, Maitland, has returned to

Thursday, and will sail next week for England to spend a week's fur-ed coat, belted and trimmed with but-

This tailored model is well suited to smart developed in dark purple duve-

tyn. The coat is of especial interest.

huge turn-over collar. Provision, how-inch material, but if the coat is made separately only 214 yards will be re-

Because of its excellent lines the jacket may do splendid independent vage edges matching perfectly. The goods and above it is the front, both of these sections resting on a lengthwise

right of the collar the back. The col-faid on a lengthwise thread of the goods, yet crosswise of the material

The belt is also placed crosswise, and the sleeve is laid on a lengthwise

If the square collar is to be used will be necessary to cut off the upper front edge of the front on the crossline

Duvetyn is so pretty in itself that i tractive trimming than buttons of self-material. This is also true of the belt.

Zibelines, softer, finer and lighter

than the zibelines used during the past few years for heavy coating, are much in demand this Winter. They are manufactured in a variety of stripes.

Bluebird blue, with a dull yold stripe,

brown with a green stripe creen with black are very pretty combinations for thread opposite the back.

of small "o" perforations.

tons of self-material

quired.

son, 2nd Battalion, C. E. F., thur Macausland will accompany

Mrs. Ernest Cunningham, who arrived in Toronto from Red Deer, Alta., several days ago with Master Paul, came to town to-day, and is the guest of Mrs. Henry Cunningham, Earl street. Miss Jessie Smith is in Ottawa, he guest of Miss Wickstead. Mrs. James Hamilton, Sydenham street, is in Frankford visting her daughter, Mrs. George Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Osler, Cobourg, announce the engagement of their daughter, May, to Lieut. Frederick B. Inkster, C. A. S. C. The marriage will take place in London, England, the latter part of Novem-

Mr. and Mrs. Band, 200 Albany avenue, Toronto, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Lena, to Barton Thomas Cummins, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Cummins, Kingston, Ont., the marriage to take place quietly in November.

The engagement is announced of Miss Augusta L. Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Powers, Picton, Ont., to James Herbert Hawthorne Hodgins, son of Mrs. E. B. Smith, Montreal. Mr. Hodgins is a newspaper writer, and at one time on the Whig staff

THE AUTUMN VEIL

FASTENED TO HAT

Made In Color To Match, And Is Almost a Part Of The Trim-

Have you grasped the essential characteristics of the veil of the autumn of 1915?

veil can be anything but popular, for one cup of sugar into a small sauce to March. She could carry a bunch it has all the elusiveness and charm pan, and add three-fourths cup and mystery of the veil of the east- water and a pinch of salt. Boil 19at least, it has many of those charac- gether until it forms a syrup and symbolize March by bringing a toy make it appealing. It is not the crisp, | flavoring. useful bit of mesh that is pulled snugly, if jauntily and smartly over the face for the obvious and real purpose of keeping the hair from breadcrumbs, one and one-half cups prism which she carries. One pretty been worn for the last few years when any veil at all has been worn. Really the women of America have gredients and fry as you do any they are simply suspended on black been keeping the liking for veils griddle cakes. Miss Agnes Richardson, University alive, for French fashions have taavenue, came from St. Thomas on ken little cognizance of veils for several seasons.

. No, the new veil is different, Mrs. W. A. Newman, 131 Beverly lough with Captain George Richard- has all the beauty of the folded lines of sheer fabric that a veil should have. It is a hindrance rather than a help in the wind—and this bit of unreasonableness on its part doubtless help it to win favor.

The new veil is, moveover, attached to the hat with which it is worn beat until well mixed. Now add the Goddess of Liberty effect and looks 69 tion. It hangs in flaring folds about the face and hair and touches, even shrouds, the shoulders, It is made

Perhaps it is the fact that the new veil is so often fastened to the hat that marks its great difference from the veils of the past. For it at once becomes a really, decorative part of the hat. It is, in fact, a part of the trimming of the hat.

