

ALLIES' SUCCESSES IN THE BALKANS CONTINUE

HAS KITCHENER STARTED FOR INDIA?

Reported There Is Unrest in That Country-- Behavior of Greece Said to Be Alarming Allies--Greece Wants Another Loan From Allies.

(Special to the Whig.) New York, Nov. 9.—An Associated Press despatch from Washington today says: "Earl Kitchener's ultimate mission during his mysterious absence from the British War Office is said to be India where British rule is confronted with a more serious state of general unrest than has been known outside of British official circles."

Through the thick veil which the British censorship has thrown about events in India and Egypt, comes the statement that Nawab, Sultan El Mulk, the Nizam of Hyderabad, one of most influential of the native princes, and a staunch supporter of the British, has been deposed by his people. This development, coming as one of the climaxes to successive reports of mutinies and unrest, many of which have been substantiated and admitted by the British Government, is said to be a leading reason for Earl Kitchener's departure from England.

Greece's Behaviour Bad.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 9.—The behaviour of Greece is beginning to alarm the Allies. Germanism is growing at Athens. Inside information to-day is that the Greeks may not even stay neutral. There are hints of an understanding with Bulgaria.

The people, perhaps, are still with Allies, but even this is not certain. Strong Court influence has been brought to bear, and unquestionably it has produced some impression. More than anywhere else it has been effective among the army officers.

Greece Wants More Money

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 9.—The Greek Government is reported to have appealed to the Allies for further financial assistance. The Government desires to obtain an additional advance of 40,000,000 francs ($8,000,000) and that this request is being considered sympathetically.

Serbs Damaged Railway.

(Special to the Whig.) Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—Damage done by the Serbs, before retreating to the Serbian section of the Oriental Railway is delaying the Germans in re-opening the line to Constantinople. Repairs are being made as rapidly as possible.

WILL OFFER AID IN END

Roumania Will Line Up With Entente Powers.

BELIEVES HER HELP

WILL DECIDE THE BATTLE IN THE BALKANS.

Roumania Cannot Inter-Russian Torpedo Boats—Warships Using Danubian Island Called No Man's Land For Their Base.

London, Nov. 9.—"Continued neutrality" is the answer spent Premier Brailiano, of Roumania, by the members of the Roumanian Parliament to his enquiry as to what in their judgment is the wisest course for the kingdom to pursue. A despatch to this effect was received here from Bucharest yesterday. The Premier is holding individual conferences with the Parliament members in order to gain a clear insight into the population's attitude prior to the coming session of the chamber. While the above view was expressed by those he has interviewed so far, the Premier has not yet completed his enquiries and he may still hear different views. The consensus of opinion here, however, is that the chief tendency in Roumania is for a continuation of her present policy.

Rome learns from Bucharest that the Roumanian Government, despite formal demands on the part of Austria and Germany, is powerless to seize and intern the crews of the three Russian torpedo boats in the Danube, which are threatening to attack Austrian lighters and to convey ammunition to Vidin for a possible Russian attack on Bulgaria. It is explained that the torpedo boats are using for their base a Danubian island called No Man's Land, situated opposite the city of Kalafat.

however, the despatch asserts, that Roumania, believing her aid will decide the most propitious moment to the Entente powers.

HAS BEEN SUNK.

(Special to the Whig.) Algiers, Nov. 9.—The Dacia, which was seized by a French cruiser last February while carrying a cargo of cotton from the United States to Germany, has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine.

Last Big Order For Munitions Sent by Wire

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The last of the new orders for munitions, aggregating $80,000,000, were sent out by wire yesterday to manufacturing firms in various parts of the Dominion. The Munitions Committee has been advised as to the capacity of all of them, and orders relative to capacity have been awarded. Every factory, large and small, capable of manufacturing munitions of war, is receiving orders. A wholesale manufacturer up to the greatest possibility of output by Canada in the shortest possible time has been thoroughly planned.

