WALDRON'S

THE FIVE BATTERIES

WILL GO OVERSEAS AS A BRIGADE.

Announcement Made On Tuesday—Kingston Will Send a Fine Artillery Brigade to the Front.

The 32nd, 33rd, 34th, "C" R.C. H.A., and Queen's Batteries are going overseas as units of a brigade of the 3rd Canadian Overseas Division. This announcement "woke up" military circles on Tuesday and all day applications were being made for positions with the brigade by officers who so far have been unable to get across. The letter announcing the brigade also stated that the brigadier would be appointed until the brigade reached England.

One of the batteries will be changed into an ammunition column and in all probability the junior battery will be used for this purpose.

The batteries will remain as they now are in their different quarters, but the training will now be directed by a competent artillery officer who will be directly responsible to headquarters. The appointment of the officer will not be made until the approval from Ottawa is obtained.

Tenders are to be asked for the erection of a barracks to accommodate 244 men at Fort Henry. This barracks will be a bungalow and will be used by the men of the 14th Regiment Guards. The building will be about 26 x 132 feet and of one storey.

The Riding School at the end of this week will be given back for use as a riding school as the horses that are now quartered there will be transferred to a new stable just erected near Artillery Park on Bagot street.

The stone barracks of the Artillery Park square will be turned back to the R.C.H.A., as soon as the new barracks at Fort Henry is completed. This barracks may then be used for the officers attending the Royal School of Artillery.

There was a proposition to change back the Artillery Park dormitories into stables a short time ago, but this has been rejected as there will always be a great many men to be quartered there. It should, as much to erect temporary stables for the 200 horses of the 3rd Division artillery brigade just authorized as to get the dormitories and then fix over as stables. These only 100 horses could be accommodated while there can be 600 men put into the dormitories as they are at present.

Major Gardner, A.D.M.S., left on Tuesday for Halifax, to return on the 9th.

Twenty-two recruits joined the 80th Battalion at Belleville last week.

Col. Ketcheson, 80th Battalion, says there will be no changing of companies for a month or so yet.

Herbert A. Fish, a former Belleville, was presented with a handsome wrist watch by friends in Rochester, previous to leaving to join the 155th Battalion for overseas service.

Lieut. E. B. Savage, Montreal, has reported for duty with "C" Battery.

The Allies have arrested all Teutonic subjects and Bulgarians and Turks in Salouika.

The officers of the 16th Prince Edward Regiment have donated $500 to the 155th Battalion for recruiting purposes.

There is a report that the 80th Battalion will go overseas with the third Canadian division next Spring.

Paymaster-Sergeant Evans, 33rd Battery, Kingston is spending a few days of absence with Mr. and Mrs. Beckstead, Cornwall. Mrs. Evans is returning with him, to stay in Kingston until he is called overseas.

Lieut. G. R. Long, who was wounded at Ypres while with the 2nd Battalion, and Lieut. R. G. Mason have reported for duty with the 146th Battalion.

The following have been taken on the strength of the 146th Battalion: B. Thompson, M. F. Woodcock, W. J. Gaylord, Calvin Shorts, N. C. Selman, D. O. Fraser, S. Gaylord, L. J. Innes, T. C. A. Davy, L. C. Dougherty, W. R. Hillier, C. O. Storms, R. H. Asselstine, J. M. Vanalstine, W. A. Wood, David V. Brown, A. Bathgate, Walter Day, Ernest Wood, J. H. Strachan, M. Drillskos.

Major G. H. Gillespie, Capt. James T. Sutherland and Capt. the Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald will hold a recruiting meeting on Thursday at Plevna.

The transfer of the headquarters of the Royal Canadian Artillery to Kingston means that Lieut.-Col. Roy will bring with him Q.M.S. Wolfe and two gunners of the regimental staff.

Five recruits for "C" Battery arrived from Toronto on Tuesday.

The Christmas tree for the children of the Army Service Corps men at the front is being held at the Brock street barracks on Wednesday afternoon at 4.30 p. m. There are about eighty children.

Fifteen men volunteered as a result of the 146th Battalion recruiting meeting on Monday evening.

Sergt.-Maj. Parker and Pte Daniels, A.S.C., are on the sick list with severe colds.

