FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE

Frontenac

GLENDOWER. Dec. 21.—The snow is almost gone as a result of the rainstorm. The schools have closed for the holidays. Mrs. J. Timmerman is quite ill. Christmas trees are plentiful in this district. Butter is very scarce and eggs are very high in price. Mrs. C. Timmerman and daughter are at A. Hoppla's.

WENSLEY. Dec. 21.—P. J. Wensley was in Plevna on Saturday. Edwin Wensley, Borden, Sask., is spending Christmas at his mother's Mrs. A. J. Wensley's. Lytton Wensley arrived home from New Ontario where he stopped on his way from Saskatchewan. Frederick Mallory was at the Station on Monday. John Brown made a business trip to Denbigh this week.

ALLEN, WOLFE ISLAND. Dec. 20.—Rev. Father Fleming passed through this vicinity on Thursday on his way to Mr. Morgan's, St. Lawrence, where he held a station for the people in that part of his mission. The sale at Jeremiah Murphy's on Dec. 20th was largely attended. A number from here attended the devotion at the Roman Catholic Church last week. Miss Stella McDonald is visiting friends in Kingston. Richard O'Shea has moved into John Irvine's house and he intends to work for him next season.

KEPLER. Dec. 16.—The W. M. Society of Kepler met at Mrs. John Donnell's on Monday when a bale was packed for the Protestant Institute, Montreal. It was valued at $35. A Christmas tree will be enjoyed on Wednesday night in the Kepler Church. E. Donnell and wife are spending a few days at Perth Road. Harvey Buck and wife visited their daughter at Newburgh recently. Visitors: Miss Page, Desert Lake; at Ambrose Orser's; Hubert A. Townsend, Baldersom, at his father's; Mrs. Ferguson at Rose Wartman's; Mrs. Guess and Mrs. Joyner were recent visitors in this neighborhood; Miss Oser, Perth Road at J. Donnell's; Ernestus W. Horning and wife and son at T. Garrett's.

WOLFE ISLAND. Dec. 21.—James Hogan and Joseph Fraser were nearly asphyxiated by gas, which escaped from the kitchen stove, on retiring at night. Mr. Hogan put on a fresh coal fire, and the escaping gas overcame them while asleep. On awakening, Mr. Hogan smelt gas and with presence of mind went to Mr. Fraser's room where he found him overcome by the gas. He hurried him out to the verandah and worked over him for two hours to bring him through. William Comer, who died in Oregon recently, was well known here, and the sad news of his death cast a gloom over the island. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Thomas White, and a nephew of Samuel Charles, Thomas McGuire, Jr., Portsmouth, spent Sunday at Frank Greenwood's. Mr. and Mrs. E. White have returned home from Sarnia, after attending the double funeral of Mr. White's uncle and aunt. E. Kelly, L. Larush and James Davis have returned home after a successful season fishing on the upper lakes. Harry Boyd went to Kingston General Hospital on Monday afternoon. Capt. James Kinney has returned home from Toronto where he was in command of the tug Earl King. Mrs. George Whitmarsh, who was seriously ill, is much improved.

ATHENS. Dec. 18.—Percy Whitmore, Frankville, having purchased the house and blacksmith shop of Burton Aigue, is now hard at work at his new stand. B. Aigue has leased Theodore Foley's Wiltse street house. W. H. Smith, B.S.A., has leased Miss E. Hayes' Rigby street house. Mrs. Charles Bates, Glen Elbe, has leased a part of Mrs. Joseph Jones' house. Gerzham Wing, having sold his Wiltse street house to Mahlon Yates, Sheldon's Corners, is now settled in his new home, the Lewis property, Reid street. He has erected a barn and made other necessary improvements. Miss George Spry for three years stenographer in the Department of Agriculture here, has gone to take a similar position in Keenlyville. Her place here has been filled by Miss Violet Karley, Brockville. Miss Mabel Brooker is assisting in "Dick's Bazaar" during the holiday rush. D. A. Abrams has returned from the west, and resumed his work in the Scott bakery. The high school commencement on Dec. 10th was, perhaps, the most successful in every way of any similar entertainment held by the high school students. The teachers who did the training deserve credit. Christmas entertainments, given by the various Sunday Schools, are to be held as follows: Presbyterian next Tuesday evening; Anglican Thursday evening; Methodist Saturday evening. The Baptist Sunday School concert is to be held later, probably about New Year's. The school's institute ladies propose having a tea and social hour during the holidays.

Leeds

CHARLESTON. Dec. 20.—Mrs. J. E. Godkin and children, Markinch, Sask., arrived on Tuesday to spend a few weeks with friends here. Clifford Green has returned from Caron, Sask., after an absence of nine months. Harry Halliday received a letter last week from Pte. George Grant written in the trenches in France. Mr. and Mrs. G. Green and Mrs. McAndrew were recent visitors at J. Webster's. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelsey, a daughter. B. Slack spent Sunday in Bellavance. W. Cockhill is engaged to teach at this school next year. Despite the heavy rain that fell a very successful concert was held at the school house on Friday evening.

