THE SPORT REVIEW

Walter Camp, for 40 years associated with football at Yale University, has resigned.

Yale has one hundred and ten hockey candidates, while the Harvard squad numbers sixty.

It was a sore punch for Vancouver to be beaten at home by the Portland team in their first Coast League fixture.

The Overseas Hockey Club of London has decided to play in the intermediate series instead of in the senior O.H.A.

Lieut. "Chubby" Power of Quebec, a well-known hockey player, has been wounded while fighting in Flanders.

Welland has no rink, but will have a junior team in the O. H. A., and has asked permission to play their association home games at Port Colborne, which request will likely be granted.

If the American Baseball League keep on strengthening up the leading teams at the expense of the weaker clubs they might as well cut down the circuit to Chicago, Boston and Detroit.

Harvard's new football captain is Joseph Atherton Gilman of Honolulu, who was unanimously elected Friday, when the 24 "H" men on the team met to be photographed. Gilman's position is tackle, and Richard Harte of Philadelphia, the end, whose name was also placed in nomination, refused to oppose the big Hawaiian.

Gordon Meeking, the star centre forward of the Victoria Hockey Club, champions of the O.H.A., is willing to join the Toronto professionals, providing they come across with a big stipend. Meeking would easily make good with the professionals.

Home Run Baker will wear a Chicago White Sox uniform next season. This startling information was furnished by one who is seldom wrong on big moves in the baseball world.

It has been known for some time that Charles Comiskey was willing to go to the limit to strengthen his team, also that he was anxious to obtain the services of the Athletic hold-out.

Because judges at recent amateur boxing tournaments have been making decisions, such as calling a fight "a draw" or recommending "an extra round" he fought, the A. A. U. has decided to interpret the rules for them. Neither of aforesaid decisions can be given, according to the rules, Fred Rubien, the secretary-treasurer, has sent notices to fight judges, explaining their duties. He impressed upon them they must pick a winner, and if they disagreed, it is up to the discretion of the referee to order another round or name the winner.

The hand-springing halfback is the newest thing in football. He is Simmons of Texas University, and his acrobatic stunt has netted gains the ordinary player could not make. When Simmons, carrying the ball, is about to be tackled, he leaps over the head of the tackler, turns a one-handed hand-spring while hugging the ball to his chest with the other hand, lands on his feet and continues down the field. Simmons has scored several touchdowns by leaping over the head of the only man between himself and the goal.

The annual meeting of the O. R. F. U. was held in Toronto Saturday afternoon. The finances of the league were found to be in good shape, a balance of $163.75 being found on the right side of the ledger. Incidentally it was the first year in the history of the league that the fees of all clubs have been paid.

John DeGruchy and J. W. McAllister were appointed to act as representatives of the union at the annual meeting in the O. R. F. U. An effort will be made to organize High schools, Collegiates, and Prep schools in Eastern Ontario, as well as those in Western Ontario, who are not yet in the fold of the Ontario Union.

The officers elected were: Hon. president, J. W. McAllister, Hamilton; president, Major C. A. Fairbanks, Petrolia; first vice-president, John DeGruchy, Toronto; second vice-president, M. F. Gibson, Hamilton; third vice-president, Hugh Galt, Toronto; secretary, R. Hewitson, Toronto; treasury, W. F. Close, Hamilton.

NEW EMPEROR OF CHINA

President of Oriental Republic Accepts the Position.

Peking, Dec. 13.—Yuan Shi-Kai, President of the Chinese Republic, has accepted the throne of China tendered to him by the Council of State.

Acting as a parliament, the Council of State Saturday canvassed the vote on the question of a change in the form of the Government of China to a monarchy and found that the votes of 1,923 representatives out of 2,043 qualified to vote on the proposition were favorable to the change.

The Council of State immediately sent to Yuan Shi-Kai a petition urging him to accept the throne. He declined at first, but when the petition was forwarded to him a second time, he accepted, with the proviso that he would continue to act as President until a convenient time for the coronation.

WILL FARM IN CANADA

Danish Prince To Make Stay of Several Years.

Copenhagen, via London, Dec. 13.—Prince Viggo, youngest son of Prince Waldemar of Denmark, will go to Canada early next year to be educated there in practical farming.

Prince Viggo, who will leave Denmark on January 13th, will travel by way of New York and make a short tour of the United States before proceeding to Canada.

The Prince, who will travel incognito, will remain in Canada for several years. He is 22 years of age. His family is regarded as the most democratic branch of European royalty. His eldest brother, Prince Aage, was married to a daughter of a former Italian Minister at Copenhagen. The second brother, Axel, is well known as an aviator. The third brother, Prince Erik, is a practical farmer. He worked a farm in England last year, for the purpose of studying English methods of cattle breeding. His only sister, Princess Marguerite, took the degree of bachelor of arts last year. She served as a nurse for several months this year, caring for the British soldiers, until her work was interrupted by illness. Prince Viggo has reserved passage on the steamship Hellig Olav.

SOLDIER WANTED IN KINGSTON

Chief Whatley Turned Private John Ledger Loose.

Hamilton, Dec. 13.—A few days ago, Chief Whatley received a telegram from the military authorities at Kingston, asking him to arrest a man by the name of John Ledger, who, it was alleged had deserted from that city. Detectives Shirley and Smith located the man in this city and placed him under arrest.

