COUNTY VALUATORS REPORT UPON THE ASSESSMENT

Recommend That It Be Increased By $650,940—Garden Island the Only Place That is Worth Less—Portland Increased Most.

At its Thursday morning session the County Council received the report of Thomas Sargent, R. A. Hamilton and A. J. Cowan appointed in June to revise the Frontenac assessment, which has remained at $6,312,517 for the past forty years. The assessors fixed the assessable value of the county at $6,993,457, an increase of $650,940 or close to ten per cent. The assessments by townships and the increases are as follows:

	Old.	New.	Increase.
Barrie	29,664	38,194	8,530
Bedford	286,314	336,794	50,480
Clarendon and Miller	57,400	66,784	9,384
Garden Island	65,000	30,000	Decrease, 35,000
Howe Island	101,922	122,924	21,002
Hinchbrook	211,258	226,734	15,476
Kingston	1,409,145	1,413,557	4,412
Kennebec	57,027	101,164	44,137
Loughboro	518,367	610,176	91,809
Olden	135,594	209,709	64,115
Oso	100,277	114,614	14,337
Pittsburg	1,024,866	1,082,771	57,905
Portland	732,082	898,605	166,523
Portsmouth	115,000	126,437	11,437
Palmerston, North, and South Canoto	63,258	83,179	19,921
Storrington	798,843	860,653	61,810
Wolfe Island	637,400	686,162	48,762
Totals	6,342,517	6,993,457	650,940
Net increase			$650,940.

The valuers fixed the following average value per acre: Barrie, $1.50; Bedford, $5.15; Clarendon and Miller, $1.50; Howe Island, $15.25; Hinchbrook, $3.35; Kingston, $27.35; Kennebec, $2.30; Loughboro, $12; Olden, $3.50; Oso, $2.85; Palmerston, North and South Canoto, $1.50; Pittsburg, $28; Portland, $17; Storrington, $18.50; Wolfe Island, $21.25. On motion of Councillors Franklin and Kennedy, the report was received and filed. Warden Donaldson said he hoped that the county would not go another forty years without having another valuation. The report was only being received by the Council, the warden stating that it would be referred to next year's Assessment Equalization Committee to act upon as it might see fit.

The warden also referred to the expense account of the assessors which showed $696 for fees and $129.45 expenses; total, $1,125.45. He explained that after the assessors got into their work they had come to him and said they would have to abandon it as $4.50 a day was not nearly sufficient for their time and expenses. He had told them to go ahead with their work and the Council would see that they were properly paid so that they would receive $3 a day for their time. R. A. Hamilton, one of the valuers, told the Council that he and report placed all the municipalities on an equal basis of assessment. They had gone over twenty per cent. of the land and had conferred with leading men throughout the county in arriving at their decisions. Some of the councillors did not relish the increases recommended in their municipalities, and stated that appeals to the county judge would be made if the increases were put into effect by next year's County Council.

NO HELL FOR SOLDIER

EVERYTHING HE DOES JUSTIFIED BY CIRCUMSTANCES.

Gunner J. M. Hamilton, Ottawa, Expresses This Opinion to the Whig—He Has Just Returned From the Front.

Gunner J. M. Hamilton, Ottawa, who has spent three months in the trenches and was in hospital for five months as a result of being gassed, said to the Whig on Thursday: "I do not think that there is any hell for a soldier, and any thing he does is justified by the circumstances." Gr. Hamilton is a young, clear-cut fellow of remarkable intelligence and education, and made the above statement very seriously, and only after he had thoroughly thought of what he said. When asked for an explanation of the statement he said that what he and his Canadian comrades had gone through was enough to justify any action. A person could walk in any direction, he said, from where his tent was on Salisbury plain, and would have to walk for two miles at least through mud up to his shins before coming to a place where he could wipe his feet. The Canadian Contingent there did not look like soldiers but more like life-savers with their long rubber boots, sou-wester and slickers. The men had to buy them for themselves, by Gr. Hamilton said there was not one man who would criticize the authorities because the men had to do this. "Some fellows might kick because they had to spend a little money on this equipment." They do not add, however, that patients in hospital in England are taken every day for fifty and sixty-mile automobile trips, are supplied with all kinds of tobacco and cigarettes and there is nothing too good for the soldier. He also paid deep compliments to both the Red Cross Society and the Army Service Corps. The Red Cross Society, said Gr. Hamilton, is doing a work that no society or organization in the world has every been called on to do before and it has done wonders. Gr. Hamilton has served in four countries in different wars, having been in the Philippines campaign, the Argentine Republic and on both sides in Mexico campaigns. Since 1899 he has been living in the open air until he went to the front. "Personally I can say that I have had with absolute regularity three meals every day while at the front, and have never slept in the open. It has always been in buildings or dug-outs." The first artillery brigade of which Gr. Hamilton is a member went into action in France in February. The range on the German guns that time was 1,300 yards. The Canadian artillerymen have been complimented on their wonderful accuracy on ranges, and Gr. Hamilton gave several ways in which this much-desired result is obtained. In the spring when the First Brigade went into action, the ground and trenches were wet. Hundreds of German shells struck the wet ground and failed to explode. These were dug up and the range set on the dial at the end was used in figuring the location of the German guns. On every shell is also the date of manufacture. Of these shells were dates in 1904 and 1905. At Ypres the shells found were dated 1905 and 1909. This, said Gr. Hamilton, is a proof of the lack of ammunition on Germany's part, as all of the shells up to a year ago must now have been used. This is also another proof of the great preparations that Germany made for this war. At Ypres the Canadian artillery had the shortest range to that date, less than 1,700 yards from the first line German trenches. One day in the battle Gr. Hamilton saw rolling towards him a greenish blue cloud, and then felt like going under an anaesthetic. He awakened in hospital with his lungs in a condition that will not be normal for some months. "The war has settled down to a waiting game," he said. "Everything runs like clock-work. The experienced soldier can now tell on Monday morning at what time on Wednesday afternoon the Germans will be doing the most of their shelling. It is all a waste of ammunition on their part, and in several places they are pouring away at villages that are already beyond habitation." He is confident that with the wonderful organization of the Allied army now, providing the leaders were willing to pay the toll of human lives, the Allies could force their way to Berlin now. The commanders are merely waiting until the work can be done with less of a sacrifice.

