MISS A. RICHARDSON
HOME FROM ENGLAND.
Visited Her Brother, Capt. George Richardson, Who Was on Furlough.

Miss A. Richardson, University avenue, returned on Tuesday from England where she visited with her brother, Capt. George Richardson, who had eight days leave from the trenches. While in England Miss Richardson visited several of the Canadian Convalescent Homes and in an interview with the Whig said that some of the most beautiful of English homes were now devoted to the needs of the soldiers. London and Shropshire are full of Canadians, and one meets Kingston people continually. Miss Richardson met a great number, including Col. A. E. Ross, who was on leave, "Billy" Nickle who is now a lieutenant, and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Mackie. She returned on the S.E. Rotterdam and that boat was held up from Monday until Thursday while the German mail on the boat was taken off and a thorough search made.

Change of Time.
Commencing Thursday, Dec. 30th, S.S. America will leave for Cape Vincent daily except Sunday at 10.30 a. m., instead of 1.15 p. m.

THREE OF THE WARDS AGED MAN ACCUSED

TO HAVE ALDERMANIC ELECTIONS ON MONDAY.

Four Aldermen Elected By Acclamation—G. Y. Chown and R. F. Elliott Elected Utilities Commissioners By Acclamation.

Frontenac, Rideau and Victoria are the only wards in which there will be aldermanic elections next Monday. When the time expired on Tuesday night for nominated candidates to file qualification papers with the City Clerk, the aldermanic field appeared as follows: Sydenham Ward—Dr. William Gibson (acclamation.) Ontario ward—Dr. R. J. Gardiner (acclamation.) St. Lawrence ward—W. J. B. White (acclamation.) Cataragui ward—John M. Hughes (acclamation.) Frontenac ward—For three year term: George C. Wright and J. W. Smith; for one year term: S. S. Corbett and John K. Richardson.

Rideau ward—George Laturney and C. C. Nash. Victoria ward—P. B. Chown and C. J. Graham.

There will be one election for the Board of Education, Prof. John Macgillivray and J. F. Macdonald contesting in Victoria ward. There will be no election for the Utilities Commission, George Y. Chown and R. F. Elliott being elected by acclamation.

Good Man For Frontenac Ward
Frontenac Ward is fortunate in having the opportunity of electing an alderman for the coming year a man of the energy and public spirit of Samuel S. Corbett. This is the first time Mr. Corbett has allowed his name to be placed on the ballot and only after the solicitation of a large number of voters whose interest in the city and Frontenac Ward in particular they have at heart. Mr. Corbett is known to be sincere and just with everything he undertakes and as he can give the necessary time to the work of an alderman we do not hesitate to say he will be one of the best workers for the city's interest in the Council of 1916.

The electors of Victoria Ward have a sound, safe and capable candidate in Percy B. Chown. He did splendid work on the Board of Education and if elected should be equally serviceable in the Council. Dr. Nash in Rideau Ward is also worthy of staunch support.

The Late Robert Smith.
The funeral of the late Robert Smith took place Tuesday afternoon from his residence, 197 William street, and was largely attended, as the deceased was widely known throughout the country and city. He was a man who made friends wherever he went. The floral offerings were many. The pallbearers were his brother, George Smith, Hartington; Frederick T. and Melville, sons, Toronto; William Patterson, brother-in-law, Hartington; and Bert, and Ross Patterson, nephews, Hartington. The burial service was conducted by Rev. Alfred Brown, and the remains were interred in Cataragui cemetery.

An employee of the Legomotive Works had the misfortune to work his foot badly jammed while at work in the erecting shop. He and two other men were in the act of taking off the foot board on the side of a locomotive when one end slipped, and being in the center he was unable to get out of the way. The board fell across the instep of his foot.

Sutherland, is in need of a rest and contemplates taking a three months' trip shortly.

OF ABUSING HIS WIFE ON THE STREET.

Neighbors Stated That John Cummings Dragged His Wife Down Street By the Hair of Her Head—Magistrate Imposed Fine of $10 and Costs.

John Cummings, with grey hairs in his head, and who should have known better than to do what he did, stood charged before Magistrate Farrell in the Police Court on Wednesday morning, with being drunk and disorderly.

"No, sir, I was not drunk," said the accused, when the charge was read to him. "But you are charged with being disorderly on the public street," continued the Magistrate.

"No, I was not. I had a little trouble with my wife. I was trying to get her into the house. Let me off this time and there will be no more trouble."

Then the Magistrate called Constable Earl Jenkins to hear his story. He and Constable Thomas Mullinger received a telephone call at 11.46 o'clock on Tuesday night to the home occupied by Cummings and his wife at Wade's Lane. Soldiers who happened to be passing when the row occurred telephoned to the police station.

Constable Jenkins said that Cummings was very drunk. Neighbors had stated that he had been dragging his wife down the street by the hair of her head and otherwise abusing her. He was also very drunk, and made to give the doctor every help at the top of his voice.

"He had every appearance of a man who had been drunk for about a week," explained the constable. After Constable Jenkins had given his story, the Magistrate imposed a fine of $10 and costs, with the option of one month in jail.

Thomas Shields was up for being drunk. "You are up again," was the Magistrate's greeting. Then Shields put up a plea for a chance, but the Magistrate was not issuing passes, and imposed a fine of $2 and costs or fifteen days.

SPLENDID MEETING FOR DR. RICHARDSON.

His Workers Confident That He Will Be Elected Mayor.

A splendid meeting of the workers for the election of Dr. A. W. Richardson as mayor for 1916 was held in Congress Hall, King street, on Tuesday evening, and arrangements were made to give the doctor every help at the polls next Monday. Another meeting is to be held this evening in the same place, and all supporters of Dr. Richardson who can aid in any way are invited to be present. At Tuesday evening's meeting every confidence was expressed that Dr. Richardson would be Kingston's next mayor, as support was coming to him from all sides.

The Workingmen's Friend
Dr. A. W. Richardson once stood as the workingmen's candidate for Mayor in a difficult election and against his own political party. Now the workingmen have a chance to stand by him next Monday and elect him in an even field.
