TORONTO REPRESENTATIVE
H. E. Smallpiece, 32 Church St.

NO REPENTANCE YET.
Hon. Mr. Blondin at Grand Mere, Que., has been relieving himself of his pent-up feelings on the war question.

SCANDALOUS FAMILY JARS.
The will of a man who was worth $69,000 has been upset because it was made when he was not physically or mentally in a position to dictate it.

ANTI-TREATING ACT.
London, the Great, under the stress of the war, and in order to enforce sobriety and economy among the people, was placed, under the operation of an anti-treating law.

EDITORIAL NOTES.
Thomas Kelly, the Winnipeg contractor, losing in the first bout with the officers of the Crown, is willing to settle for a $1,000,000. But he must face a criminal prosecution.

STURGEON FALLS IS HAVING the annual scrap, highly accentuated, over the manner in which the school taxes of the Spanish River Pulp & Paper Company should be divided between the public and separate schools.

A TIME FOR SILENCE.
Winston Churchill's excuse for making a long personal explanation when he left the Imperial Government was that he had been misunderstood.

Why the Difference?
(Belleville Ontario.)
George Lemm, of Estevan, Sask., is under arrest charged with assisting Germans and Austrians to escape from Canada.

both, made mistakes under the circumstances. War was rushed upon them by the power that had made extensive preparations and realized that everything depended upon precipitate action.

What has Mr. Churchill gained by the speech which he has made in the Commons? He cleared up some things, it is true, which, outside of his immediate circle, were in doubt.

The effect of advertising these differences of opinion is very problematical. Germany has failed in many of her plans. But who expects to see any public discussion of them among the war lords?

There may be a clearing-up of all the mysteries some day, but for the present "mum's the word." It is not the practise of England to observe this policy of silence.

A CZAR IN CHINA.
Yuan Shi-Kai has undergone a great change of mind and heart when he wants to be an Emperor it was not so long ago when he said, "Never again shall a monarchy be permitted in China."

It is surmised, however, that Yuan Shi-Kai has taken on the ambition to be the ruler, not for a few years, but for a lifetime, and to fasten his hold upon office by all the strength he can command.

PUBLIC OPINION

Serious Times.
(Toronto Globe.)
Five hundred dollars fine for selling liquor to a man in uniform is a reminder that these are serious times.

Doing Its Duty.
(Belleville Intelligencer.)
Toronto is nobly going its duty. The Mail says "107 recruits a day. In the last three days 425 men offered to serve."

Beneficiaries of War.
(New York Post.)
During the first full year of war, the British Board of Trade estimates, wages in England were raised for 4,446,000 being $3,819,000.

Why Not, Indeed?
(Toronto Globe.)
Why cannot Churchill wait till the war is over before disclaiming responsibility for the Antwerp fiasco? This is a time for action, not recrimination.

Saved On Vodka.
(Exchange.)
When vodka reigned supreme the Russian peasant saved very little. Now the Government is opening 5,000 new Postoffice Savings Bank branches to take care of the vodka money.

There's No Draft About It, Though.
(New York World.)
Canada has authorized the increase of its overseas army from 150,000 to 250,000 men. England continues to be as fortunate in its external drafts for soldiers as in its external loans.

McGill Graduate There.
Montreal, Nov. 18.—Dr. Catherine H. Travis, McGill graduate, attached to Lady Paget's hospital, was captured by the Bulgarians when Uskub fell.

KINGSTON EVENTS
25 YEARS AGO

At the City Council meeting Ad. Shannon gave notice that he would submit a by-law, on exemptions to manufacturers.

Chief Justice Maclellan stated that as there was no evidence to sustain the petition, he would dismiss it with costs, and would report that the Kingston election had been carried out in a pure way.

MAY DISCHARGE OFFICERS.

Theft of Military Supplies at London Was Extensive.
London, Ont., Nov. 18.—Many changes in officers of the 33rd Battalion before it can leave for overseas service are expected by military men here, following the probe into grating, which is proceeding here to-day before General Smith.

ARABS JOIN BRITISH.
12,000 Reinforce Army Within Few Miles of Bagdad.
London, Nov. 18.—According to reports from German sources, forwarded from The Hague by the Central News, 12,000 Arabs have joined with the British army in Mesopotamia.

Grandmothers Story.
"Once upon a time, when I was a little girl," said Grandmother, and there was a mad scramble on the part of the children for their places.

Wife and I.
"I ran into the house shouting to my father that I had discovered what was stealing the eggs and when I told him he Bluey had done it he said: "Bluey is certainly a smart one when I called and had many take the stolen eggs away from Bluey she flew at him in a great rage so that he finally decided to leave them there for Bluey to hatch."

Ripping Rhymes

DEAD LEAVES
The fallen leaves were lying thick upon the withered grass. "My lawn no longer span and spick, alack," I cried, "alas! The look of things imparts an ache, and kills my sunny smile; I'll get a muzzel-loading rake, and heap them in a pile."

WISE AND OTHERWISE
Probably the best housekeeping plan is not to mortgage the house.
Many a man would starve if he had nothing to live on but his reputation.
Two heads are better than one—especially if the other fellow is guessing tails.
The individual who hates mankind is generally a close student of his own nature.
He Discriminates.
Now Dubbs believes in exercise and thinks it very good; A clumsy hand at golf he tries, But balks at sawing wood.—Birmingham Age-Herald.
Good Manners And Good Morals.
Lord Chesterfield.
A friend of yours and mine has very justly defined good breeding to be the result of much good sense, some good nature, and a little self-denial for the sake of others, and with a view to obtain the same indulgence from them.
As to the modes of it, indeed, they vary according to persons and places and circumstances;
And are only to be acquired by observation and experience;
But the substance of it is everywhere and externally the same.
Good manners are, to particular societies, what good morals are to society in general; their cement and their security.
How To Work It.
"I wish I could get my wife to come home, but she'll stick and stick till the last dance is over."
"I'll tell you how to do it."
"How?"
"Just dance three times in succession with the prettiest young girl in the bright red dress, and she'll take you home in a hurry."
An Unfortunate.
"Did you count your change before leaving the window?"
"No."

Do You Believe In Signs?
An insufficiently heated house is frequently the sign that inferior coal is being used.
Our Name Is The Sign Of GOOD COAL
It requires but little attention, gives the utmost heat and always proves satisfactory.