Needless to say, it is the smaller; hats with which these flaring veils figures with immature lines and is very | their flare.

of the crown and fastened somewhat tes. In a small frying pan put suffi- paper horn of plenty for a hat and being a double-breasted model with a near the crown under a band of trim- cient butter to cover the bottom of trim it with paper fruit and vegeming-flowers, fur, a twist of velvet the pan when melted. When hot, tables, or a beaded band. Another similar pour in batter to cover well the bot- December with its icicles, its snow, band catches the veil in at the base tom of the pan. Cook, watching care- its Santa Claus and its holly, would; shorter length, if preferred. In average size the suit requires 4% yards 54- of the crown and then it is left to fully until the batter puffs up and is suggest a score of ideas. One find its way in graceful folds over golden brown on the under side, simple costume for that mouth could it hangs to the shoulders.

band of trimming at the bottom of half teaspoonful of cinnamon and a diamond dust. Add to this a coservice. In cutting it out, the duvetyn the veil, across just enough of it to few drops of lemon juice. Continue quettish little cap of cotton batting fasten it snuggly about the threat baking, piling up the cakes one on and hold it in close against the face. top of the other. Serve at once. Roll- toe or holly. lower section of the sleeve is placed This renders the veil a bit practical, but it does not take from its charm; French pancakes. perhaps it even adds to it.

thread of material. Then comes the collar, on a lengthwise fold, and to the lar in question is the huge turn-over effect shown in the illustration, but if the closed collar is used this may be and are so pleasant in action that ing powder has been stirred to make once the mother has used them for the mixture into a pancake batter. her little ones she will never again Stir the peaches into the batter. Put resort to that harsh, ill-smelling, the griddle on the range and put inbad tasting castor oil, which baby to it butter or dripping just as you always fought against taking. Baby would for frying pancakes. Pour enwill take the Tablets with a smile ough in the griddle for a cake and and thousands of mothers tell us fry brown. Use all the batter this their little ones will coax for them. way. Serve with butter and sugar, or They are sold by medicine dealers sugar and cream. or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Fur Edged Scarfs. Ostrich feather boas are popular now that the days include coo mornings and evenings. Those boas of mixed black and white feathers! seem most in favor. The specialty together, the flour sifted twice with ower-Courage. shops and better class stores, how- the salt and baking powder. Pour en- 10. What is the most barbaric a woman whose gown is trimmed with or made of taffeta will select as the fringe.

taffeta scarf. This is relieved, if o ers beaded on each end. Or a man whose small hat may be of furtrimmed brocade may have scarf of the identical materials. are preferably fur-edged , a half long. One of special charm reads: is of pink velvet, edged with fawnmarching this is also of the velvet

PANCAKE RECIPES FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

When baking griddle cakes, in stead of greasing the griddle, rub it with a raw potato, a small bag cf salt or a raw turnip. The cakes will be just as brown and the room will We don't ask to know it 'twas night not be filled with the odor of burn ing fat. If you prefer to grease th But merely the name of the month griddle, use a strip of bacon or sal the griddle on the stove after using paper and set it out-of-doors. 1. busy housewife who does her ow cooking may enjoy sitting down the table with the rest of her family, test in which baby pictures are eneven though she is going to give tered, the prize going to the person them a treat of steaming hot, light who has the best kept her "baby pancakes or waffles for breakfast. looks. First cook the cakes on a hot griddle. put them on a warm plate and cover ginality in the way in which the with a perforated steamer large en months are symbolized. One clever ough to cover the plate and cakes | girl may see fit to represent Januar, Set in a warm place. The steamer by wearing two huge calendars strap-

Griddle Cakes.

half a cup of sweet milk, one-half cause she must "keep them." cup or sour milk mixed with one-

Bread Griddle Cakes.

of hot milk, one egg, one-half cup of idea for May would be to wear flour, three teaspoonfuls of baking May basket bonnet from which blospowder and salt to taste. Mix the in- soms appear to be falling, though warm water. Beat well for ten mi- wardrobe, nutes, then set to rise in a warm sugar with a little water.

