INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST. Happenings in the City and Vicinity—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig. The schools open on Monday. Has the grippe got hold of you? Vote for Aid, Richardson for Mayor. Queen's University will re-open on Wednesday next. The ratepayers have only one vote on each of the laws on Monday. H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McAlley's Book Store. Only one vote can be cast by a ratepayer on each of the by-laws being submitted on Monday. The Locomotive Works has business enough to keep it bustling for many months to come. "A good New Year's Resolution," buy all your drug store wants at Gibson's Red Cross Drug store. Police Constable Robert Sargeant found a package of goods on Princess street, and is looking for an owner. The Kingston Police Court ended the year with a good clean record. There were no cases on the docket for the Magistrate. Good service, good judgment, good speaking are all qualities possessed by Ald. Richardson, the candidate for Mayor. Serjt. W. A. Clark, of the 109th Battalion, Lindsay, is in the city.

LIET, SIDNEY MCCANN, Son of Alderman McCann, of the 1st Battery, C.P.A., for overseas service. spending the New Year's holidays with his parents, at 28 Elm street. H. Coyle going to the 109th Regiment, Lindsay, as quartermaster-sergeant was given a suit case by his old associates in Waldron's. Mrs. Edward Trembley, Chicago, has returned after spending twelve days with her mother, Mrs. W. R. Caswell, 219 University avenue. "A good New Year's Resolution," Save money on your drug store wants by going to Gibson's Red Cross Drug store. Mr. and Mrs. S. Free, parents of ex-Alderman R. J. Free, celebrated the sixty-third anniversary of their wedding at their home, 286 Earl street. The Christmas contributions to Memorial Hospital, reached $725. There is, it is hoped, more to come in as a result of the Christmas appeal. Hundreds of customers during the year 1915 saved money on drug wants by going to Gibson's Red Cross Drug store. The tug Ray Stanton has had a busy week carrying hay and gravel from the islands to Kingston. The tug also brought a cargo of gravel to Kingston from Clayton. The tug Shanley is being kept at Swift's wharf, to be used as a ice-breaker for the Keystone line of boats, which are tied up near that wharf. The trouble with junior players was finally settled by the sub-committee of the O. H. A. Wilfrid Gratton and R. H. Ferguson will play with the K. C. U. and J. Walsh with Frontenacs. On Thursday the schooner Ford River discharged her last cargo of grain at Richardson's elevator. The schooner has been transferring grain from the elevator of the Montreal Transportation Company. The remains of R. Gaborie were sent to Tweed by J. McAuley for interment. Deceased, aged eighty, a former hotelkeeper at Sicco, died in the old people's home at the House of Providence on Friday. The organization meeting of the Juvenile Hockey League was held on Thursday evening. N. Matheson was elected president, E. W. Bowman, secretary and A. J. McNeill, chairman. Just wish your friend a Happy New Year with your card in a box of Page and Shaw sweets from Gibson's Red Cross Drug store. Queen Street, Sydenham Street and Princess Methodist Sunday Schools held their annual Christmas festivals on Thursday evening. Owing to lack of space to-day, the Whig has had to hold over the reports until Monday. The prospects are that rents for 1916 will not be higher than during the past year. Tenants claim the demands made on them are high enough, in fact they say they are above the rates paid in places of similar size. Reeve James Halliday, Portmouth, will in all probability, be the new warden for Frontenac County. The back townships have had the honor now for a few years and the council could not do better than to hand it over to Portmouth's wide-awake chief magistrate. "Page and Shaw sweets" for New Year gifts at Gibson's Red Cross Drug store. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donnelly, Deseronto, purpose removing to Kingston. Recently the Presbyterians presented them with a gift as appreciation of their services as choir leader and Sunday School work.

er. Mr. Donnelly was presented with a handsome wrist watch while Mrs. Donnelly received a beautiful cut glass berry bowl. "Do you wish to remember some one at New Year's? Put your card in a box of Page & Shaw sweets and have it delivered from Gibson's Red Cross Drug store. Because an admirable, successful and progressive citizen who offers himself for any municipal office happens to be a Liberal in politics the Tory machine orders that he be "plugged." Does that kind of work tend to Kingston's advancement? In the majority and aldermanic contests the man should be the best, not his politics. QUEEN'S STUDENT KILLED.
