

FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE

Frontenac

HARTINGTON.

Nov. 4.—Edward Freeman, Ross Freeman and Samuel Derbyshire have gone deer hunting. Mrs. Godlin is nursing at Murvale. Mrs. Brown Moscow, is at her father's, Matthew Trousdale's. Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Lake visiting at Westbrooke, have returned home. Mrs. Elijah Sigsworth has returned from Camden East. Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson and Mr. and Mrs. Ryan motored to Gananoque on Sunday. Miss Mabel Gorilla is visiting at Yarker. Frederick Denison had a valuable collic killed by an auto.

VERONA.

Nov. 5.—On Oct. 20th, after an illness of scarcely two weeks, of typhoid fever, there passed to rest, an esteemed resident in the person of Norman Ball, aged fifty-six years. Deceased was man of exemplary habits, and one who practised the maxim of doing unto others as you would have them do unto you. A wife, three sons and two daughters are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. The funeral took place from his late residence west of this place and was very largely attended. Rev. T. S. Phillips, Wellington, preached the sermon.

BREWER'S MILLS.

Nov. 3.—H. Keeler is shingling Thomas Todd's house. The funeral of the late Thomas Dundon took place from Kingston to St. Barnaby's Church, Brewer's Mills, on Saturday last. Rain is badly needed for ploughing. Miss Pearl Murray has returned from Kingston. Miss Olive Todd spent a few days in the city last week. Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle is at James Smith's. Miss Jennie Rocheforte and William Smith, Seely's Bay, at J. Dundon's. Misses S. A. and Josie Webb at Mrs. James Dockrill's. James Mullen at M. Roche's. J. Tierney and sisters at J. Murray's. W. Rogers and sister, Portland, called on friends here last week.

ELGINBURG.

Nov. 4.—Mr. Gibbard, Napanee, conducted service here on Sunday morning. A successful tea and concert was held there on Wednesday night, and over $70 was realized. John Porter, Rochester, N.Y., spent his holidays at his father's. Arthur Porter has gone to Rochester. Joseph Clogg and George Porter visited friends in Toronto last week. Miss Mildred Graham has returned from visiting her aunt, Mrs. B. Day, Sydenham. Albert Tolles has started a grist mill in J. Silver's shop. Delbert Lake and J. W. Kiehl are camping down on Loughboro Lake. Mrs. J. Foster is visiting her daughter in Watertown, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. Horne and children, Kingston, spent a few days at Charles Smith's. Mr. Baker, Kingston, made a short visit to M. Silver's. Alexander Murphy is having his barn re-shingled. Dr. A. Leatherland and family and Miss Allen, Benson Mines, visited at J. Leatherland's a short time ago.

CLARENDON.

Nov. 5.—Miss Mary Ferguson, Elphinstone, has been visiting Miss Myrtle Leishman, Mr. and Mrs. S. Barr and two children. Renton, are visiting at J. Barr's. Miss Edith Appleby has returned to Kingston to resume her studies in Kingston Business College. R. Leishman made a business trip to Kingston last week. Mrs. Appleby, Miss E. Appleby, M. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. J. Barr and Mrs. F. Currie motored to Fleet Station one evening recently, when Mrs. Appleby closed the sale of her property there to John Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Sly, Sharbot Lake, spent the week-end at George Neeley's. A number of the boys who went west on the harvest excursion have returned to their homes near here. James Irwin, Sharbot Lake, is in town loading cattle for shipment to Toronto. John Glenn is unloading a car of salt and one of flour. Halloween was duly celebrated here. Mysterious masked visitors called at all the houses. Not only the young people participated in this amusement but some of the older folks who can rival Longboat on a mile run, when afraid of their identity being established.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in a few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just on application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at a drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff, no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. It eventually—why not now?

CITTA VECCHIA.

Malta's Ancient Capital a Constant Reminder of St. Paul.

The place where Publius, the chief man of Malta in St. Paul's day, lived is thought to be Citta Vecchia, the ancient capital. It lies near the center of the island, about midway between Valetta and St. Paul's bay, and is connected with Valetta by a railroad.

