CLIPPED FROM THE WHIG'S MANY BRIGHT EXCHANGES.

In Brief Form the Events in the Country About Kingston Are Told—Full of Interest to Many.

Surgeon-Major Bowie, Brockville, is now surgeon-in-chief at Moore Barracks Canadian Hospital at Shorncliffe.

At Carleton Place Miss Laura Anderson was engaged on the Public School staff, engagement to date from January 1st, 1916.

The ladies of Maitland raised $47.45 through a patriotic entertainment held in the village hall. The money will be used for necessaries for the soldiers.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the English Church rectory, Roslin, on Saturday, the contracting parties being Ernest English and Miss Isabelle Weir.

Mrs. J. F. Armstrong, a former well known resident of Brockville, passed away on Wednesday at her home in Cornwall, after an illness of some months' duration.

Peter Whiteluck, Indian, charged with the brutal murder of Robert E. Coxford, jailer, on November 30th last year, is on trial at Pembroke.

Edward Bowerman showed a good-sized pickerel caught while trolling between Forester's Island and town. It was 3 ft. 1 1/2 inches long and weighed 15 pounds.

Francis McManus, aged 102 years, died at his residence in the village of Maitland on Wednesday. The deceased was a cooper by trade, and had resided in Maitland for about seventy years. His wife died many years ago.

In Belleville on Thursday William Thomas Shane and Miss Bertha Morgan were united in matrimony. The happy pair were attended by John Tanner, Belleville, and Miss Phoebe Ethel Stratton, Shannonville. They will reside in Belleville.

The war spirit has seized the town of Pembroke and it is said on good authority that some 600 men are going or have gone from the town itself. This is considered pretty good owing to the fact that about 35 per cent of the population are of German extraction.

Joseph Stanzel, Ashton, met with an accident while moving his threshing mill. Dropping a live, he jumped down to pick it up, when he slipped and the front wheel of the separator passed over his foot, giving it a bad wound, with the result that he had to go home, and he is going around with the aid of crutches.

Trenton Gave $6,806. Trenton, Nov. 12.—The canvass for the National Patriotic Fund here resulted in a total of $6,866.

ALMONTE ORANGEMEN.

Dedicated New Hall With Great Edat.

Almonte, Nov. 11.—The dedication of the new Orange Hall, which has been entirely remodeled and refitted, took place here, over 200 Orangemen being present. A public meeting was afterwards held in the town hall at which suitable addresses were delivered by Mr. Becken, of Toronto, Editor of the Orange Sentinel, Mr. McLean, Grand Master for Eastern Ontario and Mr. Munroe, also of Toronto. There was a large attendance. All the addresses were in a patriotic vein and Mr. McLean said that if the members were unfit or unable to go to the front it was their duty to take their part in supporting the families of those who had gone and to aid in subscriptions to the Red Cross and Patriotic funds. After the public meeting a banquet was held in the hall for the entertainment of the visiting officers, members of the order, and their friends. Suitable addresses were delivered and an excellent supper was served.

The Late Kate McNeill.

Deseronto, Nov. 12.—An aged and highly respected lady of a generation fast passing away, Miss Catherine McNeill, Deseronto, known among her many friends as "Kitty," passed peacefully away Nov. 6th, at the ripe age of eighty-three. She was one of a family of nine, her father, Archibald McNeill, being the first magistrate of Napanee, where she was born on April 18th, 1832. Mrs. James Wilson, her youngest sister and sole surviving member of her family, lived with her on Dundas street for twenty-six years.

A Costly Mistake.

Arnprior, Nov. 12.—A short time ago a commercial traveller, when leaving Arnprior, took a suit case belonging to another traveller. He was arrested at Montreal and brought back, when he claimed he had taken the suit case in mistake, without being as diligent in finding the rightful owner, however. It cost him about $75 to settle the matter.

of the form of a "gift night." Gifts were collected and will be sent overseas to Capt. H. E. Pense, for distribution among the members. The members spent a pleasant time together, in a social way, and during the evening a fine programme was rendered, and refreshments were served. The programme included orchestral selections by Messrs. Henry McAuley, Salisbury Bros., Smith and James Saunders, solos by Mrs. J. Evans, Miss Florence Vallean, J. D. Bankier, William Mack; recitations by Miss Violet Posselwhite and C. Smith, and violin solos by Master Pelham Richardson. At the close of this programme, a number of old time selections were given by various members, which were very highly appreciated. Bert Couper acted as accompanist.

How to Save Money.

If there is a better way of doing your work, a way that will cost less in money or require less labor, you are losing something if you do not know of it.

That knowledge is available for you, in fact every effort is made to induce you to acquire it, through the advertising columns. If you do not take advantage of that information by reading the advertisements, you are neglecting opportunities that might benefit you very materially. You may not have immediate use for all the things advertised, but it is more than probable that you will see something to meet your personal and particular requirements.

Read the advertisements regularly.
