

Told In Twilight --- In the Realm of Woman

Society

Mrs. W. F. Nickle chaperoned a most enjoyable tea party at the "Princess Pat" tea room on Monday afternoon when Wallace McKay entertained in honor of his sister, Miss Eleanor McKay, of Pembroke, who is visiting Miss Kathleen Ryan at "Rockwood House." The invited guests were: Mrs. John Ald, Miss Kathleen Ryan, Miss Lucy Waddell, Miss Gwendolin Waddell, Miss Eleanor Minnes, Miss Florence Elliott, Miss Jean Caldwell (Belleville), Miss Alleen Folger, Miss Marjorie Minnes, Miss Kathleen Caruthers, Miss Phyllis Knight, Miss Katharine Hart, Miss Gwendolyn Merrick, Miss Mabel Richardson, Miss May Rogers, and Messrs. Neil Black, Sherman Hill, William Garrett, William Minnes, Howard Folger, Walter Steacy, Herbert Steacy, Willard Box, Andrew Naimith (Lethbridge), Bob Richardson, Dick Elmer, Basil Morris, Ross Byron, Thomas Hueston and Jack Powers.

On Monday Mrs. Roy Davison, Clergy street, entertained at the tea hour in honor of Miss Buchanan and Miss Campbell, who are leaving this week for California to spend the winter months.

Mrs. C. N. Perréau, Royal Military College, will receive on Thursday and not again until the New Year.

Mrs. Alfred Goodearle and son returned to Toronto on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John K. Ald and Miss Phoebe Ald have taken passage on the SS. Corsican, and will sail from St. John on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Birmingham, Barrie street, left to-day for Riverside, Calif., where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Todd returned to Ottawa on Monday after spending a few days in town. Miss Grace McKeown, Montreal, is the guest of Miss Beatrice Lambert, Clergy street.

Cyril Knight has returned to Toronto after spending a few days in town with Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Knight, Alice street.

Masters David and Benjamin Walker, who were visiting Mrs. A. W. Winnett, Bagot street, have returned to Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood and their small son will return to Toronto this week after spending a month with Rev. John and Mrs. Fairlie, Brock street.

The marriage of Miss Luella E. Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hall, Napanee, to J. Ernest Madden, son of Judge and Mrs. Madden, took place very quietly on the afternoon of November 27th, at Trinity parsonage, the Rev. Samuel Sillery, M.A., B.D., officiating.

Cleaning Furs.

Sable, squirrel, etc., may be cleaned by rubbing with warm bran, and then brush to free the fur of bran. It is best to lay articles to be cleaned on a flat board or table. You can clean furs if your rub ermine and white fox with a soft piece of white flannel dipped in flour. Rub against the grain, and continue rubbing till the fur is clean. Shake out, and then rub off the remaining flour with a clean flannel. A bath in hot cornmeal always makes fur shining and fluffy.

TESTED RECIPES

Oatmeal Hasty Pudding.
Half a pint of boiling milk; half a teaspoonful of cold milk; one dessertspoonful of flour; one of oatmeal; a little salt. Boil half a pint of milk, beat the flour and oatmeal into a paste with cold milk, add to the boiling milk, and keep stirring it always in the same direction till it is done.

Oatmeal Pudding.
Put a pint of coarse oatmeal into a quart of milk, and leave it to steep all night. In the morning mix in the oatmeal and milk, half a pound of chopped beef suet, season with a little grated nutmeg and salt. Stir into this three well-beaten and sieved eggs, a quarter of a pound of currants, washed and dried the same weight of raisins, and put into a well-greased mould or basin; cover with a cloth, set into boiling water and cook for two hours. When ready, dish, and pour over it some well-melted butter, or send to table in a tureen.

Savory Bread Pudding.
This is a pudding that may be eaten with mutton, pork or duck, and any odd pieces of bread may be used. Take half a pound of stale bread, two half-boiled onions, two tablespoonfuls of coarse oatmeal, three ounces of suet, half a teaspoonful of dried sage, an egg, a quarter of a pint of milk, salt and pepper. Soak the bread in cold water till soft, then squeeze as dry as possible, and crumble it fine. Chop the suet and onions and add, with all the dry ingredients, to the bread, seasoning to taste. Then stir in the egg, well beaten, and the milk. Grease a tin, pour in the mixture, and bake in a hot oven till it is done, probably about 45 minutes. Cut it into squares and serve it with hot gravy poured over it.

The Housekeeper.
In sweeping carpets, always sweep with the grain. To brush the wrong way is not only to injure the carpet but it tends to brush the dirt in and not out.

The small end of a potato should be pricked before it is put into the oven to bake, to keep it from bursting. Butter will keep sweet much longer in a crock jar with a tight-fitting cover than in any other way. Olives and English walnuts ground together and moistened with mayonnaise makes a tasty lubricant sandwich.

