COUNTY COURT CASES

HEARD BEFORE JUDGE MADDEN ON FRIDAY.

First Was Barker vs. Clarke Over a Patent in Kennebec—The C. M. B. A. Case May Have to Be Postponed Again.

At an adjourned session of the County Court on Friday morning Judge Madden presided, and took up the case of Joseph E. Barker vs. Herbert P. S. Clarke. In this case the plaintiff's claim is to have set aside and declared null and void a patent from the Crown to the defendant of the east half of lot 7, 10th Concession of Kennebec, and for an injunction to restrain the defendant from entering upon or in any way interfering with the said lands, and for damages. W. S. Herrington, K.C., of Napanee, appeared for the plaintiff, and T. J. Rigney for the defendant.

The case of Oliver Gravelle vs. the C. M. B. A., in which the plaintiff makes a claim for $292.80 paid to the defendants between May 1st, 1909, and July 1, 1914, for insurance on the lives of Oliver Gravelle and Thomas Wilfred Gravelle, but which insurance was not effective, is to be heard, but George Lynch Staunton, K.C., of Hamilton, solicitor for the C. M. B. A., is present, and the case will likely have to be postponed. A. B. Cunningham is acting for the plaintiff.

TO SPEAK IN KINGSTON.

Pastor Russell To Be Here on Tuesday Next.

Pastor Russell, the great author and lecturer, president of the International Bible Students' Association, and pastor of the New York City Temple congregation, will deliver a lecture next Tuesday at 7.30 p.m. at the Grand Opera House, his topic being "The Battle of Armageddon." The Brooklyn pastor comes at the invitation of the Associated Bible Students of this city.
Pastor Russell's recent public utterances have attracted special attention because of the fact that during the past forty years he has repeatedly expressed the conviction, based upon the interpretation of Bible prophecy, that a time of unprecedented trouble was impending and would become world-wide. The time set by this Bible scholar was the autumn of last year. Since that time he has been delivering a series of lectures specially relating to the war and Bible prophecies respecting its outcome. His address here next Tuesday is one of these.

The present conflict in Europe is but the prelude to an even greater struggle, according to Pastor Russell's view. He believes the following conflict will be largely the result of the poverty and distress occasioned by the war and the discontent these will cause, finally leading to social revolution and anarchy. This succeeding conflict, the pastor declares, is clearly marked in Bible prophecy, and termed "the battle of Armageddon," and described by Christ as "a time of trouble such as was not since there was a nation." This final trouble, the venerable preacher believes, will prepare the world for, and usher in the long-promised reign of "peace on earth and good will among men," at the hands of the Prince of Peace.
Pastor Russell is an independent religious worker, and has won world-wide distinction as a defender of the Bible and because of his "anti-hellfire" preaching. As usual, it has been announced that no admission charge will be made at this lecture, and no collection taken.

FORTY-SEVEN DELEGATES.

From Kingston To Boys' Conference At Peterboro.

The Kingston delegation of the older boys of the Y. M. C. A. left for the general conference at Peterboro by C. P. R. at 10.45 a.m. Friday. There were forty-seven in the delegation which was provided with a private car through to Peterboro. S. F. Alley, Boys' Secretary, accompanied them. The chief duty of the Boys' Club is to bring boys into the various Sunday Schools and clubs where all bad habits are discarded and higher ideals are aimed at. Kingston will be represented by the largest delegation from eastern Ontario. Sydenham Methodist Church has ten of their boys as delegates to the conference. The names of the delegates are: Hugh Jackson, Aubrey Seels, Charles Chown, Harold Seale, Arthur Singleton, Guy Carr-Harris, Walter Stewart, Donald Robertson, Angus Bond, Harold Ettinger, Clifford Reynolds, Lloyd Greenlee, Roland Fair, Miles Smith, James Turner, Clifford MacLaughlin, Meville Wilder, William Peters, Baldwin MacDougall, Gordon Cornet, Edward Hawley, James Gow, Edward Finnigan, Gerald Lyons, Thomas McKennie, Charles Reynolds, Lorrie Carr-Harris, "Jack" Renton, Donald Macpherson, William Bruce, A. NEWS OF THE Y.M.C.A.

Soldiers Given Privileges of Baths And Swimming Pool.

Wherever there are soldiers quartered and there is a Y.M.C.A., it is a common sight to see rifles stacked either inside the building or on the grounds outside while the men are inside enjoying the shower baths and swimming pools. The Kingston Y.M.C.A. is not behind in this work, and has offered free use of the baths and pool to marching squads of men. They are to be found in the building at almost any hour of the day.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

Alleged That Civilians Got Liquor For a Soldier.
Frederick Davies and Patrick Driscoll, members of the military police force arrested a couple of civilians just before noon on Friday. It is alleged that the men bought liquor for a soldier. The latter was also taken in charge, as he showed signs of having been drinking.
It appears that the constables were watching the trio and noticed that the soldier gave one of the civilians a dollar bill. This man went into a liquor store and came out with a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of beer, and went away with the soldier. Then the military constables stepped in, and took the three men and the liquid refreshments to the police station.