Gunner Hamilton left for Ottawa on Thursday afternoon, and says that he will go into the north woods away from civilization, where "I can sleep twenty-four hours a day if I want to and forget the scenes that I have seen at the front." "This is positively my fourth and last campaign," he concluded.

INSPECTION OF EGGS.

Is One of the Great Needs in Kingston These Days. These are days when the hens are on strike and eggs are very scarce. Every housewife will tell you this, and they will also tell you that although they are doing a good stiff price for what is sold as "strictly fresh" eggs, they find a great many bad eggs. Several complaints along this line were made to the Whig during the past few days.

"We need an inspector of eggs," said one housewife to the Whig. "I think it is a shame to give a high price for eggs and then find some of them bad." In Toronto quite recently arrangements were made for the inspection of eggs.

John Foley's Birthday.

Reeve John Foley, Howe Island, who is in the city, attending the meeting of the County Council, on Thursday celebrated his sixty-ninth birthday, and received the congratulations of his friends, and they are legion. Mr. Foley is enjoying good health, is very active, and it is the wish of all his acquaintances that he will enjoy many more years of good health and prosperity.

Attended Wedding.

Lady Kirkpatrick, the bride's aunt, formerly of Toronto, and Captain Eric Kirkpatrick, King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, attended the wedding of Miss Leonie Macpherson Ridout and Andrew Stuart Mackenzie Low, Cross House Francais, of the Military Automobile Corps, in London.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand. A new high-class programme of vaudeville and photo plays has been secured for Thursday and Friday at the Grand Opera House. The Paramount Players Company feature George Fawcett, supported by an all star cast, in "The Majesty of the Law." There will be a two-reel photo-play and a comedy play. The Pathe News Film will present weekly current events and some war pictures. The vaudeville includes the Two Vagabonds in a singing, accordion and guitar act; Panther Indian in a novelty act, while Miss Juanita Fletcher will render some operatic and popular song selections.

"The White Feather." "The White Feather," dealing with the present European conflict and described as the greatest secret service war play ever written, will be seen here at the Grand on Saturday, Nov. 27th, matinee and night. The play contains all the ingredients and thrills necessary to satisfy the most blasé theatre goer, including German submarines and English warships; four German spies and two English secret service agents; a new recruit; an irascible M. P. and his daughter, who, of course, is in love with the secret service hero; a basket full of white feathers for cowards who do not enlist; a wireless outfit concealed in the drawing room where the scene of the play is laid; a wonderful dictograph; an alway-to-be-forgotten pipe; a code book of signals which falls into the wrong hands; carrier pigeons; a cane-shaped gun which works wonders at the proper time; a couple of revolvers and a powerful modern searchlight, all add to the tremendous success and countless thrills of this big secret service war drama, making it the sensation of three continents—England, America and Australia. This is not a moving picture.

Strand Theatre. The "headline" at this popular theatre for the last three days of the week is that beloved screen star, lovely "Mary Fuller," in a powerful four-act photoplay of an action-adventure whom love redeems. There is an intensity of action which bespeaks the hand of a master director, and the acting with Mary Fuller, Paul Pauzer and Milton Sills in the leading roles is of a particularly high standard. Other reels which will be shown include "Dr. Mason's Temptation," "The Markswoman," and an L-Ko comedy, "Itching For Revenge."

Charlie Chaplin at the Ideal. This big mirth-provoker will be shown in the hilarious comedy, "His Favorite Pastime," at the Ideal Theatre on Friday and Saturday. Other good reels will also be shown.

CITY COUNCIL TO INVEST

Sum of Money in the Canadian War Loan Fund.

The City Council will subscribe to the Canadian war loan fund, but the amount has not yet been decided upon. Mayor Sutherland and Ald. R. E. Kent, who is a member of the Civic Finance Committee, have charge of all investments, and sinking funds, and they now have the matter under consideration.

Several other cities are subscribing to the fund. In Ottawa there is a proposition on foot to subscribe $500,000.

Still Going Good. Howard S. Folger stated on Thursday afternoon that the subscriptions for the Canadian war loan fund were still coming in good. He did not know the exact amount at the moment.

Capt. R. D. Pontor, Belleville, had his knee straightened on Wednesday and put on a plaster cast. He hopes to be around in ten days. "The Home of High Class Sweets," Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.