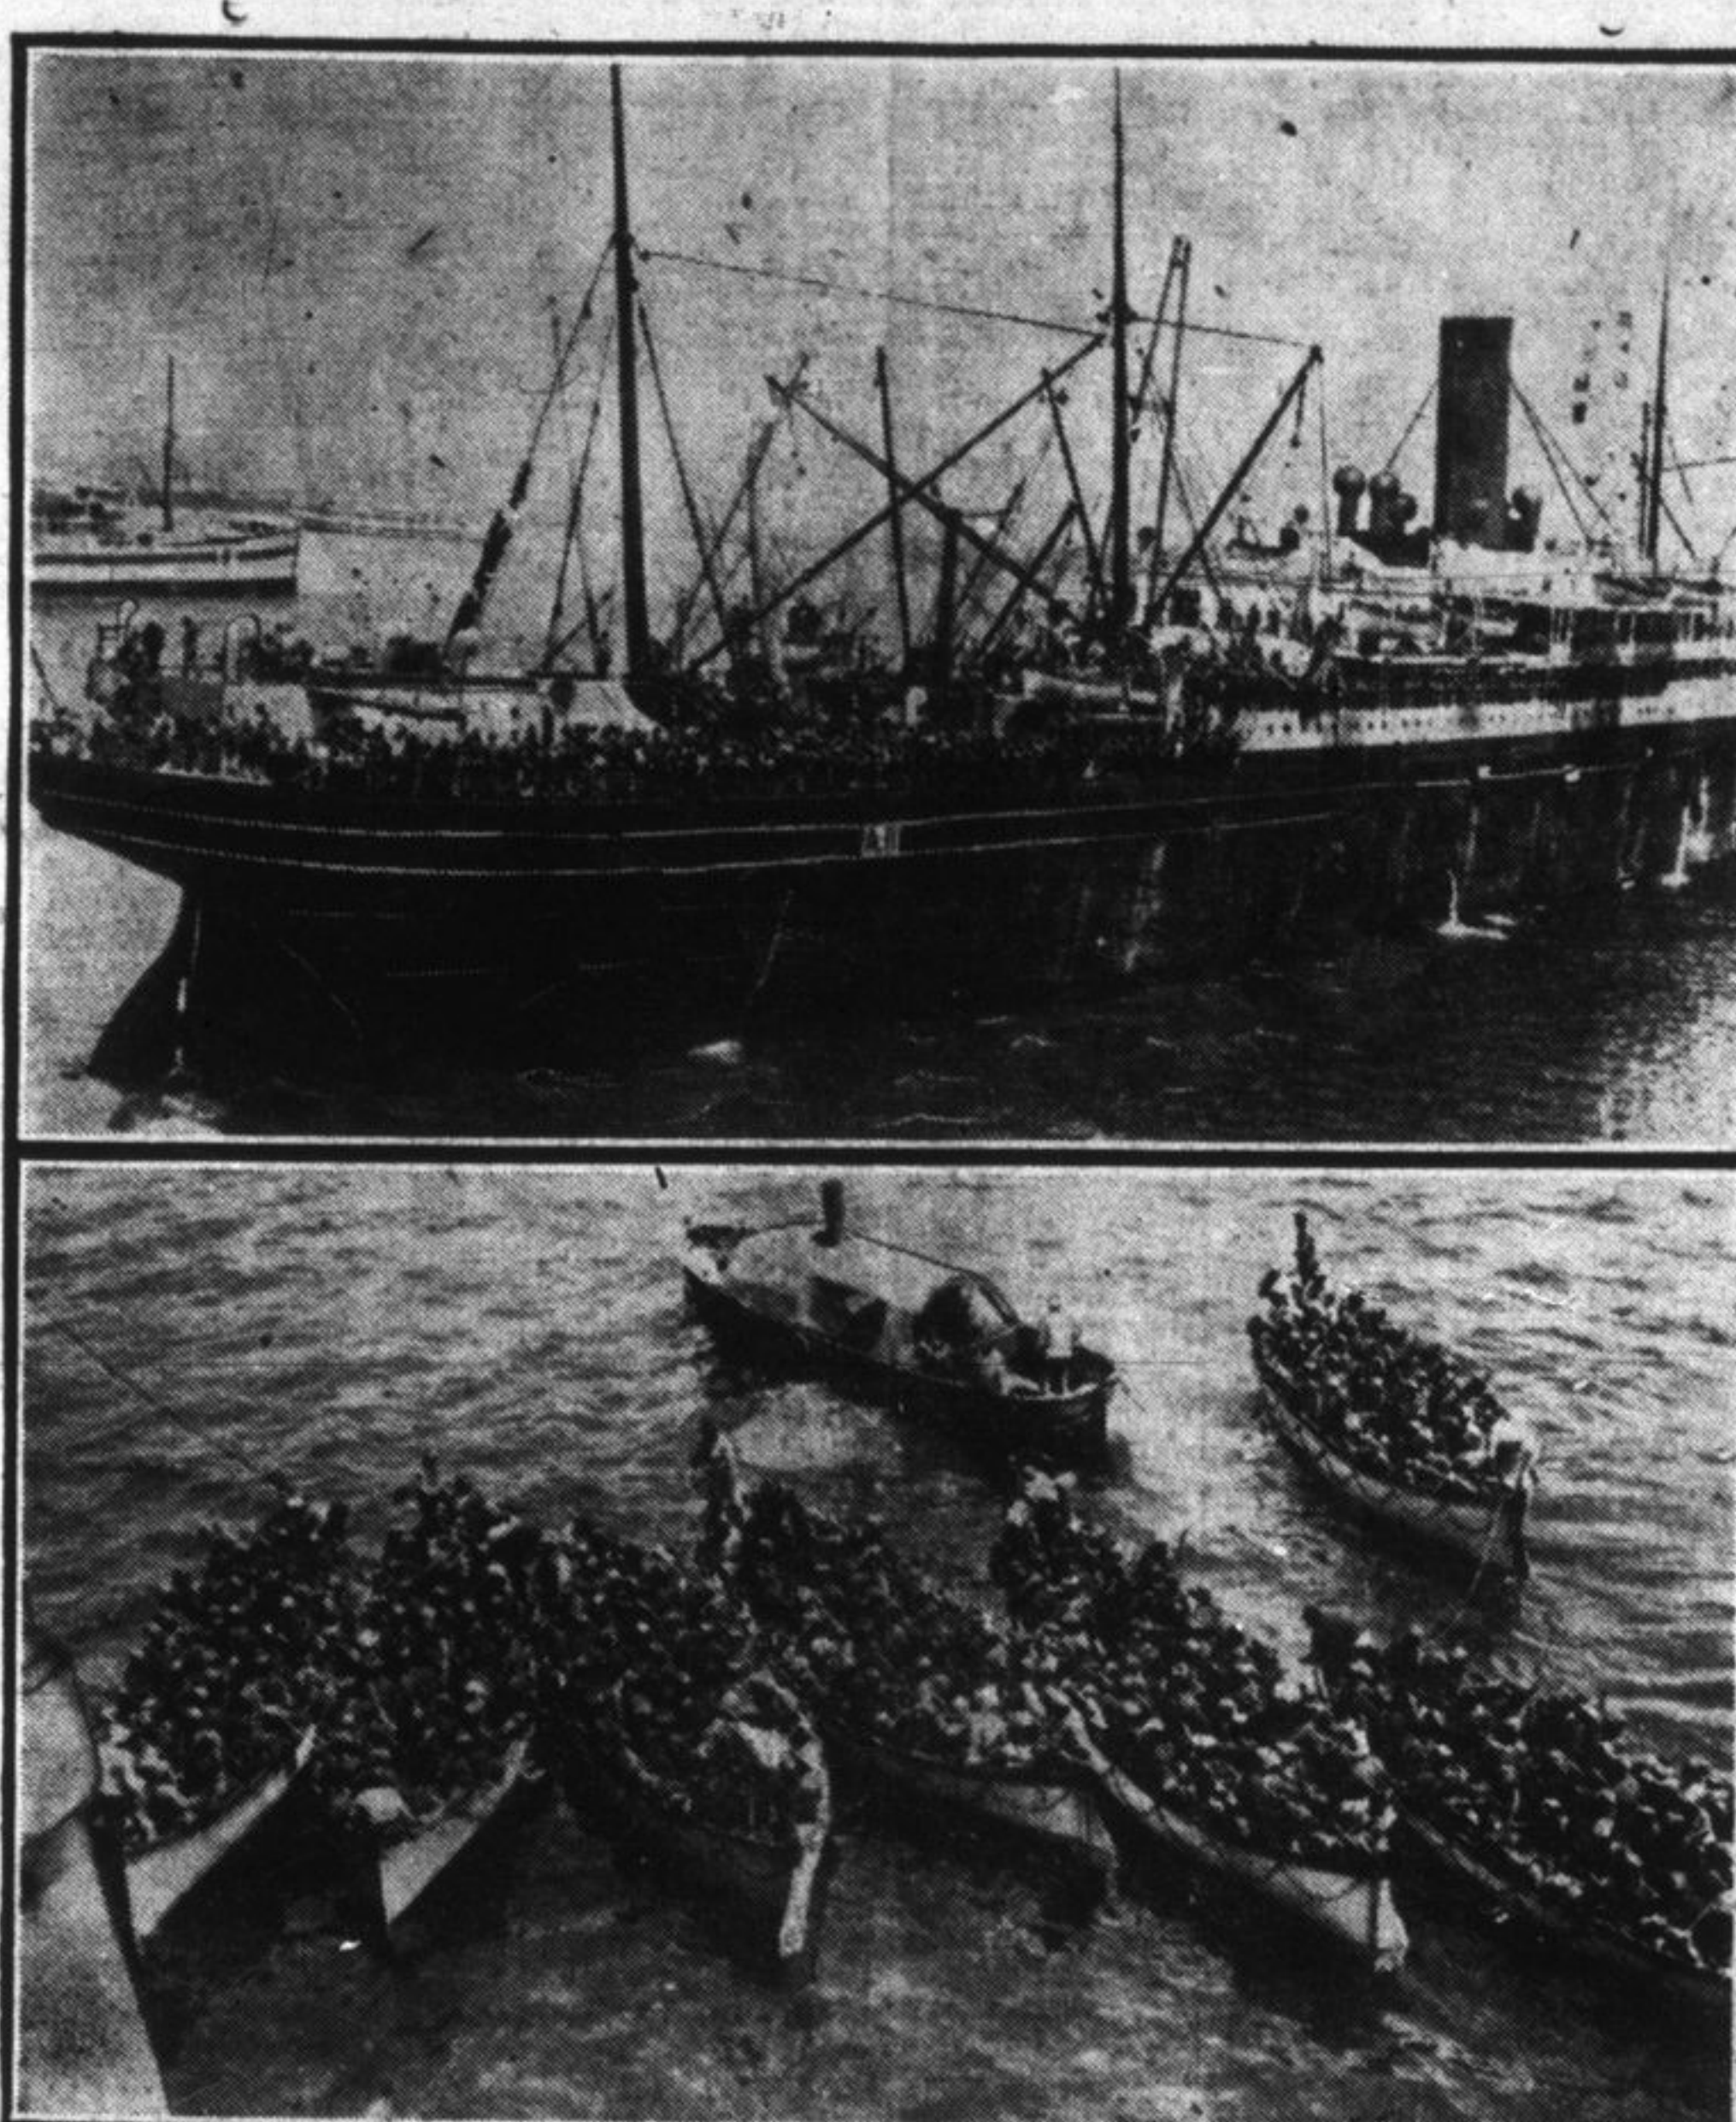

FITH OF NEWS.

Despatches From Near and Distant Places. The Toronto and York Patriotic Fund Association plans to raise $2,500,000 next year.

Allies Pushing The Bulgarians To Northward

(Special to the Whig.) Athens, Nov. 9.—The French and British are pushing the Bulgarians in southern Serbia steadily to the northward to-day. The Bulgars have made a number of attacks, but nowhere have they checked the Allies' advance. In attempting to accomplish this at Krivolak they lost very heavily.

PIERCE ENCOUNTERS.

On the Western Front—French Had the Advantage. (Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 9.—Pierce cannon fighting and savage encounters between advance guards were reported in the War Office official communiqué to-day.

War Alters Currents of Canada's Trade

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The effect of the war in changing the currents of Canadian trade is shown by the detailed trade figures just published. Comparative statistics of imports and exports for the first twelve months of the war and for the preceding twelve months. In the case of Great Britain Canada bought $39,182,000 less, and sold $32,767,000 more; in the case of the United States, Canada bought $33,145,000 more, and sold $72,531,000 more; imports from France increased by $7,562,000, while exports increased by $21,364,000. The United States became for the first time in some years our best customer, the total exports across the line aggregating $281,564,000, as compared with exports of $251,021,000 to Great Britain. Imports from the United States during the twelve months ending with August last totalled $406,947,000. Imports from Great Britain totalled only $75,123,000.

