

NEWS ABOUT TROOPS QUARTERED IN CITY

The growth of the work of the Militia Department in the city is being taken care of by using several buildings. The work of supplying uniforms and equipment is keeping a large staff busy, and for the extra stock kept on hand the Crawford Broom factory building on King street has been taken over for Ordnance stores. The rooms formerly used by the Kingston Canoe Club or Toy's bakery on King street have been taken over as quarters for the officers attending the Provisional School of Infantry, the lectures for which will be given in Ontario Hall.

An Ottawa despatch says: "Head-quarters, Kingston has called for one entire battery of artillery from Ottawa. One hundred and twenty-five men are wanted, and recruiting for these will be carried on immediately. The wish has been expressed that the battery could be mobilized and trained for a time at least. The artillery is a popular arm of the service, and the marching squad in artillery uniforms is no small incentive to those who are undecided."

A despatch from Belleville says: "The arrival of the 30th Battalion nearly an hour ahead of time Monday upset all calculations. Belleville intended to give a welcome to 'A' and 'B' Companies and Col. Ketcheson and the officers on their entering winter quarters here and citizens expected to meet the soldiers at one o'clock. But the regiment arrived at 12:30 p.m. instead of 1 p.m. By 12:30 Col. Ketcheson's stalwart officers and men had reached Front street. What citizens were on the street extended a hearty reception to the soldiers at Barrieffield. They proceeded at once to the barracks, Pinnacle street, which they at once entered."

Major E. C. Barrett, O. C. 5th Field Battery, besides being a very active recruiting officer is keeping the honored name of the 5th Battery alive by the number of lieutenants and N. C. O.'s who are with the battery and going overseas.

In the present Royal School of Artillery course there are eight provisional lieutenants qualifying for the rank as well as eight N. C. O.'s. Their names are: Lieuts. J. L. Williams, 159 University avenue, and L. W. Gill, Queen's University; C. R. Hagey, Brantford; H. A. Wickett, Toronto; A. L. Wilson, Picton; Earle Simmons, Princess street; D. G. Anglin, Johnson street, and G. R. Sinclair, city.

The names of the sergeants are: G. Sleeman, 156 Frontenac street; A. L. Malley, Deseronto; R. H. Ferguson, 370 Brock street; Wilkinson, New Brunswick; S. E. Prouse, Aylmer; E. Harris, Queen's University; P. A. Wood, 32nd C. E. F. Battery; and Mr. Laturney, 195 Frontenac street.

The 32nd, 33rd and 34th Batteries are now comfortably located in the Dry-Dock Barracks. The building is a large dry and sanitary one and arrangements for the men are splendid. The first floor is lined with long tables which are used by the men at meal times as dining tables and at other times for reading and writing purposes. In one corner are two shoe-shipping chairs run by Simpson Brothers. In another corner is a canteen run by the batteries, the proceeds of which go to buy small extras for the men. The cooking rooms are in the basement.

The first floor above the main floor is used by the 32nd Battery. The office formerly used by the Cereals Ltd., is now used by the battery as an orderly office for Lieut.-Col. E. C. Arnoldi, supervisor of the training of the battery, and by Capt. D. E. Bell, Medical Officer. The doctor was busily engaged in inoculating recruits on Tuesday morning.

The third floor is used by the 34th Battery as there is more accommodation on this floor and owing to the splendid recruiting capacity of this battery more room is necessary. There are 22 men on this floor and recruits are still coming who can not be taken care of until more bunks are built.

The 33rd Battery has the sky-parlor which, though slightly smaller, is brighter than the other floors. The view from the top of this building is a complete survey of the lake 15 miles, as well as the surrounding country.

The fire protection arrangements are all that could be desired. Large fire escapes have been erected, and every floor has an entrance to the fire escape, two pairs of stairs to the floor below, and between the 33rd and 34th Battery floors is a pole as used in fire halls.

The training of the artillerymen is taking place on the cricket field for foot drill, at Artillery Park for gun drill, and the Riding School for equitation.

At Barrieffield Camp an orderly officer was appointed by roster each day, and his duties were to remain in camp for the full twenty-four hours. The necessity of three officers remaining all night at the Dry Dock Barracks has been overcome by the appointment of one orderly officer, Lieut. Webster, 34th Battery, was the first brigade orderly officer, and had charge of the building on Tuesday.

Capt. Ord, 34th Battery, is in Toronto and Lieut. Johnston is in Montreal. Lieut. Johnston is recovering from an injured foot which he received in a Rugby practice.

Ten recruits arrived from different points for the 33rd Battery on Tuesday.

There are two pianos in the Dry Dock Barracks for the entertainment of the men, and already the thought of concerts in the winter evenings is being expressed.

Capt. the Rev. W. F. FitzGerald visits the Dry Dock Barracks every day in his capacity of chaplain.

THE BELGIAN CONCERT

IN GRANT HALL MONDAY NIGHT LARGELY ATTENDED.

The Programme By Artists of International Reputation Was Greatly Enjoyed—Four Belgians in the Stellar Concert Group.