The Kingston authorities were notified but have received no further word from them. Chief Whatley ordered Ledger released after having been locked up for three days. Ledger, who is still wearing the King's uniform, called on Chief Whatley and left his address with the chief in case of further charges.

READ ABOUT HIS FUNERAL

An Episode In The Trenches In France.

Pte. Fred Mack is back in Springbrook, having been invalided home. He saw much fighting, never was hit but had to quit owing to an injury to his leg when a boy and which laid him up. Pte. Mack was in the same trench with Pte. Bingham, Frankford, when the account came in a newspaper from home of the largest attended funeral service held in memory of Pte. Bingham when he was reported killed, and he had the unusual experience of handling the paper to Bingham to read for himself the account of the service. So far as known Pte. Bingham is still alive and well.

Labour representatives obtained the promise of Chairman J. W. Flaville of the Imperial Board of Munitions, and Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, that contractors who do not treat their employees fairly shall not receive further orders.

Sleepytime Tales

TIP TRIES TO SKATE.

Once upon a time Tip, the little country squirrel, crept down in the baby's carriage and went with it to the park. Baby John had not been very well the day before and so Tip had not gone on the usual outing and decided to-day he would call on his city cousin and see how he was getting along. When he reached the new squirrel house he found it empty but the squirrel next door told him his cousin had just gone out towards the pond.

Tip hopped along and at last came to the edge of the pond but, as he didn't see his cousin he started to run back. Just then a boy, who had often given him nuts, came along with some skates over his arm.

"Hello Tip," said the boy and picked up the squirrel and held him tight under his arm.

Now Tip did not like to be picked up unless he wished to have them, so he wriggled and squirmed and

HIGH TIDE TIME FOR THE SHOPPERS.

There is something exhilarating about high tide Christmas shopping. The consciousness that stocks are at their best has an inspiration to purchase before things have lost the savor of novelty and newness through over-familiarity.

The educated Christmas shopper is buoyed by the desire to secure her gift things before they become commonplace through the channels of over-popularity as represented by last hour purchasing.

You would not like to be classed among the "after thoughts." Then do not do "after thought" gift purchasing. Get the best to give the best at the best time. "High Tide Time" NOW!

"Christmas as Usual" means Early Christmas Shopping as usual, as well as the usual round of Christmas remembrances.

TO EXTEND HOSPITALITY

200,000 Serb Troops Now In Mountains.

Milan, Dec. 13.—It is reported that Italy will extend the same hospitality to the exiled Serbian Government as France has done to the Belgian.

The Serbian headquarters staff, together with two divisions of the army, which are still in good condition, have arrived at Sautari. It is also reported that nearly 200,000 Serbian troops, saved from the general disaster, are encamped in the Albanian Mountains, where they will be re-equipped by Italy.

Economic Exhaustion.

Theodore H. Price in Commerce and Finance says: "Some of the combatants have now reached a stage of economic exhaustion in which the continuation of the war is impossible. Modern war cannot be fought without money, and the peace talk of which we hear so much, is the expression of impossibility and nothing else. Behind the curtain which the censors draw over conditions in Central Europe, there must be a degree of distress and need that not even the obsequious Kaiser can relieve, and we are more confident than ever that before the winter is over persistence in the economic crime of which Germany has been guilty will be made impossible by its automatically imposed punishment of economic impotence."

Instruction for returning soldiers who are blind or deaf will be arranged by the Ontario Government.

A former Toronto editor, F. Page Wilson, has been missing for some time, following an injury in Florida when he was struck on the head by a coconut.

A large crowd of young men sought the recruiting officers in Simcoe after raising addresses by Hon. W. J. Hanna, N. W. Rowell, K. C., Major Williams, and others.

Easy & Practical Home Dress Making Lessons

Prepared Especially For This Newspaper by Pictorial Review

FOR THE WEARY TRAVELLER

is added a maximum of personal comfort the benefit is largely increased. Something new, chic and serviceable in this pullman robe and bag made of twisted silk. Pongee is also serviceable. The robe has long, one-piece raglan sleeves, which may be gathered at the wrist or finished with a flare. A novel possibility of these sleeves is concealed pockets, for which, however, the short, loose sleeve must be used. In medium size the outfit requires 6 yards 35-inch material. The hood may be omitted, but it is an excellent thing to protect the hair.

The home dressmaker will find this model well within her capabilities. Because of the importance of properly cutting out the robe today's dressmaking lesson will be confined to this feature. Take an open width of material, double (not fold) it so that the right or two wrong sides will face each other. Then along the selvage edge nearest the cutter place the underfacing and follow with the pocket (to the right). Just above the underfacing the bag and hood can be laid and abutted there on the front. A little to the right of the front is arranged the sleeve. When these sections are cut they will be in duplicate and ready for sewing. For the back, take a fold of the material and place the pattern (the back is perforated with letter B) on a lengthwise fold. Where the pattern tapers off toward the shoulder there is room left for the neckband, sleeveband and pieces for the back.

For shorter length robe there are single and double "on" perforations on the lower edge of the underfacing, front and back.

No trimming other than self-covered buttons is necessary for the robe. A fancy ornament may be used to fasten the bag.

This pullman robe, with bag to match, is a comfortable adjunct to the travelling outfit and is made for ladies and misses.

If to the pleasure of travelling there
