

GIFTS FOR OVERSEAS ARE DOING THEIR BIT

HEAVY MAIL EXPECTED FOR BOYS AT THE FRONT.

Christmas Shopping Has Already Commenced In Kingston—Merchants Would Appreciate Having Shopping Started Early.

Already a large batch of gifts has been mailed for Kingston boys at the front, and judging by the number of inquiries about parcels going overseas, the Kingstonians on the firing line will be well remembered.

In the course of a few days, a box packed by members of the local branch of Young People's Societies will be on its way overseas. The box will contain a gift for every Kingston man who is a member of the 21st Battalion.

With the usual Christmas business and the rush overseas, it is expected that the post office staff will be very busy.

Christmas is but six weeks off, and already quite a number of people have commenced to do their shopping. The merchants would appreciate very much having the shopping started as early as possible, as it would relieve the stress which always comes in the last few days.

In Ottawa and other places, a "shop early" movement has been started, and women in large numbers are taking part in the movement and not only endeavoring to get all their shopping done early, but are also endeavoring to get other women to do the same.

The early shoppers will certainly get the best choice of goods, and this should be considered.

TREITSCHKE AND THE STATE.

Discussed By Prof. Jordan Before Queen's Students.

Before a fairly large audience at Queen's University, Prof. W. G. Jordan read a paper entitled "Treitschke and the State," at the regular meeting of Queen's Philosophical Society, on Monday afternoon.

He showed, clearly that the views of Treitschke, who was a student of political economy, and later a professor at Berlin, were strictly German. Treitschke was a German extremist and held that power was might, that this power could be obtained by a great army, and that war was glorious, because "might was right," and it was the duty of each German to obtain this might or die. He also showed that the view of the German was that Prussian powers was the only power and that it must be pushed forth at any cost; that treaties and marine laws were nothing more than momentary mental condition and could be broken at will.

At the close of Prof. Jordan's paper, Dr. Watson spoke a few words in which he summed up Treitschke as follows: (1) The state is power; (2) This state is Prussia; (3) This power is Prussian power; (4) Kaiser William is the mouthpiece of this state; (5) Treaties amount to nothing.

Prof. Scott in a few remarks said he could not understand how Treitschke could get his people to believe all his teachings.

It is apparent that Col. Connell is only on leave as yet, and that his resignation has not been accepted. It may be two weeks longer before he arrives here. He reached England from Cairo, Egypt, on November 6th.

KINGSTON BOYS WRITE FROM OVERSEAS.

"Jack" Mills Says His Company May Be Sent to Serbia or Egypt—Letter From Ptes. Harold and C. F. Smith. Pte. Harold Smith, who is serving in Belgium, writing on October 26th, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, 36 York street, states that he is well, and that they are getting a lot of rain, but making the best of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith received a letter from their other son, Pte. C. F. Smith, of the 8th C. M. R., in camp at Hants, England. He is well, and states that he is getting lots of drill. He says they have a good camp, but there has been a great deal of rain. On the day the letter was written (Oct. 30th), however, it was like a day in June. Pte. Smith is looking forward to a pleasant visit to London shortly.

The writer states that there is a report that they are to be sent to Egypt, on patrol duty. He says that one of the destroyers that accompanied the steamship on which they made the trip overseas was sunk on its way back by a submarine.

Letter From "Jack" Mills. Thomas Nash, of the College Book Store, has received a letter from "Jack" Mills, from "Somewhere in France," dated Oct. 30th. He says the boys look with much interest for the arrival of the Kingston newspaper. He states that "Billy" Nickle left his company, having been granted a commission.

"When we came out of the trenches we marched ten miles to billets, in which we stayed a week," says the writer. "Then we were on the march again, going sixteen miles last Sunday and twelve on Monday. We are in comfortable billets here, and are not worked hard. It is rumored that we are going to Serbia or Egypt, and most of us are inclined to believe so. We are not practising trench warfare during drill hours, but instead are spending our time practising the attack as it was before the Germans introduced trench warfare.

GOT PAIR OF SOCKS.

Pte. "Jack" Kay Sent Letter to Mrs. Marshall Armstrong.

Some few months ago, Mrs. Armstrong, wife of Police Constable Marshall Armstrong, and her daughter, knitted a pair of socks which they sent overseas. Just to see who would get the socks, they put a ticket on them, with their name and address. Pte. "Jack" Kay, of the 21st Battalion, got the socks and Mrs. Armstrong has just received a letter thanking her and her daughter for the kind gift, stating that the socks were certainly appreciated.

At the Hotel Dieu, Leo Murphy, Joyceville, passed away on Monday. Mr. Murphy, while threshing at a neighbor's, Thomas McCarey's, last Tuesday, complained of a soreness on the side of his nose, but did not think it serious. The trouble developed into blood-poisoning, and Mr. Murphy was removed to the Hotel Dieu last Friday.

He leaves to mourn his sudden death a wife (formerly Miss McBride) and one child, also two brothers, Joseph and Stanson, one sister, Mrs. A. Donnelly, and his mother, who is the widow of the late John Murphy. The funeral will take place to St. Barnaby's Church, Brewer's Mills, on Thursday morning.