Buckwheat Cakes.

German Pancakes.

ed with jelly, these are known as

Peach Griddle Cakes.

Peel about five large peaches thin. in the year. Halve them, and then shave off in slices. Sprinkle with sugar. Beat lows: two eggs into a foam and add a pint of milk. Add one-quarter cup of su-Baby's Own Tablets are a gentle gar, a sprinkle of salt and enough

Jelly Pancakes.

These can be made in a few minutes, and require two cups of flour, swer-Carriage. two cups of sweet milk, one egg, one 7. What is a thieving age? An teaspoonful of baking powder and a swer-Pillage. generous pinch of salt. Beat the egg | 8. What is a condecending age? very light, add the milk, and lastly, | Answer-Patronage. ough of the batter into a hot but- age? Answer-Savage. tered pan to cover the bottom, When y, roll up and sprinkle with powder-

NEIGHBORHOOD PARTY.

black, with two bright colored flew- Clever Suggestion For Private Affair or Church Entertainment.

Entertainments which can ven successfully during the warm responding numbers are drawn by dars of summer are hard to find, the guests; the drawing and open-The A suggestion is given here, however, ing of these "birthday presents" scarfs are cut in paddle shape, nar- which may be used by private indivi- would furnish no end of fun.

color chenille frings, and the hat I always have wished I'd been horn in July.

Right in the midst of this picnicky For the date of your birthday w don't care a bit. But if you're longing to make a great

Wear something that shows just th time and the season

That you were born in. Be "there's a reason." or 'twas mornin' you were born in. pork for the purpose. Do not leave Bring a picture to show how you looked when a baby but wipe it quickly with crumbled For our great guessing contest "Twill win a prize, maybe,

The last two lines refer to a con-

There will be a great deal of oriserved they will be just as delicious serve as walking advertisements on ciful designs. Still a third might typi fy the month by an armful of resolu-Beat up one egg, then add one- tions which she gives to no one behalf a teaspoonful of baking soda. her white gown with lace-paper, Sift together one and one-half tea- roses, hearts and cupids till she looks spoonfuls of baking powder, one tea- like a living valentine, while a string spoonful of sugar and a pinch of of paper Learts worn over her white salt, and add them with enough flour dress may be quite as suggestive of to make a batter of the right coasis- the month for some one else. March tency. Cook on a hot griddle which might wear a gray Canton flanne has been sparingly greased. Sarve hood with ears to represent Pussy It is difficult to believe that this with hot syrup made as follows: Put Willow, who pre-eminently belongs of twigs whose catkins are made of gray zephyr. Another guest might teristics, quite enough of them to flavor with vanilla or any preferred drum and keeping time with it while marching around the room April's child should wear a raincoat carry an umbrella and make rain-One and one-half cups of stale bows on the walls by means of a threads,. June, with its brides' its sweet girl graduates and its roses. offers endless possibilities. July will Take three cups of buckwheat robe its daughters in the stars and flour, four cups of warm water. two stripes. One very artistic way of tablespoons of molasses, one cup of using the national colors is to buy cornmerl, one teaspoonful of bak-the material that comes by the yard. ing soda, one teaspoonful of salt and Fasten it like a short sleeve around one-half an yeast cake. Scald the one arm, bringing it in scarf fashion cornmeal with just enough warm wa-lacross the back and fastening it to a PARKER'S DYE ter to swell it. Cool it and add the bracelet on the other wrist. It is salt, molasses and the yeast dissolv- well over a simple white dress such ed in four tablespoontule; of luke- as every girl has in her summer