Sergt. Roy Gibson, 146th, is taking instruction in supply work at Tete de Pont Barracks from the A.S.C.

Lieut. D. L. Bennett took twenty-three men of the 146th to Arden on Tuesday morning.

Major C. H. Gray and Lieuts. J. J.

Bennett, W. C. Dush, H. Suiderm, J. H. Patten, 146th, are on the sick list.

The 14th Regiment instruction classes for civilians are again being held in the Armouries, and Major W. Y. Mills invites all civilians to be present at the class this evening. The classes are excellent in teaching civilians the elements of military work.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

One of the finest vaudeville and picture offerings seen in the city was witnessed by a large audience at the Grand Opera House last night. Both the pictures and the three acts of vaudeville are exceptionally good. A three-reel Universal subject, "Midnight Knoch Arden" opened the bill. Nestor comedy "And the Deacon Swore," kept the audience in roars of laughter. The Pathe Gazette showed some interesting pictures taken on the battlefields of Europe. The vaudeville was all that could be desired. Miss Jasmita Fletcher captivated the audience by her melodious singing of "Highlanders Fix Bayonets" and "Carnival," which she sang in a fine voice. McClinn and Sutton in an acrobatic act, in which some very clever work was performed on the bars, were good. Pearl Stevens delighted the audience with her singing. Among the numbers rendered were a Banjo solo which made a big hit. The feature picture of "Chimmie Fadden," with the inimitable comedian, Victor Moore in the leading role, was all that could be desired. It is one of the funniest pictures ever presented. This same bill will be presented to-night and also on Wednesday afternoon and evening.

At the Strand.

F. X. Bushman and Beverley Bayne, the recognized king and queen of filmdom, were shown on the screen last evening at this popular theatre in their first Metro star film entitled "Remington's Choice." It is a 5-part story of the Canadian northwest and gives both Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne ample scope to display their well known powers of versatility. J. J. Jeffries, the world's ex-champion boxer, is seen to good advantage in several boxing scenes with Bushman and Beverley Bayne is shown in a most alluring one-piece bathing suit. Capacity business greeted the screening of this subject at all shows yesterday. It along with other reels will be shown again to-night and Wednesday.

CHRISTMAS TREES IN THE ARMOURIES.

For Wives and Children of the Men Enlisted For Active Service.

The wives and children of the Kingstons who are now overseas or waiting for the order to go are to be given a big treat in the Armouries on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming and the ladies of the city have arranged for a number of big Christmas trees to be placed in the Armouries. These trees will be in season with presents. The men of Queen's Engineers were busy Monday putting the trees on stands. Much praise is due to Mrs. Hemming for superintending the work. Col. Hemming will open the affair on Wednesday afternoon at 3.45 o'clock with an address.

There will be trees for the children of the men of the following units: 8th and 13th C. M. R., Canadian Artillery, 59th Battalion, 21st Battalion, 146th Battalion, 109th Battalion, 80th Battalion, 39th Battalion, 28th Battalion, Queen's Stationery Hospital, Queen's Engineers, Queen's Army Medical Corps and other units in which Kingstons enlisted. It is expected that there will be about 750 persons present.

FELL FROM A PIER ON A DARK NIGHT.

How Lieut. George E. Francklyn Met Death at Folkestone, England.

Particulars have been received regarding the drowning of Lieut. George E. Francklyn, which was announced in the Whig a short time ago.

He was on his way home from the front to meet his wife. He came by steamer from Boulogne to Folkestone, whence he intended to motor to meet his wife at Hastings. There is a long pier at Folkestone to the hotels, which pier has a chain on either side. As a precaution from Zeppelin raids, there are no lights. Lieut. Francklyn arrived on a rainy night amidst a downpour of rain and a heavy sea. He started along the pier, guiding himself by the chain, but unfortunately one piece of the chain got out of place, and when he took hold, he was thrown into the water. When his body was found the next morning, there was a deep gash on the back of his head, and it is believed that he was dashed against the pier by the powerful waves. Deceased was buried at Shorncliffe, with full military honors, and the deepest affections of regret for the departed and sympathy for his young widow were displayed on all sides, and many floral tributes were sent.
