Kingston Nurse Gets a Chance to Come Home

Miss Florence MacCallum, who went overseas with Queen's Stationary Hospital last May, is in Kingston on a brief visit. When Queen's Hospital Corps was sent to the Dardanelles, Miss MacCallum was sent to the Island of Lemnos, where Lord Kitchener is at the present time. While there she took ill, and was sent back to England to undergo an operation. On recovering she was assigned to duty in England, and when the SS. Melgamia sailed for Canada with wounded soldiers, she was chosen as one of the nurses to look after them. As it will be some days before she can sail for England, Miss MacCallum took advantage of the chance to "come home." She is a graduate of Kingston General Hospital Training School, and her parents' home is at Barriehill.

FAY PLEADS GUILTY.

To Plotting To Destroy Munition Ships.

New York, Nov. 16.—Robert Fay, self-styled lieutenant in the German army, and by his own confession head of a gang of bomb-makers that sought to destroy munition-laden ships sailing from New York to the Allies, told the story of his life yesterday to United States Assistant District-Attorney Knox.

Fay talked freely, fully and of his own volition for five hours without interruption. What he said was not made public, but at the conclusion of the session Mr. Knox announced that all Fay wanted to do now was to plead guilty to the government's charges against him and go to jail.

Queer Street Names.

There are many bewildering street names in European cities, and of these London presents a great variety. Bermondsey possesses a Pike Herring street. Near Gray's Inn there is to be found a Cold Bath square. Most of the Nightingale lanes and Love lanes are hidden, ironically enough, in the slums of the East End of the British capital.

In Brussels some of the street names are very curious. The Short street of the Long chariot, the street of the Red-Haired Woman, and the street of Sorrows are remarkable enough to catch the least observant eye. The street of the One Person is, as one might guess, an extremely narrow one. But the cream of Brussels' street names surely belongs to the street of the Uncracked Silver Coccoanut. This in the original appears as one ponderous word of 36 letters.

Among the peculiar street names in Paris may be mentioned the street of the Little Windows, the street of the Mule's Foot, the street of the Holy Fathers, the street of the Daughters of Calvary, the street of the Dry Tree, the street of the Empty Pocket, and the boulevard of the Good News.

Haying for Deer.

Winters when the snow is deep for long stretches of time deer congregate in yards in the Adirondacks and many of the weaker ones die of starvation. Their skeletons may be found in various parts of the great wilderness when the snows are gone. This year game protectors have been cutting tons of marsh hay on the beaver meadows in the remote sections of the Adirondacks and stacking it in sheltered places to be fed to the deer next winter when the snow is so deep that other food is not obtainable. The Conservation Commission believes that it will save the lives of hundreds of deer that otherwise would perish. The stacks have been encased in pole frames and liberally salted. Deer will not eat marsh hay unless it is so treated.

A returned Highlander says the trenches is no place for kills.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Gifts For Battery-men.

Vernon Doolittle and Percy Palmer, employees of the Ritchie Co., Belleville, were recipients of handsome wrist watches given to them by the firm before their departure for Kingston to join the 53rd Battery.

Beautiful New Stock to Choose.

Provost, Brock street, has this year an extra fine assortment of tweeds, chevrons and serges for his order clothing department. His ready-made clothing and genis' furnishing departments are well assorted with new goods.

Weather Notes.

The important storm which was over New York state yesterday is now centred in Newfoundland. It has caused gales from the Great Lakes eastward attended by heavy snow falls in Quebec, heavy rains in the Maritime provinces and snow buries in Ontario.

Presbyterian Vote Last Time.

When the last vote was taken on whether there should be a "United Church of Canada" the Presbyterian elders voted 6,245 for it and 2,475 against. Of the 287,944 communicants, 166,755 voted for it and 48,278 against; while 37,175 adherents voted for and 14,174 against.

Capt. Ponton In Hospital.

Capt. R. D. Ponton, Belleville, in the Kingston General Hospital is doing nicely but he will be under treatment for some weeks, two operations being required.

He had one operation on his nose last week, removing some shell splinters, and is to have an operation on his knee this week.

Effective Garbage Collection.

Inspector Timmerman reports that on Monday morning there were five tons of garbage to remove from the various barracks in which troops are quartered here. This was two days' supply. Notwithstanding the additional garbage to be collected from these places, the system is proving most satisfactory. Hardly any complaints are now received.

Plenty Of Work.

The Canadian Locomotive Works is rushing its orders ahead with all celerity. Its staff is being constantly added to, the men realizing that they will have long-time employment. The munitions turned out by a fine type and the workmanship has led to a continuance of orders that will make work plenty with probably considerable overtime.

Injured at Locomotive Works.

J. Cummings, employed on the Locomotive Works night shift, fell quite a distance on Monday evening and was rushed to the Hotel Dieu, where his condition was at first thought serious, but after regaining consciousness it was found his condition was not very bad, and he was after removed to his home at the corner of Frontenac and Johnson streets.

Got The Wrong Man.

