MAYOR-ELECT SPEAKS

AT WHIG OFFICE AFTER HEARING THE RESULTS.

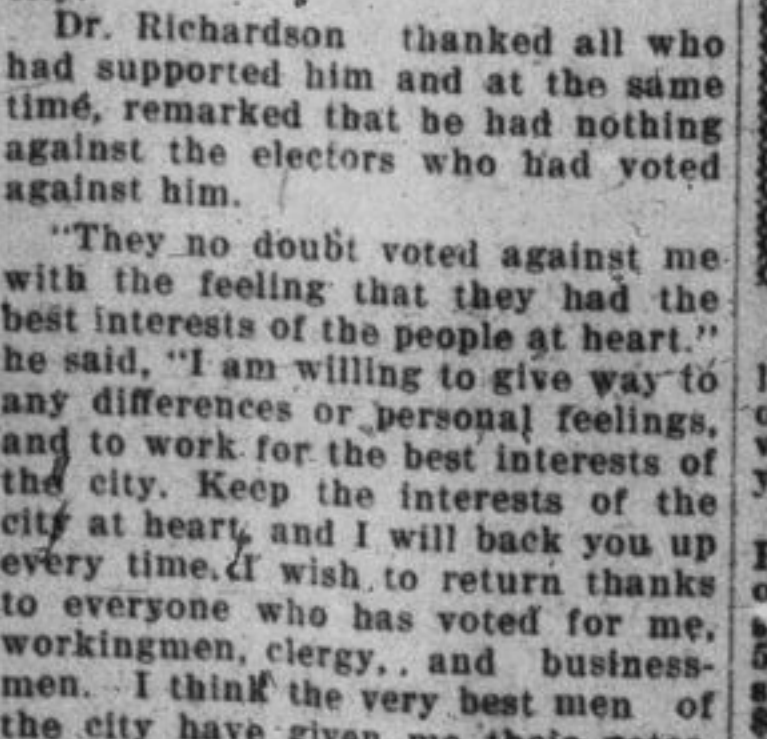

He Stands To See Everything Done To Better The Citizens As A Whole — Thanked All Who Supported Him.

Mayor-Elect Dr. Richardson came down to the Whig office to hear the results about 7.30 o'clock, and he was given a rousing reception by a large number of his supporters...

DON'T BE BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK OR CONSTIPATED

Enjoy life! Live your liver and bowels to-night and feel great.

Wake up with head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, cold gone.

Take one or two Cascarets to-night and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced.

and fair, and I hope that at the end of the year you will not have occasion to say that you were sorry Dr. Richardson was elected Mayor.

INSISTS KAISER HAS CANCER.

Paris Press Sure He Inherited Disease That Killed His Father.

Paris, Jan. 4.—That the Kaiser is suffering from a deadly cancer is an article of faith with French newspapers, some of them stating the fact in the biggest headlines the censor allows.

The Matin says that a telegram declaring well-informed Berlin circles realize the malady is cancer of the throat, was posted in Zurich, despite strong German influence, on the day after Christmas.

The father developed cancer when 56 and died a few months afterward. The son is now that age.

The man of brag and bluster in public may be the man who obeys quickly when his wife says "thumbs up."

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. Two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes gives you as good syrup as any money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

BANNER YEAR LIKELY

ON THE GREAT LAKES, SO EXPORTS PREDICT.

Vessels Being Bought Up—Big Grain and Ore Shippers Purchase Everything Available in Preparation for Record Movement.

Cleveland, Jan. 3.—Experts in the Great Lakes marine trade predict the 1910 season will be one of the most prosperous, in the history of lake shipping.

The total of these transactions, the leader says, is the largest since the formation of the United States Steel Corporation, when about 100 vessels were taken over to form the corporation's ore-carrying fleet.

The 1910 shipping season closed with the rates high on coal, ore and grain and cargoes in excess of the supply of ships. Cargo and hull insurance was extended to December 12th so that the freight, especially the movement of freight for December was the largest on record.

As an indication of what may be expected in the coming season, the leading ore shippers already have chartered the pick of the independent vessel tonnage, at a freight advance of 10 cents per ton over the

WHAT ONTARIO FOLKS SAY.

Hamilton, Ont.—"This is to state that I have received great benefit from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Some time ago I was run down and weak, suffered loss of appetite and was miserable. Four bottles of the Favorite Prescription cured me up in fine shape; it did wonders for me and I can recommend it very highly to all women who are ailing."—Miss MARY MILLER, 127 Hess St., Hamilton, Ont.

Brantford, Ont.—"Some few years ago I got in a very much run-down condition. Was very weak; could not do anything; had no strength at all. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; I only took five bottles and it put me in splendid condition. I feel better than I had for years. Other members of my family have used this medicine and found it equally as beneficial. I can highly recommend it to weak women."—Mrs. A. GILMORE, 71 Brighton Row, Brantford, Ont.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Like an open book, our faces tell the tale of health or disease. Hollow cheeks and sunken eyes, listless steps, sleepless nights—all of wasting debilitating disease some place in the body. It may be on face or another, the cause is usually traceable to a common source.

Get the "Prescription" today—either in liquid or tablet form—if you want to better your physical condition speedily.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Keep the body clean inside as well as outside.

FORESEES FURTHER TROUBLE.

Torpedoes Continue, Despite Assurances, London Points Out.

