ENFRANCHISE WOMEN AS MEMORIAL TO MISS CAVELL

If Action is Not Taken, He Will Know Her Heroism Was in Vain.

London, Nov. 8.—In a little over a fortnight nearly $40,000 has been subscribed to the newspaper funds for the erection of a national memorial for Edith Cavell. It is proposed to place a statue of the nurse near Trafalgar Square, and also to erect a Cavell Home for Nurses, George Bernard Shaw, however, in the following statement, suggests a much more lasting memorial.

"As what Nurse Cavell did and suffered was done for us, it is right and natural she should be a heroine to us, and it would be disgraceful of us to dishonor her memory by cinematographic claptrap or merely to break her coffin into sticks to beat Germans with."

"There is a way in which we can pay the debt to her and test the sincerity of her loudest champions. We cannot complain of denial to her by military law, because we have shot ten people ourselves, without any of those safeguards, under the same law."

"We cannot plead her sex, because our own criminal law, civil and military, makes no distinction between men and women, and no woman asks it should any more than Edith Cavell did."

"We cannot vapor about chivalry, because if she had come back alive to demand political rights granted the meanness of men, and had broken a shop window to compel attention to her claim, she would have been mobbed, insulted, and subjected to gross physical violence with the full approval of many of the writers who are now canonizing her."

"What we can do is very simple, we can enfranchise her sex in recognition of her proof of its valor."

"A bill might gracefully be introduced by Mr. McKenna in commons and by Viscount Gladstone in the House of Lords."

"If this proposal is received in dead silence I shall know that Edith Cavell's sacrifice has been rejected by her country."

THE QUEEN'S BATTERY

HAD ITS FIRST DRILL ON MONDAY EVENING.

Under Capt. L. W. Gill—There Were Fifty On Parade—Uniforms Not Yet Issued.

Queen's University Heavy Oversea Battery had its first drill on Monday evening on Queen's lower campus under Capt. L. W. Gill and Lieut. Elmer and Rogers. There were about 50 men on parade and the officers expressed themselves as highly pleased with the recruiting efforts. If the remainder of the battery is composed of as good a type the battery will undoubtedly be the best in the Expeditionary Force.

The drilling will now be done in two parades at 7 a.m. and 2 p.m. As soon as the necessary arrangements are completed the battery will go into quarters in the Old Collegiate building. It is unlikely that uniform will be issued before that time.

Capt. L. W. Gill is attending the Royal School of Artillery.

"C" Squadron, C. M. R., now comfortably quartered in the Artillery Park dormitories and will continue to be there until the Depot Regiment is mobilized in Hamilton. The men were given a short route-march through the streets on Tuesday morning.

Major Stroud is accepting only the very best of recruits, as the squadron is now up to strength. The squadron has the unique record of having had in three weeks only two men charged with offences. Both were discharged, as their previous record was taken into consideration. Major Stroud has a right to be proud of his squadron.

Major S.A. McKenzie, 32nd Battery, has been on the sick list, but was able to be on duty again on Tuesday afternoon.

Major Sears, 33rd Battery has returned from leave. Capt. Gill has been acting as officer commanding.

The 59th Battalion left Barriefield Camp on Tuesday afternoon and marched to the Armouries where it will remain for a few days until quarters can be arranged at Brockville and Cornwall for its reception. The men have all been issued with rubber sheets and heavy blankets, and will sleep on the floor of the Armouries. Temporary arrangements for washing and for the offices of the battalion have been completed.

Get "Smokes" For Birthday. Mrs. George Phillips, 37 Clarence street, has received a letter from her two sons at the front, in which they return thanks for cigars and cigarettes which were sent to them for their birthday. The boys stated that they had received no letter from their mother for a long time, but she has written four letters this month, and also sent a parcel. The boys are well.

The news of the death of Pte. Aikens came as a great shock to the members of his family and friends, as it was not known that he had been wounded. It was understood that he died several hours after he was struck by shrapnel shells. A letter received from Nursing Sister K. Stewart, in which she stated that he suffered from shrapnel wounds in his back, legs and thigh, and that loss of blood had caused his death.

The late Pte. Aikens was born in this city, and for some time was a clerk in the liquor store of Bigney & Hickey. He was also employed for a time with the American Express Company. He was popular among his friends, and his death was learned with sincere regret. The members of the family will have the sympathy of the entire community extended to them in their bereavement. He is survived by his father, three brothers, James, driver at Waldron's store; Edward, driver for Fenwick & Hendry; Francis, a member of the Home Guard, and one sister, Margaret, at home.

Members of the family cannot account for the long delay in the recording of the death.

Home Office Is Watching All Emigrants

Liverpool Nov. 9.—Following the decision of the Cunard and White Star Lines not to book emigrants of militant age, the American Line is considering the subject, and will issue a statement soon.