Here every turn reminds us of St. Paul. The principal square is called Piazza San Paolo, and here we find a fine cathedral, which is said to be built on the very site of the house of Publius. Entering the cathedral, we see a great image of St. Paul, covered with a silver cloth, a reminder by contrast perhaps of how little of that precious metal he was possessed of in his lifetime.

In a nearby suburb of Citta Vecchia is another church dedicated to St. Paul and named for him, which the inhabitants devoutly believe is built over the very grotto in which he lived during his three months on the island, and the catacombs of the grotto are also called after his name.

One striking monument to the apostle reminds every passing traveler of this wonderful story. In the bay of St. Paul is a tiny island called Selmun, and on this island is a towering statue of the apostle, which can be seen from far, a fit emblem of the colossal character which in all the ages since has so influenced and blessed the world.—Christian Herald.

SACRED NUMBERS.

Four and Forty Were Held in Reverence by the Ancients.

The number four was anciently esteemed the most perfect of all, being the arithmetical mean between one and seven. Omar, the second caliph, said, "Four things come not back—the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life, the neglected opportunity." In nature there are four seasons and the four points of the compass.

Forty, a multiple of four by ten, is one of the sacred numbers. The probation of our first parents in the garden of Eden is supposed to have been forty years. The rain fell at the deluge forty days and nights, and the water remained on the earth forty days. The days of embalming the dead were forty. Solomon's temple was forty cubits long. In it were ten lavers, each four cubits long and containing forty baths.

Moses was forty years old when he fled into the land of Midian, where he dwelt forty years. He was on Mount Sinai forty days and forty nights. The Israelites wandered in the wilderness forty years. The Saviour fasted forty days and nights before entering upon public life. The same time elapsed between the resurrection and the ascension.—Exchange.

Keep Gloom From Sickroom.

There ought to be some sort of a test for sickroom visitors. People who are just recovering from the throes of death and have the grim reaper's shoulders on the mat should not be placed at the mercy of the disconcerting, disheartening and depressing friends who gain admittance to the chamber under the guise of kindness. If some one can devise a way to detect the visitors who know of somebody who died of the patient's malady and stop them at the threshold, recoveries will be quicker and death-fever. In the absence of such a test the best kindness folks with grouches, hard luck tales and yaras of misery in their system can do for those in sickness is to stay away. Many a patient has spent days recovering from the effects of a ten minute visit by a misguided gloom spreader.—Detroit Free Press.

Lord Salisbury's Joke.

Count Miyatovich, former Servian minister, told in London the story of a meeting he once had with the late Lord Salisbury. "He was a brilliant man and a great statesman," he said. "A little cynical, he never lost an opportunity of having a laugh at one's expense, but in his laugh there was never a trace of any malice. In the interview I recounted my nation's history, when he seemed a little bored. At the end Lord Salisbury dryly remarked: 'I thank you, minister. Now I know what I did not know before—that you have a brilliant history. But, my dear friend, it would have been much better for the Serbs if you had a less brilliant history and a port on the Adriatic.'"

News in Olden Times.

Not many minutes after a statesman has finished a speech nowadays the news is selling in the streets and has been flashed to every capital in Europe.

It was different in the elections in the time of Pitt. He made a memorable speech one March, and the eager public only learned exactly what he said from the Gentleman's Magazine of the following November.—London Saturday Review.

The Real Toll.

"I used to practice five hours a day on the piano," said the musician. "You are through with that drug-dry now?" "Drug-dry? Those were times of restful leisure. Now I have to work fourteen hours a day giving lessons."—Washington Star.

All Foolish.

"Did you ever write a foolish love letter?" "I never wrote any love letters." "That is practically what I asked you."—Houston Post.

Don't let it ever be said that you are owing for the style you display. The jealous man always seeks to belittle the achievements of others. Some people are resigned because they are too lazy to be otherwise.

BATH.

