It will be of great assistance in incinerating the garbage. Red Cross (ough Syrup will cure any cough. Sold only at Gibson's Red Cross Drug store.

There has not been a session of the Police Court so far this year. This is certainly some record to start off the new year. Evidently there were a good many New Year's resolutions put into effect.

LOOKED AS IF THERE WOULD BE A HEAVY VOTE. Both Candidates For Mayor and Their Supporters Working Hard - Even Money in Betting on Outcome. Who will be elected? This was the question every person on the street was asking to-day. Will Dr. Richardson be mayor or will Ald. McCann get the chair?

Judging by the way the voting was going on up till one o'clock this afternoon it looked as if there would be a heavy vote polled. All the candidates were out bright and early, with their supporters, and the election looked about the liveliest that Kingston has had in some time in the municipal arena. Luckily, the weatherman served up good weather. A large number of vehicles were used to get the voters to the polls.