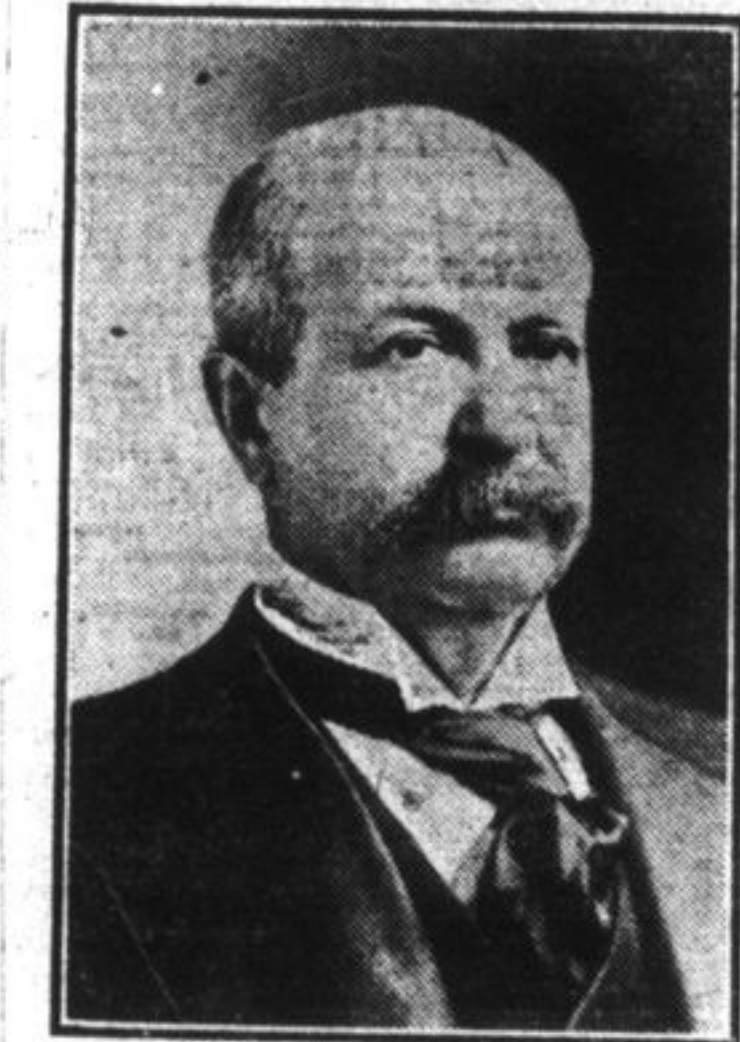

The American Line has booked 2,000 passengers, mostly men of military age, for the next two sailings of its ships.

The Home Office has issued an order that male British subjects aged from nineteen years upwards wishing to book passage must apply to the Foreign Office for passports. The order is effective immediately.

It was stated in a protest meeting in Liverpool yesterday that passage money for Irish emigrants was being paid by German-Americans, Germans and German sympathizers.

Urges Ending Of War. London, Nov. 9.—In the House of Lords yesterday Baron Courtney of Penwith, well known as a peace advocate, said the Government should show itself ready to accept any suggestions which would end the war, concluding, however, that the Germans must agree to evacuate Belgium and France, and that no indemnity should be demanded on Great Britain.

MAYOR THANKS WHIG

The Whig received the following letter from Mayor Sutherland:

"I wish to thank you for the very hearty and cordial support extended to the Management Committee and myself who had in charge the Esperanza Concert for the relief of Belgian sufferers. I recognize fully it was largely through the efforts of the local press that we were enabled on such short notice to attain the success we did. Yours faithfully, R. D. SUTHERLAND, Mayor."

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

The programme of vaudeville and pictures presented at the Grand last night delighted one of the biggest houses of the season. Marguerite Clark appeared in the photo-production of the celebrated trans-Atlantic comedy success, "Seven Sisters." The other pictures shown were a two-reel universal photoplay, "Diana of Eagle Mountain," a comedy picture, "His Lucky Vacation," and the Pathe News showing some of the latest war pictures and the latest styles. The vaudeville included Miss Juanita Fletcher, who again delighted the large audience with her singing. Some of her songs were "Machusa," "Keep the Camp Fires Burning," and "In the Gloaming." The other act consisted of Bert and Lottie Walter in a singing and dancing act that pleased. This same bill will be repeated on Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The Strand Theatre.

The bill for Tuesday evening consists of "Charlie Chaplin" in his latest success, "The Woman," in two big reels of riot and fun. Owing to the great demand for "Chaplin" features the management could only secure the latest Essanay release for two days. In addition a four-part Broadway feature, "The Way Back," featuring "Miriam Nesbit" and an all-star cast, and other good photo plays will be shown. "The Way Back" will also be shown on Wednesday, along with a two-part Nestor comedy and other good reels.

At Griffin's.

"The Final Settlement," as played in Griffin's Theatre on Monday by "Joe" N. Machan's Associate players, is as good a play as has ever been played by a stock company in this city. The plot itself is a wonderful composition, and the players did their work in a manner that was above criticism. The cast is as follows: Joe N. Machan, Frank Lawler, L. E. Perrin, Peter Doyle, James A. Shadick and Misses Marie Laurans, Julienne Talbot and Rosalind Machan. This cast is composed of all highly capable players, who are sure to please large audiences all week.

No Class To-Night.

The 69th Battalion took possession of the Armouries Tuesday, and so there will be no weekly 14th training class to-night. The 14th officers have no intention of letting the classes drop and they will be continued as soon as another suitable drilling place can be secured. The skating rink may be available next week, and in any case the 59th will only have the Armouries until it is transferred to Cornwall and Brockville.

To Conduct Examinations.

All summer at Barriefield Camp, Lieut.-Col. Thomson, of the Royal Military College staff, gave lectures to the officers, and on Friday afternoon next Lieut.-Col. W. G. Brown, G.S.O., and Col. Thomson will conduct examinations for field officers. The officers from the 77th Battalion and possibly another officer will also be examined.