The Belleville Ontario says: "In the police court Roy Marshall, Kingston, was charged with a breach of the Motor Vehicle Act and swore that his automobile was not out of his garage on the night in question. The charge against him was dismissed. How the number seen by the police on the car which was without a light happened to be the same as that of Mr. Marshall's is a mystery."

Calvary Church.

The Guild of the above church had a social meeting, on Monday night, to say goodbye to one of their number, Miss Flossie Lasage, who has been a faithful member of the Guild for years. Miss Lasage goes to Montreal to train as nurse. In making her present of a club bag, Mrs. (Rev.) Lyall said how much the church appreciated her steady adherence and interest in all its work. Miss Lasage suitably replied. The pastor also made a brief address expressing regret at losing Miss Lasage but also assuring her of the best wishes of all for her future success.

Special Meetings.

Another nice audience greeted J. Hixon Irving in Brock Street Hall last evening. His subject was "The Builders," taken partly from 1st Corinthians, iii: "The Apostle Paul in his service building the church on the foundation laid by Jesus Christ," and then the two builders mentioned in St. Matthew vii, 24, and the following verses, one building on the rock and the other building on the sand. Mr. Irving handled these texts in an impressive and instructive manner. He has the happy gift of attracting the attention and holding the interest of all his audience from beginning to end, and one could have almost heard a pin drop while he was unfolding his subject last evening. The subject, to-night, will be "The Runners" and will doubtless be handled in the same manner as the others. Meetings begin at 8 o'clock punctually.

Germans Face Bad Situation In the East

(Special to The Whig.)
Amsterdam, Nov. 15.—German silence concerning the developments on its northern front in the Riga and Dvinsk regions, in fact of Russian claims of important gains, led to the opinion here to-day that Marshal Von Hindenberg faces a decidedly serious situation. All available accounts agree that the Russians are pushing a strong offensive and that Germans are slowly falling back. The best judgment here is that Hindenberg's forces have been depleted by withdrawal of men to other fighting zones.

Some men take to drink naturally and some others are quite willing to be taken.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand.

The vaudeville and pictures shown at the Grand Opera House last night are among the best that have appeared for some time. The whole entertainment was enjoyed by a large audience. Laura Hope Crews, in "The Fighting Hope," was the feature picture which deals with the drama of a noble wife who strives to prove the innocence of her unworthy convict husband. The other pictures shown were a two-reel Universal photoplay "Under the Crescent," a comedy picture, "The Fatal Kiss" and the Pathé News, showing scenes of the present war.

The vaudeville included Freeman Bros. in a clever blackface comedy singing and dancing act. Both are experts and made a hit with the audience. Ywaxy, "The Ragged Violinist," also pleased the large audience. The playing of several selections and some popular songs were thoroughly enjoyed.

"The Birth Of A Nation."

The magnitude of David W. Griffith's feat in stating "The Birth of a Nation," is almost appalling—at least to the devotees of the older forms of theatrical entertainment. Where now are the little groups of actors, the pincheek scenery and the petty properties of the so-called "legitimate" drama? By comparison with the new art, the "legitimate" measures to the mountain like a molehill. Instead of scenery for his background, Griffith has used Nature. For subject he has covered 150 years of American history. Eighteen thousand people have done his bidding and in the hair-raising rides of the Ku Klux Klan three thousand riders and horses sweep over the dusty roads.

The great deeds of the Civil War and the horrors of Reconstruction are made to live again and the nation re-born is apotheosized. "The Birth of a Nation" will begin a three nights engagement at the Grand on Thursday evening, Nov. 18th with a matinee on Friday and Saturday afternoon.

At Strand Theatre.

Capacity business and highly pleased audiences greeted the presentation of the five-part photoplay "Threads of Destiny," the vehicle in which Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw and her son, W. Russell Thaw, are appearing in at the Strand the first three days of this week. Other good photo-plays were shown and the music rendered was up to the high standard set by this popular theatre. For the last three days of the week the attraction will be that wonderfully gifted Broadway star "Julia Dean" in "Judge Not" in six big acts.

"Cabira" At Griffin's.

No film ever shown in Kingston can be classed with the picture "Cabira" which is being presented at Griffin's Theatre. The story is of the ancient world of the Mediterranean. The plot is exceptionally well worked out, revealing many of the greatest motives that sway humanity.

The theme is of Rome, Carthage, Cirta and Syracuse at the greatest period in their history when Carthage and Rome strove for the mastery of the work. Colossal scenes are shown such as the destruction of the Roman fleet by Archimedes, the travelling over the desert, Hannibal's army crossing the Alps, the siege of Cirta, where thousands of men are engaged. The actors and actresses are of the highest standards.

Travellers arriving from Constantinople confirm the report that Emperor William is expected there. They say he will be accompanied by Archduke Charles Francis, the Austrian Crown Prince, and King Ferdinand of Bulgaria.

A decree has been issued by the New Zealand Government providing that no males between the ages of 18 and 45 will be permitted hereafter to leave the country for destinations overseas without military permits.
