A HOCKEY ANNOUNCEMENT

For the Benefit of Queen's University Students.

Queen's University Journal contains the following: "At its last regular meeting the Hockey Club placed itself on record as being in favor of its players playing only as a University team. Queen's are endeavoring to enter teams in the Senior, Intermediate and Junior O. H. A. No decision of the O. H. A. executive will be made as to Queen's applications until their annual meeting on December 8th. Each and every hockey player in college should therefore take care not to be misjudged by any reports to the contrary at present being circulated in the city."

BREWERS' MILLS WEDDING.

William V. Smith and Miss V. E. Rochefort Married.

A pretty wedding took place in St. Barnaby's Church, Brewer's Mills, on Wednesday, November 24th, when William V. Smith, son of Capt. and Mrs. Edward Smith, Seeley's Bay, was united in marriage to Miss Venie E. Rochefort, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rochefort, Brewer's Mills, by Rev. Father Traynor.

The bride was given away by her father, and wore her travelling suit of Copenhagen blue with hat to match. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Josie Rochefort, who wore a suit of dark green broadcloth with large black hat. Thomas Smith assisted the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the groomsmen a diamond tie pin. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful gifts, including a large mantle clock from the choir of St. Barnaby's Church, of which she was a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on a short trip to Ottawa and other eastern points. On their return they will take up residence in Kingston.