MOBTON.

Dec. 20.—Miss Amy Coon, who has been attending Model at Kingston for the past three months, returned.

LANARK. Dec. 21.—Miss Marion Campbell has gone to Renfrew to reside for some time. Misses Lena Gray and Myrtle Armstrong spent a day at Lavan last week. William Crawford is spending some time in Renfrew. A number of young people of the village spent an enjoyable evening at Elliott White's last week. A young daughter has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gray. Miss Kate Elliott is visiting at her aunt's, Mrs. John Elliott's. Miss Alice Elliott, with her two nephews, from Ayr, is visiting at her home here.

CALDWELL'S MILLS.

Dec. 21.—Miss Marion Campbell has gone to Renfrew to reside for some time. Misses Lena Gray and Myrtle Armstrong spent a day at Lavan last week. William Crawford is spending some time in Renfrew. A number of young people of the village spent an enjoyable evening at Elliott White's last week. A young daughter has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gray. Miss Kate Elliott is visiting at her aunt's, Mrs. John Elliott's. Miss Alice Elliott, with her two nephews, from Ayr, is visiting at her home here.

MAREBY.

Dec. 20.—The annual cheese meeting was held in the village hall in Dec. 11th, with a good attendance. Miss Sadie Duffy and Mr. Harris Conboy will be married on Dec. 22nd. A number from here will clean up the Christmas tree at Collingbrooke on Dec. 22nd. Miss Lula Wesley has arrived home from Rochester, N. Y., for the Christmas holidays. Miss Edna Manders is home from the Normal School for Christmas. There was a good attendance at the Institute meetings on Saturday evening. Mr. Johnston spoke on poultry and Mrs. Moorehouse gave a splendid address on "Our Flag and What it Stands For." Mrs. Walrosh and little daughter Eva spent Sunday in Smith's Falls. Mr. Lillie was in the village last week. Johnston Armstrong is holding a sale today of his farm stock and implements.

SWITZERVILLE.

Dec. 20.—The Dramatic Club presented "The Minister's Bride," in Anderson and Beulah Churches respectively the 19th and 15th of this month. A social was held in the church Thursday evening, the programme consisting of local and foreign talent. The proceeds were in aid of the W. M. S. The regular monthly Red Cross meeting was held at the home of A. Parrott Wednesday evening where a large number were present. Refreshments were served and a silver collection taken. The school concert will be held in the school house Wednesday. Percy Shorey, Guelph Agricultural College is spending the holidays at home. Charles McKim spent Sunday at Tamworth. Miss Oia Frink is spending a week at her uncle's at Perth. A Christmas service was held in the church Sunday morning and special music was rendered. F. Sanderson spent Sunday at A. Moore's.

NEWBORO. Dec. 21.—Mrs. Cawley, Toronto, and John Foster, Geneva, N.Y., called here by the death of their father, Thomas Foster, spent a few days in the village before returning to their homes. Ernest T. Lookout, Sask., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Teit, Mrs. George Ackland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Theodore McMillan, Kinburn, Ont., where she will remain during the holidays. J. N. Knowlton returned last week from the west, where he has been on business for several weeks. Mrs. Flora Williams has gone to Montreal where she will visit friends for a few weeks. William Spicer has a number of men working in the vicinity of Sand Lake cutting timber for his cheese box factory. Thomas McClelland was invited to Smith's Falls last week to attend a reception given him, and two other awarded soldiers from the front. Each was presented with a gold watch and chain.

WASHBURN'S CORNERS. Dec. 20.—It was with deep regret that friends here received word of the death at Watertown, N.Y., of Jessie Delong. Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, Frankville, visited Athens friends recently. Mahlon Yates, a life long resident here, has rented his farm and will move to Athens in the near future. All regret his departure. Died at Plum Hollow after a lingering illness, Samuel Jackson, son of Ellwood Jackson, on Dec. 12th, aged 15 years. Privates Harold and Frederick Burt, Belleville, visited friends at Soperston recently. Miss Hattie Irwin visited friends at Lynn recently. Athens High school commencement was a decided success. The concert held at Charleston school house on the 17th, was a decided success. S. A. Matman, who is attending Queen's University, Kingston, was in Athens for the high school commencement. Miss Marjorie Moore, Athens, been engaged to teach the school for 1916. One day recently as James Wallace, Athens, was shopping he fell heavily on the icy pavement fracturing his knee cap. He was conveyed to Brockville General Hospital. The sale of pure bred Ayshire cattle held here by Mahlon Yates on the 17th was largely attended, and all cows brought fancy prices.
