Separation Will Likely Be Decided Upon—The Magistrate Enlarged Case a Few Days, To Allow For Agreement.

An able-bodied man, charged with neglecting to support his wife, and also with having used bad language towards the one he promised to "cherish and honor," was the sad picture which was presented in the Police Court on Wednesday morning. Wellington Townshorn is the man charged. His wife was in court to press the charge.

T. Rigney, who appeared in the case stated that it was impossible for the couple to live together and suggested an agreement of separation. In order to have a settlement of some kind made, the Magistrate enlarged the case until Friday.

Because his automobile passed a street car while it was in motion, constituting a violation of the Motor Vehicle Act, William Simmons was taxed $1 and costs.

COOLS-WILMOT NUTRITALS.

Celebrated in St. Paul's Church on Wednesday Morning.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning in St. Paul's Church by Canon W. F. Fitzgerald, when Miss Vera A. Wilmot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilmot, Vernon, B.C., and granddaughter of Mrs. J. Gillespie, Kingston, became the bride of Lieut. J. Cools, 93rd Battalion, son of Senator and Madame Cools, Sierre, Belgium. The couple were unattended.

The bride's travelling gown was of wisteria gaberdine, with a black velvet hat, with Oriental trimmings and osprey.

The bride carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome seal coat.

The happy couple left on the 140 p.m. G. T. R. train for a short tour in Western Ontario. On their return they will reside in Peterborough, where the groom is stationed with the 93rd Battalion.

HIS ANKLE BROKEN.

Thomas Duffey, William Street, Injured in Locomotive Works.

Thomas Duffey, residing at 94 William street, had the misfortune to have his leg badly broken above the ankle about nine o'clock Wednesday morning, while at work in the molding shop of the Locomotive Works. Mr. Duffey was employed as a molder, and when helped to move a heavy casting the chain carrying the load broke, allowing the casting to fall on his leg. The injured man was removed to his home in an automobile, and Dr. Robert Hanley dressed the wounds. He was later removed to the Hotel Dieu, Richardson.