August may be represented mere place overnight. In the morning ly by means of yellow crepe paper beat up again and let stand for ten hat and collar made like sunflowers, minutes before cooking. Just before worn with a white gown. The Sepfrying add the soda dissolved in one tember woman might become a child tablespoonful of warm water. These again, starting to school in her clean are delicious served with syrup made gingham apron with her books unby boiling a small quantity of brown der her arm. Hallowe'en pumpkins, ghosts and witches would doubtless be used by those who wished to symbolize October, while Beat two eggs, add one-half cup Puritan maids would come in for a are worn-which only emphasizes of flour and one-fourth teaspoonful share of the November honors. A of salt. Beat again, add one-half more original idea for the Thanks-They are gathered in to the size cup of milk and beat for three minu- giving girl would be to make a crepe

the brim—if there is one—whence Turn, brown on the other side and be made by trimming an ordinary slip onto a hot plate. Sprinkle with white dress with white icicles, cut Sometimes there is another little one-half cup of powdered sugar, one- from crepe paper and glittering with snow decorated with artificial mistle-

A birthday cake would be a suit able prize for the prettiest costume. or you might prefer one of those books having a verse for each day Another contest could be as

Write on cards the following ques tions, and after each guest has had laxative. They are absolutely safe flour into which a teaspoonful of bak- answers collect the cards, giving, a small prize to the most successful

> 1. What is the most traveled age Answer-Milage. z. What is the greenest age? Ar swer-Foliage. 3. What is the most cruel age? Answer-Carnage. 4. What is the most edible age?

Answer-Sausage. 5. What is an age a man dreads? Answer-Mortgage. 6. What is a comfortable age? An with just enough beating to mix all .9. What is the bravest age? An-11. What is a disgusting age? Answer-Garbage.

12. What is the age to which many asyire? Answer-Peerage. If your party is really just a joily neighborhood one, where all the guests are full of fun, you might request each one to bring something that she wishes to get rid of. It should be wrapped up in a parcel and each package numbered. Cor-row in the centre where they fold duals or by a club or church wishing! When serving refreshments give about the neck, wide at each end, to realize funds for some special pur- each guest a little individual birthand at these ends either pointed o pose. The affair is called a Neighbor- day cake elaborately frosted and rounded. They are about a yard and hood Birthday Party. The invitation decorated, with a lighted taper burning in its center.

Do something besides wonder how trimmed in brown of the same tint And doubtless you feel just the same your neighbor "makes both ends"

Clean, pure and wholesome, a tea you will like.

ea "is good tea"

Magical Effect of New Face Peeler

keeps the heat in the cakes without ped over her shoulders after the fash any Trugsfore in the original package. letting them get soggy, and when ion of the "sandwich men" who Just apply the wax at night as you as when taken from the griddle to city streets, while another may sem never tried it you can't imagine the old colendars over her gown in fan- magical effect of this harmiess home treatment. The wax causes the wornout scarf skin to come off in minute One February girl may decorate ish looking, so free from any appear the results, even after the first trial.

Our method of finishing blankets raises the nap, keeps them soft, and prolongs their period of useful-

Blankets are returned to you just like new. The Parker process of dyeing or cleaning Bedspreads and Eider

Onilts is most successful, and does not impoverish them in

any ways WORKS

Princess Street, Kingston, Ontario.

SPECIAL SALE OF TRIMMED HATS

$4 to $6 values.

For $2.95 MISS HAMILTON

370 Princess St. Phone 1267.

Open Thursday Evening, 7,30

I HAVE RE-OPENED A

Furniture Refinishing

shop, where all kinds of work will be one. Mahogany and Antique Furniare a Specialty. An invitation is extended to all old friends , and also to the public, to call and inspect my work.

Pat. Driscoll 23 JOHN STREET.

Telephone 201 Auto Livery

Bibby Garage

Agents for Dodge Bros.

THE leading hospitals in the States use Ivory Soap exclusively. This proves its purity. For medical practice demands aseptic cleanness and that is produced only by pure soap.

IVORY SOAP

99#% PURE

Procter & Gamble Factories in Hamilton, Canada

Rich in effect is this tailored costume those who profer a striped tout to one in purple duvetyn with double-breast- of se color bust. Price, 15 cents. Skirt No. 6429. Sizes 22'to 38 inches walst. Price, 15 cents.

> Above Patterns can be obtained from " NEWMAN & SHAW. Princess Street.