The concert given in Grant Hall on Monday night, with one exception by Belgian artists, in aid of the Belgian sufferers through the terrible war, was attended by a large audience, which listened with great pleasure to the splendid musical programme presented by the artists of international reputation. To the patronage of H. I. H. the Princess Clementine Napoleon and the Lord Mayor of London, England, was added that of Queen's Theological Alumni Association, in session at the university, which included the concert in its programme of the week. Mayor Sutherland arranged all the local details, and there would have been a much larger audience had His Worship been notified a week earlier that the concert was assured for Kingston. As it was, the Mayor was notified only a few days ago, and the arrangements had to be hurriedly made.

No more brilliant group of musical artists has been heard in Kingston in a long time than the "Cercle Esperanza," which includes Mlle. Oct. Belloy, soprano of the Antwerp Opera House; Mlle. Daisy Jean, cellist Brussels Royal Conservatoire and Concerts, Ostend; Mlle. Gabr. Radoux, professor Royal Antwerp Conservatoire; Willis Flanagan, tenor, Italian Opera, and Jan Collignon, first bass-baryton, Antwerp Opera House and Concerts, Ostend.

Mlle. Gabr. Radoux, who figured in every number as a brilliant accompanist and pianist. Her two solo selections, "Caprice Brilliant" and "Papillons," both by Olsen, were skillfully executed.

The cellist, Mlle. Daisy Jean, played "Concerto" (Servals), "Recueillement" and "Tarentelle," the latter two by Poppo. Many cellists have been heard in Kingston, but none could eclipse the Belgian artist, who won the warm applause of the large audience, who greatly enjoyed her playing.

Mlle. Oct. Belloy captivated the audience with her rich dramatic soprano voice. Her singing of "La Reine de Saba" (Gounod) was magnificent. Other numbers given by Mlle. Belloy were "Calliope," "Le Cid" (J. Massenet), and "L'Enchanteur de Séville." Besides these she sang two duets, Verdi's "Miserere" (Il Trovatore), with Mr. Flanagan, and "Hamlet" (Ambr. Thomas) with Mlle. Collignon. Both these operatic renditions were superbly sung.

Mons. Jan Collignon has a magnificent bass-baryton voice, and his rendition of "O Palerme," Aria Vespere Stelliennes (Verdi) and "La Liberté," made a great hit with the audience. One of his encore songs was "L'Assommoir."

Willis Flanagan can sing Italian as well as Irish, but his songs in his own tongue were appreciated the better. "In An Old-Fashioned Town," "Absent," and "Mother, Macree," were sung in a sweet, tender voice. Mr. Flanagan possesses a voice of great power as well as sweetness.

The concert concluded with the singing of the Belgian anthem by Mlle. Belloy, and "O Canada" by Mlle. Collignon, the audience standing the while, followed by "God Save the King."

The concert netted $327.50 for the Belgian fund. Mayor Sutherland suggested to the manager of the company, August Pheelen, that he arrange for a return concert here during the winter, and this may be done by the end of February, 23rd and 27th on the return of the artist from San Francisco. Mr. Pheelen and the company were delighted with Kingston and the Grant Hall audience. They remarked upon the attentiveness of the audience and upon the fact that it showed its keen enjoyment of the programme. They also want a return visit from the company. The C. P. R. has given the members of the company free transportation on all its lines in Canada.

Lieut. W. B. McTaggart, 3rd Brigade, C. F. A., slightly wounded, has returned to duty. He is a graduate of the Royal Military College, and was a lieutenant in the 31st Battery Canadian Field Artillery.

TURN OVER TIME

When Nature Hints About the Food. When there's no relish to food and all that one eats doesn't seem to do any good then is the time to make a turnover in the diet, for that's Nature's way of dropping a hint that the food isn't the kind required.

"For a number of years I followed a diet of a trying nature. Meal times were our busiest; and eating too much and too quickly of food such as is commonly served in hotels and restaurants, together with the sedentary habits, were not long in giving me dyspepsia and stomach trouble which reduced my weight from 205 to 160 pounds.

"There was little relish in any food and none of it seemed to do me any good. It seemed the more I ate the poorer I got and was always hungry before another meal, no matter how much I had eaten.

"Then I commenced a trial of Grape-Nuts food, and was surprised how a small saucer of it would carry me along, strong and with satisfied appetite, until the next meal, with no sensations of hunger, weakness or distress as before.

"I have been following this diet now for several months and my improvement has been so great all others in my family have taken up the use of Grape Nuts with complete satisfaction and much improvement in health.

"Most people eat hurriedly, have lots of worry, thus hindering digestion, and therefore need a food that is predigested and concentrated in nourishment."

"There's a Reason."

The Cherniavskys To-night.

No matter what important paper one picks up, something is sure to be written there concerning Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky, the great Russian violinist, pianist and cellist. The Daily Telegraph says: "Certainly their gifts, whether considered collectively or singly, may be reckoned remarkable, and Saturday's audience expressed this view in no lukewarm manner." These exceptional gifts of the Russians will appear to-night in the Opera House, and as they are the talk of the city, there is no doubt whatsoever that they are going to establish a record here.

By following this suggestion any woman can, in the privacy of her own home, remove every trace of hair or fuzz from her face: With powdered delatone and water mix enough paste to cover the not wanted hairs; apply and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off and wash the skin. This method is unfeeling, harmless and quick in results, but care should be employed to get the genuine delatone.
