THE SPORT REVIEW

Paddy Moran, the veteran goalkeeper of the Quebec Bulldogs, has signed a contract with the team for the next season.

The outlook for the Maritime Provinces Pro. Hockey League this season is discouraging to the promoters and the league will probably disband.

Nick Bawlf, who played for Canadiens towards the finish of last winter, will likely figure on the Ottawa hockey line.

The Canadian Rugby Union for the final senior game have invited as their guests Lieut.-Governor J. Hendrie, Mayor Church, and Col. Logie and his staff.

A despatch from Simcoe says that town may not have any hockey this season.

Toronto Mail and Empire: By the way, while you are talking about rough games this year, no doubt the O. R. F. U. takes the cake, but at the same time no O. R. F. U. player hit an official, like happened in the Argo-Ottawa game at Ottawa.

Buster Reid, McGill University Arts '15, was recently wounded in an engagement in France, and is now in an English hospital. He was hit in the arm and leg. Reid was a line-plunger on the McGill football team of the past three seasons. He is a lieutenant in the 3rd Battalion, and was also wounded early in the war, returning to the front not long ago.

Cornell leads all the older eastern football teams in the total of scoring points. The Ithaca eleven has rolled up 263 points. Syracuse is second with 252, Pittsburg third with 227, and Colgate fourth with 223.

The Patricks have handed out a list of players for their four hockey teams at the coast. They seem to have plenty of material, and, having succeeded in wrecking one whole club of their rivals, will likely be satisfied.

Stratford hockey teams will play only in the O. H. A. this season. Last winter they also tackled the Northern League, but decided that a club cannot play under two masters and do itself justice.

At a bowling match on the Montreal A. A. alleys, J. S. Scriver, who has probably referred and umpired more bowling matches than anyone in America, was suddenly stricken with paralysis while acting as line judge.

The Ottawa Hockey Club will support the move to transfer the Shamrock franchise to Hamilton, if such is made at the next meeting of the National Hockey Association. President Bate stated yesterday that he regarded Hamilton as one of the finest sporting towns on the continent, and that the proposed transfer would have the support of the Ottawa delegates. He believes that Hamilton offers a fertile field for the professional game, and thinks that it would mean a big arena for the ambitious city.

The University of Pennsylvania seeks the services of "Joe" Wright, coach of the Toronto Argonaut oarsmen, and widely known sportsman, to coach the crews of the famous Red and Blue at Philadelphia. The Pennsylvanians have offered Mr. Wright a three-year contract at a salary of $4,000 per year.

Having no ice as yet, Sarnia hockeyists will introduce a new system of training, which will be as near as ice skating hockey. The club has secured roller skates with rubber tires for the players, and drills for a long winter season will commence very shortly.

Hamilton seems to be the city chosen upon which to unload the Shamrock franchise of the N. H. A., but still there are hockey experts who appear to think that the schedule when it is made out will be only for five clubs, and that the Shamrock franchise will not be operated this coming season.

The Northwestern Baseball League will be composed next year of Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Butte and Helena, according to President Blewett, of the league. No effort will be made to place clubs in Victoria and Aberdeen, which were unable to complete last season because of the small patronage.

Hamilton despatches deny that Sammy Manson, the Tigers' star half, is suffering from damaged ankles. Tigers say that he will be on the gridiron against Toronto, and that he will be the star of the game. If DeGruchy and Bickie get good protection from Toronto's line they will make Manson and McKelvey hustle for the honors.

President W. A. Hewitt, of the Canadian Rugby Union, has been notified that the Emeralds of Montreal, winners of the Junior Quebec championship, are willing to play off for the Junior Canadian championship. Last year this series was decided in the west, but Quebec sent no representative, but this year, according to the C. R. U., it is to be decided in the east, hence the desire of the Emeralds to play. The matter will rest with the winners of the Junior O. R. F. U. series whether they go down or not.

He Could Tell.
Fond Mother—Bobbie, come here. I have something awfully nice to tell you.
Bobbie (aged six)—Aw, I don't care. I know what it is. Big brother's home from college.
F. M.—Why, Bobbie, how could you guess?
B.—My hank don't rattle any more.