Films to Show What Canadians Did At Ypres

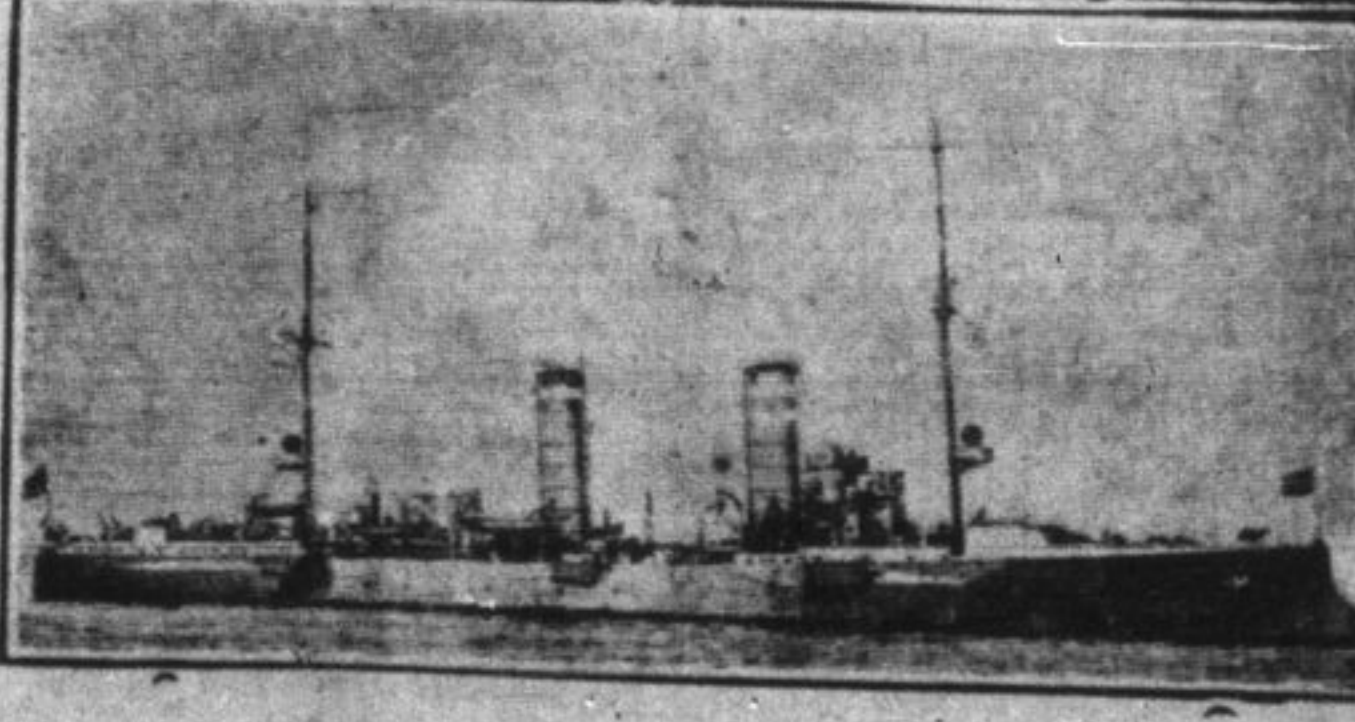

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—On the invitation of Sir Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, the Duke of Connaught and party, several Cabinet ministers, officers of the headquarters staff, and many other prominent citizens of Ottawa yesterday saw the first comprehensive moving pictures illustrating the part Canadians have taken in the war.

TO MAKE NEW LOAN.

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 9.—The Cabinet to-day authorized Finance Minister Ribot to introduce in the Chamber of Deputies a bill for another five per cent. loan and a measure taxing the profit of industries which have benefitted by the war.

30,000 Greeks Were Reviewed At Salonika

(Special to the Whig.) Salonika, Nov. 9.—Prince George of Greece showed the Allies to-day that his country has an army not to be despised. Thirty thousand perfectly equipped men, artillery, infantry and cavalry, passed in review before him on the water front here. The military display was in commemoration of Salonika's seizure by Greece from Turkey three years ago. British and French officers, soldiers and sailors, mingled in the watching crowds.

GERMAN CRUISER UNDIENE SUNK IN THE BALTIC.