Wood ashes mixed with kerosene will remove iron rust. One can remove the odor of fresh paint from a room by leaving there a pail of water into which several onions have been sliced. Hot, weak tea is a good solution for cleaning varnished paint.

Water bugs may be driven away by using eucalyptus oil mixed with flour. They will eat it and never trouble you again. Olives and English walnuts chopped together make a nice winter salad. Stove-pipes can be readily cut by using a can opener; first mark the pipe where it is to be cut, then drive the point of the can opener in, and follow the mark. The cutting must be done slowly and carefully in order to keep to the line.

Fashion and Fads.
Little folks are wearing clothes fashioned on Russian lines. Jumper dresses are being received with a good deal of favor. Velvet handbags are having a little vogue all by themselves. Sleeves are a most important point of fashion this season. Big flapping shapes are among the nicest hats for young girls. Velvet and velveteen will be worn a great deal for evening. The quiet colors are as much liked in plaids as the gay ones. A novel waist is of a heavy blue or black net over white chiffon. Tight little jackets with astrakhan fur are now new fashioned. Spanish lace is in high favor for scarfs as well as trimmings. White or black net laces have metal edges and metal embroidery. Tiny steel beads play a great part in the decoration of frocks as being combined with serge with great success. The mutton-leg sleeve is more graceful if it hangs from a dropped shoulder. Full-puffed sleeves of net are seen fitted into a tight cuff finished with a frill.

Metal And Glass Buttons.
Metallic effects in laces and braids are causing much comment and admiration, but not any more so than the attractive buttons of metal. They may be of gold, silver or gunmetal. They may be purchased as small as a pea or as large as a silver dollar. Buttons of glass are very popular. The buttons made to produce spangled effects deserve particular mention. These can be procured in a variety of color combinations. They are made especially to be used in connection with the spangled bands, ornaments and other trimmings so much in vogue just now. Other glass buttons are ornamented with narrow bands of silver, which are visible beneath the glassy surface.

Embroidered Edges.
When embroidering or buttonholing, scalloped edges are apt to fray, unless they are gone over the second time, after having been washed, and cut out. If the material is stitched on the sewing machine, along the outer line of the scallops, before they have been embroidered or buttonholed, it will not be necessary to work them the second time.

TO KEEP VEGETABLES.

Hints About Preserving Them Through Winter Months.

Celery keeps best stored out of doors. In a cellar it often dries and gets stringy and tough. Dig a pit about three feet deep, lift the celery into it with the roots on and store the plants closely together. Cover the earth up to the tip of the celery, and put leaves on about a foot deep to keep out the moisture. Place boards in a conical mound over the trench and cover with leaves and earth. Leave the ends of the boards so that the pit can be opened to admit air on mild days, as the danger lies in heating. Cabbage and brussels sprouts can also be stored in the celery trench. Set the cabbage heads upside down on some leaves. Leeks can be lifted and stored like root crops or simply covered with hay or leaves.

The cellar is the best place for storing pumpkins, squashes and potatoes, if you have a cool, dry compartment not exposed to furnace waist, the slashed edges are first turned under on perforations. Next, bring the upper slot perforations to small "o" perforations and tack. Gather shoulder edge of front and lower edges of front and back between double "T" perforations. Close under-arm and shoulder seams as notched. Face flared collar and sew to neck edge as notched. Sew stay to lower edge of front and back, centers and small "o" perforations even, large "O" perforation at under-arm seam, and bring front edge to center-front; ease any fullness to fit stay from slash to center-front. The seam of the sleeve is now closed, after which the seam of turn-back cuff is stitched as notched. Face cuff and sew to sleeve, single large "O" perforations and seams even; then sew sleeve in armhole with as little fullness as possible.

Next, take the skirt. Turn under front edge of right front gore on slot perforations; lap on left gore, centers even (large "O" perforations indicate center-front); stitch to position, leaving edges free above single large "O" perforation for opening. Join gores as notched, close center-back seams. Gather upper edge between double "T" perforations. Large "O" perforations in pocket indicate front edge. Gather upper edge between double "T" perforations and sew lap to gathered edge, notches even. Underface the skirt to 1/2 inch above small "o" perforations, turn over on outside on small "o" perforations and tack upper edge to position. Adjust pocket on front gore upper edge along crossline of small "o" perforations. Sew skirt to lower edge of waist over stay, centers even, side seam at under-arm seam; tack the end of waist to position skirt, leaving opening to pass girdle through.

Gather the girdle along edge between double "T" perforations, draw gathers to the required size. Adjust, slipping through opening in tab and close or requires 1/4 yard 44-inch gabardine, with 1/4 yard satin for the girdle and 1/4 yard lace for the vest.

CHAPPING of hands and face usually is caused by rinsing in warm water, careless drying and the use of alkaline soaps. The best preventive is the following:

Rinse with cold water, dry thoroughly and use Ivory Soap.

Ivory Soap is the safe soap because it contains nothing to irritate the skin. It can do nothing but cleanse perfectly, leaving the skin in the healthiest possible condition.