Nov. 4.—The Bath Red Cross Society thanks the ladies who collected and those who generously donated the canned fruit in response to the appeal made by the society for the sick and wounded soldiers, the result of only a few days' canvass was most gratifying, 205 jars and $4 cash being brought in. Shipment was made on Oct. 29th to Toronto. Word has been received of its safe arrival and that the destination of contributions would be a Canadian hospital. Bales containing 107 hospital shirts and 52 pairs socks were also shipped on Oct. 21st.

Quite a number from the village attended the sale of David Smith at Conway on Wednesday last. The cool weather has caused our local coal dealer to get quite busy. Halloween passed off very quietly here, there being no damage done to property at all.

Lanark

SWITZERVILLE.

Nov. 4.—A Red Cross society has been organized with R. J. Brethen as president, Miss A. Wilson secretary, and Mrs. J. M. Spafford treasurer. Great interest is being shown by all in this great work. W. S. Herrington, Napanee, gave an illustrated lecture, "Canada's Part in the War," in the church on Tuesday evening. The proceeds, which amounted to $21, was in aid of the Red Cross. A number from here attended the anniversary services at Newburgh on Sunday, where a former minister, Rev. M. E. Sexsmith, preached. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Neville have been visiting friends in Toronto. The young people will give the drama, "The Minister's Bride," in the hall at Bath, Nov. 12th. Mrs. E. Switzer has been spending a few days at Kepler. R. J. Brethen and family spent Sunday at Hay Bay. Several of the young people spent an evening at the home of Miss Edna Amey before her removal to Kingston. J. M. Spafford motored to Elginburg on Sunday last. Miss Carrie Cowan, Napanee, spent a couple of weeks with her friend, Miss Jessie Empey. Miss Peters has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. Amey. Mrs. Switzer, Desmond, has been visiting at P. T. Empey's.

WOUNDED SOLDIER WRITES

Does Not Want to Come Home Until Job is Finished.

Just how much the Canadian boys appreciate all the acts of kindness shown them while overseas, is shown in letters which have been received by Mrs. George D. Dart, Jr., and daughter, of Smith's Falls, from "Jack" Payne. The latter was wounded, and the letters were written in hospital in England. He was wounded in his right arm, and was sent to London. For a time his arm was practically useless, but he was doing nicely. The letter was written on Oct. 20th, and he stated that he expected to leave the hospital at the end of the month to enter a convalescent home, there to remain until the doctors reported that he was fit for service again.

The writer returned sincere thanks to Mrs. Dart and her daughter, for the good things sent to him. "These things are like a drink of water to a dying man," he added. "I have travelled over Canada and the States ever since I was fifteen years of age, and I was never lonesome, but since I came out here I would give anything to get one more look at dear old Canada, and all the Canadians. I must feel the same way about it, and don't want to go back until we have finished our job."

NOT GOING TO ENGLAND.

Report Concerning the Governor-General Denied.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—A report has been in circulation that on account of the illness of the King, the Duke of Connaught would return to England to assist His Majesty. The report is, however, denied by the Duke's secretary. Some time ago it was suggested in the English press that the return of His Royal Highness to England would be advisable in order that he might take command of the home forces.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

The Seal has been set once and for all on the purity of SUNLIGHT SOAP.

SUNLIGHT SOAP is known by name throughout all the world, but not by name alone. Sunlight Soap is known by purity just as it is known by name. An established and guaranteed purity is ever associated with Sunlight Soap. The name and the guarantee are inseparable. They must ever remain so, because PURITY is the great soap essential. Cleansing means purification—without pure soap you cannot have perfect cleanliness—this stands to reason.

The $5,000 Guarantee of Purity given with every bar of Sunlight Soap is something more than an advertisement. It is a dominant force throughout the whole of the Sunlight Soap manufacture. To say that this guarantee is the dominant chord in the perfect harmony of the Sunlight Works would better express its influence.

The buyer who buys the choice Sunlight Soap materials—the soap boiler—the expert chemist—the girls who wrap and pack Sunlight Soap—all are mindful of the guarantee. The $5,000 Guarantee of Purity is a source of gratification to all the Sunlight workers.