80,000 RUSSIANS LAND IN BULGARIA

200,000 More May Go Through Roumania-- French Artillery And British Cavalry Demoralized Bulgars--Balkan Wars Child Play in Comparison.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 9.—Rome despatches say eighty thousand Russians have landed on the Bulgarian coast and two hundred thousand more will arrive by land if Roumania does not oppose them.

Bulgaria and Greece Friendly. (Special to the Whig.) Rome, Nov. 9.—Sofia despatches report a growing intimacy between Bulgaria and Greece. It is expected there that they will conclude an agreement for dismemberment of Serbia.

Demoralize The Bulgars. (Special to the Whig.) Rome, Nov. 9.—Bulgar prisoners taken at the Babuna fight in Serbia say the heavy French artillery demoralized the Bulgars as did also the British cavalry. The Balkan wars were child play comparatively, they say.

Found A Better Way. (Special to the Whig.) Rome, Nov. 9.—A forecast that Italy will send troops to Albania to aid the Serbians is contained in a semi-official note which says that while Italy did not participate in the recent expedition of the Allies to assist Serbia, she has found a better way to oppose the Austro-German-Bulgarian attack upon Serbia.

This way, the note says, was opened by the Bulgarians themselves when they threatened to invade Albania to reach the Adriatic, a decision so dangerous to Italy's interest that the "mere threat must oblige

Italy to take appropriate measures to frustrate it immediately."

It is Satisfactory. (Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 9.—Reports from the Serbian front represent the situation as satisfactory for the Allies. The French have reached Gradsko, on the railroad from Krivolak to Veles. The Bulgarian attack against Krivolak with heavy forces of infantry and artillery was repulsed, after which the French occupied the village of Komental.

On the Anglo-French front, north-west of Guevgeli, the advance of the Allies continues and the Bulgarians now occupy only the village of Carmandi in Serbian territory.

Hot Submarine War Expected. (Special to the Whig.) Paris, Nov. 9.—The hottest submarine campaign the war has yet seen is predicted by naval experts to-day in the vicinity of Salonika as soon as the German U-Boat fleet, known to be on its way through the Mediterranean, can reach Lavantine waters.

Their activities just inside the Strait of Gibraltar are taken to be merely incidents of the voyage and their attacks are expected to occur daily farther to the east against transports engaged in landing Allied forces on Greek, Bulgarian and Turkish Aegean Sea coast. What preparation the French and British have made for the visitors' reception is not known, but the French public takes it for granted that the probable inauguration of the Kaiser of this sort of fighting has not been left out of consideration.

BRITISH OCCUPY BAGDAD.

(Special to the Whig.) Rome, Nov. 9.—It is reported that British have occupied Bagdad. This is thought to be the most important event of the war because of the influence of the Moslem world.

FRANCO-BRITISH LINE

Runs Sixty Miles From Babuna to Strumitza. (Special to the Whig.) Athens, Nov. 9.—The Franco-British line in southern Serbia and south-western Bulgaria stretches about sixty miles, from Babuna Heights, Serbia, to a point south-east of Strumitza, Bulgaria. Fighting is in progress where the Bulgars' line crosses the Nish-Salonika railway.

Roumania is compelled to keep out of the war for the present by lack of means to secure munitions from the Allies, according to Bucharest despatches. An extremely heavy artillery battle is raging along the entire Austro-Montenegrin front.

GREKS AIDING ALLIES.

Facilitate Landing Operations By Giving Free Hand. Paris, Nov. 9.—A despatch from Athens says that by agreement with the local authorities the Entente Allies will construct a jetty and make a new road at Salonika to facilitate communication between the wharves and the railway terminus. The authorities have also given the Entente Allies permission to use part of the wharves to land troops when the wharves are not required for Greek transports.

THREE MORE STEAMSHIPS.

Sent To the Bottom By German Submarines. (Special to the Whig.) London, Nov. 9.—The destruction of two more British and one Japanese steamships by German submarines, was announced to-day by the Admiralty. The British vessels are given as the Buresk and Glenmore and the Japanese as the Yasukuni Maru. The crew were all saved. The Admiralty does not state where any of the incidents occurred.

Cut Time, So Price Jumps. Walkerton, Nov. 9.—Because of the eight o'clock closing hotelkeepers have advanced prices. Sealed whiskey is increased 10c to 15c per glass and beer glasses are shorter.

The Anglican Church and one of the public schools, Port Colborne were burned to the ground.
