A procession left the Armouries at 3.45 o'clock, headed by the Napanee Citizen's Band, followed by.C. Company, 80th Battalion, under Major Gray, the High School Cadets with their bugle band, and the local troop of Boy Scouts, in charge of Rev. J. H. Coleman, and the members of the Town Council, and marched to the G. T. R. station. The station platfrom was crowded with people bent on catching a glimpse of Capt. Hall, It was with d'fficulty that the track was kept clear, as the train stopped. Amerg the first to greet the captain and Mrs. Hall were the Mayor and Judge Madden. After greeting a number of his friends, the Captain entered a waiting automobile and followed the procession back to the Armouries, where the Mayor in his speech remarked that it was an honour to welcome him back to his home town, after spending nearly nine months on the firing line, The Mayor and also to Sergt.