London, Jan. 4.—The London papers are not yet in possession of the full text of the latest note from Austria-Hungary to the United States regarding the sinking of the Ancona, but all publish the summary received yesterday, with headlines in which the words "evasion" and "reparation" are the most prominent.

The Daily News in an editorial remarks on the difference in the tone of this note from the "evasion and ill-concealed insolence" of the first note from Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian Secretary of Foreign Affairs, and adds:

"Stripped of superfluous verbiage, the note states to all intents and purposes an unconditional capitulation. The approved Teutonic procedure—bravado, followed by unreserved surrender—is thus scrupulously followed."

The News thinks it needless to comment in detail in view of the probable acceptance by the United States of the explanation, but says it is idle to pretend that the general question at issue is now set at rest, since torpedoes without notice still continue.

The other papers, in remarks attached to the note, indicate their irritation at what they characterize as the ungracious character of the Austrian surrender.

The Chronicle says: "Even Austria's own version of the outrage shows the cold-bloodedness with which the wholesale murder was committed."

The Morning Post says that the "despicable allegation is made in the note that the loss of life was due to the culpability of the crew."

MOSELS SEEK AUTONOMY.

League Of India's Demand Is For After War.

London, Jan. 4.—Reuter's correspondent at Bombay, who reported that the Moslem League of India had suspended its sessions after noisy demonstrations, telegraphs to-day that the league made strong defense at its last meeting for the self-government of India, under the British flag. It was held, however, that it was not imperative to make this change until after the war, when the whole form of government of the Empire should be reconstructed.

Resolutions were adopted unanimously expressing loyalty to the Crown, and appreciation of the administration of Baron Hardings, viceroy of India.

50 YEARS IN PRIESTHOOD.

Pope Sends Congratulations to Cardinal Diomed.

Rome, Jan. 4.—Pope Benedict has sent to Cardinal Diomed Falconio, former apostolic delegate to the United States, congratulations upon the fact that on January 4th he will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, which took place in the Cathedral at Buffalo, N.Y. The Pontiff added to his congratulations appreciative words for the United States, where the Cardinal spent many years of his ecclesiastical career.

It is reported here that Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, is again expected in Rome if he can obtain an absolute guarantee that Germany will not prevent his return to Belgium.

VON BISSING INTERVIEWED

This German Murderer Unable to Understand WHY THE WHOLE WORLD SHOULD BECOME HYSTERICAL OVER MISS CAVELL.

His Deadness of Soul—Few Years In Prison Not Sufficient For Her Offense, He Tells American Correspondent.

New York, Jan. 1.—The World publishes a report of an interview between its staff correspondent, Karl Kitchin, and Baron von Bissing, military governor of Belgium, which is commented upon here as an astonishing exposure of the German deadness of soul. Mr. Kitchin, in his report of the interview, writes:

"General von Bissing, the military governor of Belgium, whom I saw in his office, overlooking the gardens near the Palais Royale, was also most polite and solicitous for my welfare. He greeted me with the most democratic of handshakes, and before I could begin interviewing him he was interviewing me.

"So you came to Brussels to write about the Cavell case? That is very interesting," he went on before I could interrupt him. "You did not find travelling difficult, did you? And Brussels is not much changed, is it? I suppose you have been here before." After I had reassured him on these points he said:

"The Cavell woman was found guilty of the offense of aiding English, French and Belgian soldiers to escape from Belgium. In times of war this offense is punishable by death in all countries. The Cavell woman was accordingly executed.

"I may add that she was not a young woman, who did not realize what she was doing. She was a woman of fifty, strong-willed and determined to carry out her dangerous work at all costs. These are the facts in the case. It was necessary for you to come to Brussels to learn this."

"But the entire civilized world is interested in the case," I protested. "I cannot understand why," he replied frankly. "With millions of hands of innocent people who have died in the war, why should anyone become hysterical over the death of one guilty woman?"

"Because she was a woman," I interrupted. "Exactly," agreed His Excellency.

"Why was it necessary to execute her? Couldn't she have been placed in prison?" I asked.

"I am glad you ask this," he replied drawing his chair closer to his large flat-top desk, which was covered with papers, books and several photographs in silver frames. "This Cavell woman was guilty of a very serious offense. According to her own admission she aided 130 men of military age, English, Belgian and French, to escape from Belgium. Many of these men are fighting with the enemy—naturally the case was not one to be overlooked.

"A few years in prison is not sufficient punishment for an offense of this kind. For punishment in a case of this nature is meted out to determine self-government of India, under the British flag. It was held, however, that it was not imperative to make this change until after the war, when the whole form of government of the Empire should be reconstructed.

Resolutions were adopted unanimously expressing loyalty to the Crown, and appreciation of the administration of Baron Hardings, viceroy of India.

MAY GO TO ENGLAND.

For the Codrer Case — N. K. Lafamme, K.C., Wanted.

London, Jan. 4.—It is probable that N. K. Lafamme, K.C., of Montreal, will come to England to assist in the defense of Lieut. Codrer, of Sherbrooke, who will face at the February assizes a charge of murdering Sergt. Ozanne. Although an English barrister and solicitor will be necessary, Mr. Lafamme's counsel in regard to various Canadian aspects of the case would undoubtedly be helpful. Mrs. Codrer is remaining here on advice from Sherbrooke, although her passage had been booked for the Scandinavian, sailing to-day. She has twice visited her husband in Winchester jail. He sits well, and appears indifferent to the seriousness of his position.
